PEACE RESOLUTION ADOPTED BY HOUSE

Twenty-Two Democrats Join G. O. P. in Declaring War With Germany at End.

Washington, D. C.—The republican joint resolution declaring the state of war with Germany at an end and repealing most of the wartime legislation was adopted Friday by the house.

The democrats voting against recommending were Gallivan of Massachusetts, Olney of Massachusetts and Hamill of New Jersey.

The vote on the passage of the peace resolution was 242 to 150; present and not voting 2.

Twenty-two democrats joined with the republican majority in supporting the resolution and two republicans voted against its adoption.

Democrats voting for the resolution were: Ashbrook, Caldwell, Dooling, Cullen, Gallivan, Gormley, Golfogle, Huddleston, McKinniry, McLane, Mahr, O'Connell, O'Connor, Pell, Hamill, Olney, Sherwood, Sullivan, Tague, Carraw, Evans of Nevada and Meade.

Republicans opposing it were Fuller of Massachusetts and Kelley of Michigan.

Before adopting the resolution the house voted down a motion by Representative Flood of Virginia, the ranking democrat of the foreign affairs committee, to send the resolution back to the committee with instructions to report out a substitute repealing all wartime acts.

The vote on that motion was 171 for and 223 against.

On the democratic substitute, offered as a motion to recommit, the only vote other than that on adoption of the resolution permitted under the rule, three democrats lined up with the republicans, while two republicans joined the minority. The greater break in the democratic ranks came on the final vote.

Chairman Porter of the foreign affairs committee claimed after the roll call that twenty votes would carry the resolution over a presidential veto. Democratic members, however, said a vote on that question would see party alignment virtually intact.

The vote ended a two-day battle of words in the house. The rule was rigid, preventing all attempts at amendment of the resolution put forward by republicans on direct offers of substitutes. Only the recommitment motion was acceptable and there was no preliminary presentation of the democratic proposal.

MEMORIAL PLANNED FOR OUR SOLDIERS

SUGGESTS $300,000 BUILDING AT LOUISIANA STATE UNIVERSITY AT NEW ORLEANS.

IS FITTING TESTIMONIAL

Generations Would Be Served and Memory of Men Who Gave Their Lives Would Be Kept Green By Louisiana Children.

New Orleans.—Hearty indorsement of the soldiers' memorial campaign to erect a $300,000 memorial building to Louisiana men who died in the great war has been wired and written to campaign headquarters at Baton Rouge by prominent Louisianians from every corner of the state.

According to dispatches from the capital, the organization of the state into districts for the campaign is well under way and district chairmen are enthusiastic over the assurance of co-operation wherever the campaign has been started. Coleman Lindsey, state campaign manager, has just completed a tour of the state in the interest of the fund. The building will be erected on the campus at Louisiana State University.

"No more fitting, lasting and useful testimonial can possibly be given to the memory of those splendid Americans who sacrificed their lives during the war than the erection of a suitable memorial on the splendid grounds which belong to the Louisiana State University," wrote John M. Parker.

"It will not only be a constant reminder of real patriotism, but an inspiration for future generations and I most sincerely hope that there will be no difficulty whatsoever in securing the funds needed for this laudable purpose."

Congressman Sanders wrote: "Generations yet unborn would be served by such a building and the memory of the brave men who gave their lives for freedom would be kept green by Louisiana boys and girls who would be benefited by such a building."

"You may count on me for any assistance I can render and for such financial assistance as my means will permit."

"The memorial will serve not only as a deserved and fitting tribute to our soldier dead," wrote Colonel Stubbs, "but should prove an inspiration to the living and serve to keep alive the spirit of patriotism which I fear is on the wane in our nation, and even in our own beloved Louisiana."

"It is fitting, to that men like you, whose loyalty and devotion to American ideals have found expression in concrete service and who offered their bodies and gave their blood in their country's cause should be the first to conceive and inaugurate the worthy movement which I hope and believe will receive the cordial support of all loyal Louisianians."

REPUTED SURVIVOR OF ALAMO IS DEAD

Captain Shilling, Scout and Guide, and Foster Son of Kit Carson, Passes.

Los Angeles, Cal.—Captain Louis C. Shilling, scout and guide, foster son of Kit Carson, associate of Davy Crockett and Colonel James Bowie and a member of General John C. Fremont's California expedition, died Friday at the National Soldiers' Home at Sawtelle, near Los Angeles. He was 88 years old.

Captain Shilling was said to have been a survivor of the Alamo, where, when he was four years old, his mother and sister were slain. He later became the foster son of Kit Carson, after Carson found him serving as a cabin boy on the Little Creek, the first stern-wheeled craft on the Mississippi.

He was born in Galveston, where his father settled in 1807, when that district was known as the Peninsula of Spain. The elder Shilling served as secretary of state of the Texas Republic when General Sam Houston was its president, it was said.

FERTILE VALLEYS ONCE SEA

Naturalists of Opinion They Were Laid Bare by Great Convulsions of Nature.

Many of the most fertile valleys and plains in the world appear to be the bottoms of ancient lakes laid bare by an exit having been opened by some convulsion of nature, in some instances by mere gradual operations for the waters that were previously enclosed by impenetrable barriers.

The Euxine and Caspian seas, well as Lake Aral and several others, are the remains of an extensive sea, which covered the greater part of the north of Asia, according to the belief of Peter Simon Pallas. It has been conjectured that the opening of the Bosphorus was the occasion of the draining of this ocean in the midst of Europe and Asia, the result of this disruption of the two continents being preserved in the traditions of Greece.

Patience is not passive; on the contrary it is active; it is concentrated strength.
