A Thoughtful Man.

M. M. Austin of Winchester, Ind., knew what to do in the hour of need. His wife had such an unusual case of stomach and liver trouble, physicians could not help her. He thought of and tried Dr. King's New Life Pills and she got relief at once and was finally cured. Only 25c at Grisham Drug Co.

Heavy Hail Storm.

A heavy hail storm passed through the section of country near Montgomery Thursday of last week, the strip of country visited by the storm extended from Atlanta to Colfax. Considerable damage was done to crops and property, all crops to be planted over as a result of the storm. Some hail fell here that day.

Chattanooga Druggist's Statement.

Robt. J. Miller, Proprietor of the Read House Drug Store of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes: 'There is more merit in Foley's Honey and Tar than in any other cough syrup. The calls for it multiply wonderfully and we sell more of it than all other cough nee for lieutenant-governor, but syrups combined." For sale by Enterprising Bed Bug.

Just as a traveler was writing his name on the register of a Leavenworth hotel, a bed-bug appeared and took its way across the page. The man paused and remarked:

"I've been held up by St. Joe fleas, bitten by Kansas City spiders, and interviewed by Fort Scott graybacks; but I'll be darned if I was ever in a place before where the bed-bugs looked over the hotel register to find out where my room was!"

Chronic Bronchitis Cured.

"For ten years I had chronic pronchitis so bad that at times I could not speak above a whisper," writes Mr. Joseph Coffman, of Montmorenci, Ind. "I tried all (28) remedies available, but with no success. Fortunately my employ-er suggested that I try Foley's Honey and Tar. Its effect was almost miraculous, and I am new cured of the disease. On my recommendation many people have used Foley's Honey and Tar, and always with satisfaction." For sale by Grisham Drug Co.

The Terrible Boy.

The head of the family with favorite magazine, had settled back in the rocker for a quiet, comfortable evening.

On the other side of an intervening table was the miniature counterpart of himself the wrinkindicated that he was wrestling with some perplexing After a while he looked toward his comfort-loving parent, and with a hopeless inflection, asked: "Pa?"

"Yes, my son."

"Can the Lord make everything?"

"Every everything?"

"There is nothing, my son, that He cannot do."

"Papa could he make a clock that would strike less than one?" "Now, Johny go right up stairs to your ma, and don't stop down here to annoy me when I'm read-

Johny went and wondered still.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed at Grisham Drug Co.
