

ELTON DEPARTMENT

(By Mrs. Lionel Bertrand)

Elton, La., Dec. 21—Harry Monroe ha da rather unpleasant experience last Thursday afternoon, while in the woods digging bait with which he expected to go fishing laier. He remembered stooping ove rto pic kup a neat bunc ho fangle worms, when suddenly the leap seemed t obe millions o fwriggling worms and everything went blank .He had no knowledge of how nor when he reached home but immediately fell ont othe be di nanother swoon. Th efamily physician was called an dnext day Mr. Monroe seeme das well as ever, except for bein ga littl estiff from lying an hour or more on the damp ground.

Mrs. Anna Bufor dpurchased the M. E. Schell store property the las tof last week an dwill take charge a tonce .Mr. Schell's poor health necessitated his retiring from business and he and Mrs. Schell will, for the present, live in rooms i n their home on the old college grounds. Mrs. Buford, many friends wish her much succes sin the new venture.

Mrs. W. P. Guidry returned the latter part of the week fro m north Louisiana, where she had been on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Huckleberry and brother,

Allen, an dfamily .She reports busines svery bris kin that section.

Miss Myrtle Farnum of Sawtelle, California ,who has been visitin grelative sin Louisiana for the pas tmonth, came to Elton Monday to make an xetended visit with her niece, Mrs. Lionel Bertrand, an dfamily .Mrs. Farnum live di nthis part of the state several years ago, an dis enjoying meetin gal lthe of dfriends again, but says th ecountry in general has undergone such changes as to be utterly beyond recognition. Of course, one can't induce her to say i i sequal to California, but tha ti thas wonderfully improved since she was las there.

J. L. Catlett took his wife and children over to Rosa Thursday where they expect to spend the holiday season with home folks. Mr. Catlett will join them the day before Christmas.

C. Sonier an dfamily moved recently into the cottage in East Elton recently vacated by Miss Moreau.

The lyceum was very slimly attended Saturday night but was a goo dnumber and enjoyed by those who were there .

Archille Buller is having a new house built o nhis place about a mile north of Elton and expects to move his family into it by the first o fthe year.

Joe Landry ha da part of his residence repapered this week, J. W. Stokes doing the work.

Jno. Barnet tand family were in Welsh Monday on business and to visit relatives .

T. S. Walker of East Raymond was an Elton visitor Monday.

Mrs. Geo. Ward and Lester and Miss Emma Pilgrim were week-end guests of Mrs. D. E. Powell.

Olan Broussard attending the St. Joseph Seminary and brother, Eroll, of the St. Charles Academy, Grand Coteau, are home to spend the holiday season with their mothe rand sisters.

Miss Lorena Broussard, one of the teachers in the Catholic school leaves Friday to spend the holidays in St. Martinville.

Words fail us to give i many measure a satisfactory writup of the little school play of Friday night, entitled, "At the En dof the Santa Claus Trail," given by the pupils fro mgrades three, four, five and six, with two from the secon dgrade o fthe public school. Much of the play was given in characte rsong, and all had their parts memorized, and they were give nalmost perfectly .The costumes were lovely, the colors carrying out the Christmas spirit and the stage represented one vast snow scene .While every child did just splendidly, we feel that the leading characters, Wanda Johnson and Tilgham Hart deserve especial praise, since their parts were lon gan ddifficult. The rabbit, bear, snow man and Santa Claus made merry for everyone. The teachers are to be most highly commended fo rthis beautiful entertainment they prepared with so much care and which was enjoyed b ya packed house .The proceeds were $35.10.

The Christmas entertainments will be extended throughout the entire week, beginning Wednesday evening with an operetta, "Yankee Sam," followed by a Christmas stree at the Catholic school .On Thursday afternoon the public school exercises in the various grades at which time each pupi will receive a gift and a fine treat o ffrui tand candy. On Frida yevening a miscellaneous program will be rendered by the Sunday School in the Methodist church, the principal feature being "An Old Fashioned Well" from whic hthe gift rare drawn. The Baptist Sunday School program comin gon Christmas evening is somethin gout o fthe ordinary, followed b ya Christmas tree.

The Bradfords having been so long connected with saw mills and timber land is the only excuse we can find for the typographical error in last week's Elton letter which made the article about Mr. Norman's land purchase read "cut-over" land. This is rather ludicrous, since it is a vast prairie country, as the name Meadow Prairie doubly implies, and the onlystumps to be seen are from dea dtrees planted by the early settlers some thirty-five years ago .We fee lsure the printer's devil has been meddling again.

Have you paid your 1921 poll tax yet. There are only a few days left in which to do so. Don't wait until the last day, you may be detained and lose your franchise for a period of two years.

ROANOKE BUDGET

Roanoke, La., Dec. 23.—Miss Nellie Thomas is spending the week-end in Lake Charles with her sister, Mrs. Ralph Payton.

Kenneth Martin of the Great Lakes Training school, who is home on a thirty-day furlough visited with his sister, Mrs. L. G. Morrell in Lake Charles last week.

W. E. Hurst of Lake Arthur was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Lovett last week.

Mesdames J. R. Tennally and E. B. Martin were in Welsh Wednesday afternoon shopping.

Mrs. A. T. Moore was out driving one day this week. We are gla do report tha tshe ha s sufficiently recovered to be able to be out.

William Poythress returned for the holidays from Davidson Educational Institute, Davidson, N. C. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Clayton are moving to their farm home north of Roanoke.

Mr. R. W. Law has moved to DeRidder.

J. R. Tennally is improving after a spell of la grippe.

Mrs. R. E. Martin is able to be about in her room after quite a siege of la grippe and neuralgia.

M. R. Ziegler o fElgin, Ill., secretary of the mission board, gave some good talks while here in the interest of missionary work .The delegates to the district Sunday School and Ministerial conference of the Chure ho fthe Brethren were D. G. Brubaker and S. Molsbern of Nocona, Texas; A. J. Wine and Cisco Leigh of Fort Worth; J. A. Miller and Mrs. Sprague of Mauve, Texas. There also were two from New Orleans, who made quite a visit, but we failed to get their names. Crowds gathered fro mdifferent places until the house was filled. A lot of good work has been done. Rev. Brubaker and Rev. Molsbern are yet with us. We are gla do announce they are having good attendance in spite of the rainy weather. All who can should attend these services .The song service is fine an deverybody is cordially invited.

Mr. Frank Hoke an dfamily are back in their rformer places and we are glad to have them wit hus again .

Mrs. Jennie Pulliam will leave for Sulphur Sunday afternoon to spend a few days with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hewitt have moved onto the Barnett property on the grave lroad near Welsh.

Wishing each and every one of our co-correspondents a Happy Christmas an da glad and Prosperous New Year, we close our work for this year.

Sincerely yours,
A GLEANOR.

HEALTHFUL VIGOR IN STRONG BLOOD.

Rich, Red Blood Built Up By Pepto-Mangan—Liquid or Tablet.

Blood is strong and full of life-giving vigor when there are plenty of red cells in it. Anaemic people have little strength because there are not enough red cells in the blood. It is this hand watery. Weak blood makes face pale, pulls down the strength and leaves the bod y tired, weak, and sickly.

A course of Gude's Pepto-Mangan restores weak blood to its normal strength. Taken regularly for a while it adds red cells to the blood. Then with good blood the strength and vigor of health return. There is pleasure in living, with good blood drunning through the veins. Gude's Pepto-Mangan is sput up in liquid an din tablet form. They are the same medicinally. Physicians have prescribed Gude's Pepto-Mangan for years. Th ename "Gude's Pepto-Mangan" i s on the package. Advertisement .
