SATURDAY, MAY 5, 1888.

Entered as Second Class matter at the Post Office at Tallulah, Louisiana.

DRIFT.

More rain is needed. Schools close this month. The lower river is falling all along. A welcome rain visited Tallulah Thursday night. Cool nights and mornings in the early part of the week. Captain Holmes has been cutting oats this week. The election is over and the cry for peace is heard through the land. The ice season will open shortly, when long toddlers will be in order. Misses Florence and Lizzie Briscoe are visiting friends in Vicksburg.

Mrs. Allnut returned from Hot Springs, Thursday, very much improved by her visit.

It looks now as though Mr. Cleveland is dead sure of the demagogic nomination. It's a pity.

Miss Lucy Seale of Delta, who has been visiting friends here, left for her home Monday.

Mr. R. B. Brown received a telegram last week announcing the birth of a twelve pound son.

It is proposed to turn the old V. S. & P. depot at Tallulah into an ark and float it off the first time a levee breaks, that will throw water into Tallulah.

Mellville W. Fuller of Illinois has been appointed Chief Justice of the U. S. Supreme Court, by Mr. Cleveland. He is probably trying to capture Illinois.

It is not the usual custom in Louisiana to admit that a republican gets the better of a democrat, but Senator Ingalls fairly skinned Senator Voorhees of Indiana in the Senate, last Tuesday.

Mrs. H. B. Holmes sent a basket of strawberries to the Times office...

There are a few devilish curious Democrats in Webster parish, and strange to say, they all live in this ward. The idea of trying to elect an old, ignorant and worthless negro over an intelligent and most worthy white gentleman is a trifle more than free people ought to put up with. It was tried Tuesday, but the white man won.

S. D. McENERY.

This gentleman is now talked of for U. S. Senator to succeed Gen. Gibson. This will make Gibson's friends rise up and paw the air, and if Mr. McENERY persists in this scheme, you will hear such savage denunciations of him as will make you hold your breath, to hear something drop.

Gov. McENERY has made himself famous by his "suspend the law" policy, and if he is wise he will seek obscurity. No man with that record can afford to be a seeker for any conspicuous position. He would be too vulnerable. As Senator, he would be assailed by the republican Senators, and his life made miserable. He can't defend his proclamation to suspend the law, and they could ding it at him for all it was worth. As Judge of the State Supreme Court his suspend the law doctrine would hang over him and the Governor that appointed him, and the Senate that affirmed the appointment would go down to history, as a disgrace to the State. How valuable his decision would be in a contested election case for instance. No! he had better seek the obscurity of private life. It will be money in his pocket.
