In mentioning the names of the teachers of the Elton school last week the writer unintentionally omitted the music teacher, Miss Harrison taught music in Elton last year, but had planned to spend this year at her home in Montgomery, and not until a few days ago could she be persuaded to again serve the Elton school. We are glad to learn that the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bolls whom we reported ill last week, is recovering, having missed fever for several days.

A. H. Ellis and Mr. Lambert of the Calcasieu National Bank at Lake Charles were in Elton Wednesday.

BORN—Sept. 9, To Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Andrews, a daughter. Mother and child are doing nicely.

We are glad to see by Fenton notes that even Sarah Jane has noticed that Elton is "On The Map," though she seems somewhat envious of our girl's matrimonial accomplishment. We extend to her our sympathy since she seems to so deplore her single blessedness, but would advise her not to cast any "Sheep Eyes" this way, for Elton is full of girls that are just as sweet, pretty, refined and cultured as the one recently married and of whose wedding Sarah Jane makes mention. One of the requirements of Elton's eligible young men seems to be a finished education, so Sarah might do better even in Fenton by going to school a few years more.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Broderick's little baby boy is quite sick, the family physician being called in Wednesday.

New subscribers so far this week, are: Rev. N. B. Wallace; Father Borell Mrs. W. P. Guldry and Mrs. J. R. Thomas of Perryton, Texas.

Weather continues dry and hot, hard to bear, but good for rice harvest. Two or three light showers cooled the atmosphere for a time Tuesday.

Mrs. A. Agaisse and two smaller children spent a few days in Kinder last week visiting her sister Mrs. L. and De Louche.

Misses Lilly Chestnut and Lovenia Nugent the "hello" girls at Central, resigned their position yesterday morning and Mrs. Emma Pflug has been employed as chief operator, with Miss Lena Schlett of Jennings as assistant. We bespeak for these new girl a very patient public while they are familiarizing themselves with new conditions. They are already doing nicely giving good service.

Mrs. Dr. Mayse came over from Kinder Wednesday to visit her sister Mrs. Henry Tietje.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Pratt of Jennings

Write for a catalogue of the Tyler Commercial College today. Read the endorsements from parents who have patronized this institution, and note what they say as to the thoroughness of our training and as to the moral surroundings of the student while in school. THE PASSING OF HAND LABOR

Modern business, or rather the manufacturing business, has long realized that volume of business and profit depend to a great extent upon saving wherever possible, and particularly upon replacing hand labor with machine labor where a machine can perform the work better and more quickly.

The same change is placing farming upon a better business basis. For years, of course, field work has been done largely by machinery. Otherwise America's tremendous agricultural production would have been impossible. And now this same increase in operating efficiency is spreading to the doing of the lesser work on the farm. Chores have been a burden. They have faced the farmer or his boy twice a day, once before and once after a regular day's work. They have meant grinding drudgery. And their worst feature has been that they had to be done almost exclusively by hand.

With the coming of electricity to the farm through the medium of the farm electric light and power plant, this condition has been greatly changed. Thousands of farms in America are today entirely free of the tiresome part of chore work. Before dawn in the morning there is plenty of bright electric light in the barns while the milking is going on. And the milking itself is done not by hand, slowly and laboriously as before, but by a small electric motor. One man can easily do the work that took two or three before. The separating and the churning are done in the same way. And so with a grindstone, the corn sheller, the fan mill and other light farm machinery. Where two men worked before, one of them always turning the crank, now one man feeds the machine—does the job—and the electric motor does the work. And pumping, one of the biggest jobs on the farm is now done by an electric pump that is entirely automatic.

In the house the same labor saving is seen, only in this case it is the farm women who benefit. Wash day is now a thing of electric machines and irons instead of the old fashion of bending over a tub all day. Sweeping is done better and quicker with electricity. This is surely the age of efficiency. Hand labor is passing in the country as it has in the city.

What a pretty deadlock it would have been in the garden of Eden, if Eve, in possession of her rights of suffrage, had chosen to disagree with Adam!

The price of raisins has gone up as if there were really a kick in them.

During her vacation the telephone girl was out fishing, when someone another boat sang out "Hello!" Just then she got a bite. "Line's busy," she called back brightly.

Every druggist in town—your druggist and everybody's druggist has noticed a great falling off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place. "Calomel is dangerous and people know it, while Dodson's Liver Tone is perfectly safe and gives better results," said a prominent local druggist.

Take "Dodson's Liver Tone" Instead!

Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle costs but a few cents, and if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, you have only to ask for your money back. Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant-tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick headache, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience all the next day like violent calomel. Take a dose of calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak, sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work! Take Dodson's Liver Tone instead and feel fine, full of vigor and ambition.
