THANKSGIVING OBSERVED BY THE CHURCHES IN APPROPRIATE MANNER.

An appropriate Union Thanksgiving service at the First Baptist church was participated in by the ministers of all the Protestant denominations and attended by a representation of the congregations of the different churches.

At the Catholic church Rev Ferret conducted the usual Thanksgiving services in the morning.

We have just received a shipment of pea green Alfalfa Hay—Welsh Warehouse Company, Inc. N29.

Everybody is coming to the Masonic Hall this afternoon to buy something good eat, something pretty to wear, something pretty to send to your best friend.

MAKE HOLSTEIN SALE AN ANNUAL EVENT.

In speaking of his success with the Holstein cattle, Mr. J. F. Hoke, who is here from Maryland for the purpose of closing out his stock on the farm which he sold last summer, remarked to a Journal representative that he was seriously contemplating making the Holstein sale an annual affair, providing the stock takes as well as he believes they will.

He is engaging in the Holstein business exclusively in Maryland, and thinks that his connection with the industry there will enable him to pick up a class of stock that will appeal very strongly to the buyers here who are turning their attention to dairy herds.

Mr. Hoke has had much experience with dairy cattle and after a thorough survey of the field he has adopted the Holstein as the best for the purpose.

FARMERS, ATTENTION!

I have secured the agency for a Farm Ledger that is a great convenience in keeping farm accounts and records. It is very simple and can be kept by anyone. It covers all the items and at the end of the year the man who uses the system can make up his income tax report without difficulty. Let me show you how easy it is.

T. C. SIMMONS.

At the Southern Rice Growers' N29 ttc

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gibson arrived Wednesday night from De Ridder to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Todd.

J. N. Mills Quits Farming.

J. N. Mills announces that he has decided to discontinue farming operations and will close out his entire equipment at public auction to the highest bidder on Monday, December 5th.

Besides a big list of mules, horses, farm machinery, etc., Mr. Mills will sell a number of milch cows, heifers, pigs, shoats and hogs. Watch for the announcement in the next issue of the Journal.

Civic League Meeting.

The Civic League will meet next Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. R. McBurney.

Mr. L. A. Gigger went to Lake Charles Wednesday morning to attend the meeting of the Annual Gulf Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church.

SCHOOL BONDS BRING PAR AND ACCRUED INTEREST.

It is reliably announced that the bonds of the Welsh School District, amounting to $125,000.00 have been purchased at par plus accrued interest, a very handsome figure. The sale was handled by Mr. G. A. Courtney of the Calcasieu National Bank.

Bids for the erection of the new school building will be opened by the parish school board on December 16.

Narans Public Sale.

Having sold his farm and moved to Welsh to reside J. W. Narans announces that he will sell his entire stock and farm equipment at auction on the Narans farm three and one-half miles east of Welsh on Wednesday, December 10th.

Mr. Narans' sale will include some eighty head of cattle, eighteen mules, seventeen horses and the usual line of farm equipment. Full announcement of the sale will appear in the next issue of the Journal.

PERSONAL.

Henry Welch, of Houston, a former Welsh boy, stopped over between trains Saturday. Mr. Welch is traveling for an auto supply house and makes this his territory.

Messrs. Isaac Fontenot, John Gamble and Claphy Pitre, of Jennings, were in Welsh Saturday looking after business interests.

HILARIOUS COMEDY IS COMING TO WELSH ON NIGHT OF DECEMBER 5TH.

L. S. U. Dramatic Club Will Present "All-of-a-Sudden Peggy."

The L. S. U. Dramatic Club which comes to the Auditorium Friday evening, December 5th, in the most captivating of plays, "All-of-a-Sudden Peggy," is an aggregation of the cleverest of dramatic artists at the State University.

Peggy is the clever grandmother of the late Col. Nicholson, known in every home in Louisiana. Miss Lucille May Grace and Miss Dorothy Flower are the daughters, respectively, of Hon. Fred J. Grace, commissioner of the State Land Office, and Dr. E. P. Flower.

Sam G. Lucky was a dramatic star at the University years ago and has returned after the war to complete his college course.

Lewis Long, as one of the comedy leads, has often been mistaken for a professional. Equally versatile is Mr. R. E. Chaplin, the Lord Crackenhorpe of the play, about whom the whole plot centers.

Half a dozen others as butlers, footmen and society gossip, complete the cast. But we must not overlook Miss Edna Arnold, of Baton Rouge, a freshman at the University, the Mrs. O'Mara who looks and acts as though she might have come from Cork but yesterday.

Three acts of hilarious comedy of a high order, gripping in its interest, sudden in its action, and unexpected in its results is assured.

The collegians furnish music and dancing between the acts, and all will be presented at the Auditorium Dec. 5th, under the auspices of the Welsh High School.

Prices: Children in balcony, 25c. Adults, balcony, 50c; the whole lower floor at 75c.

Ear Corn and Oats in car lots, delivered at any R. R. station, subject to inspection. Write, phone or see R. A. Estes, at Mutual Warehouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Lyons, formerly residents of Welsh, spent Sunday in the city renewing acquaintances with old friends.

This is the day to get something good to eat—at the Masonic Building.

ATTENTION MEMBERS OF WOODMEN OF THE WORLD AND THE WOODMEN CIRCLE.

It is very important that every member of Welsh Camp No. 176 W. O. W. attend the next stated meeting of the Camp, which comes on Wednesday night, December 3. At this meeting the annual election of officers will take place.

Owing to the fact that there is a diversity of opinion as to the effect of the new laws of the order which will go into effect on January 1st, the officers of Welsh Camp have secured the services of Judge W. C. Braden, C. C. of the Lake Charles Camp, who was a delegate to the Sov. Camp Convention in Chicago, when the present laws were enacted, and who will be present at the meeting next Wednesday night to explain in detail their effect upon the members.

Judge Braden has a comprehensive understanding of everything pertaining to Woodcraft, together with a considerable oratorical ability, and his presence will be highly appreciated by the membership.

No Woodman can afford to miss this important meeting and the opportunity of hearing Judge Braden explain the workings of the new laws.

Following the business session which will convene at 7:30 o'clock sharp, the ladies of the Woodmen Circle will be invited to join in the meeting in order that they may enjoy the opportunity to listen to an explanation of the laws which likewise effect the membership of their order. Light refreshments will be the final number on the program.

The members of the Circle will meet in the reception room of the Woodmen hall.

Visiting Woodmen and members of the Circle are very cordially invited to attend the meeting.

—By Order of the C. C.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our sincere and heartfelt thanks to the many kind friends and neighbors who rendered us assistance in caring for our beloved wife and mother during her last illness, and for the many comforting expressions and floral tributes.

WOODLAWN NOTES.

Unsettled weather conditions still prevail. We were visited by rain Monday night and along with the rain came a high shifting southerly wind, making everything disagreeable and a storm of some violence passed over here damaging some property and uprooting trees.

Rice threshing has come to a standstill, broadly speaking. Only a few farmers have some rice to thresh and though much of the rice is still in the fields, the rains of the past few weeks have rotted the butts so bad that it is unprofitable to thresh such rice.

Messrs. Raymond Hebert and Allen DeWolf sold their rice here last week. Much of the rice was of a high grade and brought a fair price.

Mr. J. T. Moses of Oberlin and Mr. Karam of Fenton were visitors to our burg Sunday.

Mr. David Miller and Mr. and Mrs. John Miller were Welsh business visitors Saturday.

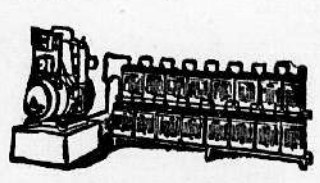

Fenton's staff representative to the Journal must be kin to Sherlock Holmes to detect any fights in our peaceful hamlet. I admit there was a fight, but not a knock down one—in fact there was no fight at all, for one of the participants is preparing to go into the boxing ring and the other contestant was his manager. I am afraid the aforesaid correspondent was not introduced to the major facts hence his non de plume "Sunshine."

Woodlawn's subscribers welcome our neighboring burg, Fenton, in its representation in the Journal, and we are looking to see other communities hop in before long. What is the matter with Lacassine, Rice, Thornwell. They better hop in and ride.

—Uncle zeke.

A Style for Every Man

The right of personal liberty extends to the selection of a suit of clothes. A man is entitled to any kind of suit he wants to wear. We recognize this, and what is more, we have provided clothes to meet every fad, fancy, or preference.

And this includes clothes cut to fit men of unusual statures—short, tall thin or stout.

Here is a store you'll enjoy coming to, for we have the kind of clothes you want—we don't have to try to make you want the kind of clothes we have. There's a big difference in those two things, isn't there?
