

ABSOLUTELY
GIVEN AWAY

Appreciating the business the trading public has given me and believing that at least one of our parish papers and a good agricultural paper should be in every home, I now offer a year's subscription to both the Southern Sentinel and the Atlanta Constitution absolutely free to each and every person trading the amount of $25 cash with me. You do not have to trade the full amount at one time. You can keep a statement of each purchase till full amount is purchased. This offer holds good till August 1st. This is no catch penny, but a strictly business proposition.

Yours for business,
S. J. HARPER

Sit quietly in your own home and look over the line of Henry Bosch Co., Chicago, the most complete collection of wall papers ever assembled; unequalled for new and exclusive patterns. Very latest designs, foreign and domestic; and the lowest Chicago prices.

Save money on every roll, save time and energy, and decide at your leisure. You come—no trouble; and you are under no obligation to buy. Just say the word.

CHARTER OF THE PACE OIL COMPANY, LIMITED

STATE OF LOUISIANA,
Parish of Winn.
Be it remembered: That on this 12th day of June, A. D. 1906, before me, Robert Wade Oglesby, a Notary Public duly commissioned and qualified in and for the parish of Winn, Louisiana, and in the presence of the witnesses hereinafter named and undersigned, personally and by proxy appeared J. D. Pace, H. F. Henry, will A. Strong, John Henry Mathews, George P. Eagles, J. R. Hall, M. Pillar, who declared: That, availing themselves of the laws of the State of Louisiana, relative to corporations, they have covenanted and agreed, and by these presents do covenant and agree and bind themselves, as well as such other persons as may hereafter become associated with them, to form and constitute a corporation, a body politic in law, for the purposes and objects and under the stipulations and provisions hereinafter set forth, which they hereby accept as their charter, to-wit:

ARTICLE I.
The name and title of said corporation shall be "The Pace Oil Company, Limited", and its domicile is hereby fixed and established at Winnfield, Winn Parish, Louisiana, and shall be the corporate name, the said corporation shall have power and authority to contract, sue and be sued; to make and alter a corporate seal, and the same to break and alter at pleasure; to hold, receive, have, purchase, improve, alienate, convey, sell, borrow, pledge, mortgage and hypothecate under its corporate name, real and personal property, and to do all other things necessary for the proper management and regulation of its affairs as may be deemed necessary and proper to carry out the objects and purposes of this corporation. Said corporation, unless sooner dissolved by a majority of the stockholders, shall have existence for a period of ninety-nine (99) years, from and after the date hereof.

ARTICLE II.
Suits for this corporation shall be brought in its name, by its president, or in his absence or inability to act, the first or second vice-president, or in the absence of these officers, on the secretary, at the domicile and office of the corporation.
The officers of this corporation shall be a president, first vice-president, second vice-president, secretary and treasurer, but the president, secretary and treasurer may be filled by the board of directors shall so require, shall give bond in a sum to be determined by the board, for the faithful performance of his duties.

Each officer shall be a shareholder in the said corporation, and shall be elected annually by the board of directors, and shall serve until his successor is elected. However, said officers shall be subject to removal at any time by the board of directors, for good cause shown for such removal.

ARTICLE III.
The objects and purposes for which this corporation is organized and the nature of the business to be carried on by it are declared to be the following:
To buy, purchase or otherwise acquire, by deed or gift, will or otherwise, to own, have and hold, to sell, convey and dispose of lands, leases, oil, gas, coal, iron, lead, zinc, copper, coal, platinum, salt, sulphur and all other minerals and mineral deposits of whatsoever character and kind, and to lease, sell or otherwise dispose of the same, and to operate mines, drills, pumps and mining machinery of every form and character, pipe lines, tanks, cranes and other machinery, for the boring, pumping, refining, piping, tanking, barreling, shipping and marketing of oil, and all other kinds of machinery for the mining, manufacturing and marketing of any and all minerals and mineral deposits. To construct, own and operate electric and any other power plants, and to manufacture, buy and sell oil, gas, coal, and all other characters and kinds of minerals and mineral deposits. To buy and sell oil, coal, gas, salt, sulphur and all other kinds and character of mineral bearing lands, and to do all other things necessary for the execution and carrying out of the above objects.

ARTICLE IV.
The capital stock of this corporation shall be fifty thousand dollars ($50,000.00) to be divided into 50,000 shares, of one dollar ($1.00) each, which said shares shall be paid for in cash or its equivalent, before the same is issued, and this corporation shall have the privilege of beginning operations under this charter when twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000.00) of the capital stock has been subscribed for.

ARTICLE V.
The corporate powers of this corporation shall be vested in a board of directors, to be composed of seven persons, each of whom shall be a shareholder, and said board of directors shall constitute a quorum.

The shareholders shall hold regular annual meetings, the time for which shall be determined in the by-laws of the corporation, and at said meeting, shall elect a board of directors, declare dividends or losses, and transact any other lawful business that may come before their meeting.

The said board of directors shall meet within seven days after the annual meeting of the shareholders, and at such meeting shall elect a president, first vice-president, second vice-president, general manager, secretary and treasurer, and such other officers as they may deem necessary, to serve for the ensuing year.

The board of directors, however, are declared to be J. D. Pace, H. F. Henry, will A. Strong, John Henry Mathews, George P. Eagles, J. R. Hall, M. Pillar, who hereby give the power and authority to elect such officers as they may see fit for the ensuing year.

In all elections of directors each shareholder shall be entitled to one vote for every share of stock held by him, and these votes must be cast by the stockholder in person, or by proxy, authorized in any manner that may be required by the board of directors, under their general rules and by-laws, and the majority of the votes cast shall elect.

The board of directors shall make such by-laws, rules and regulations as may be necessary for the proper management of the business of this corporation, and shall change the same as they deem best, and shall have the power to provide for, contract debts, borrow money, issue bills of exchange, execute mortgages and hypothecations, and for doing all other things necessary and incident to the objects and purposes of this corporation, and shall have authority to vest the President with such of these powers as they see fit.

ARTICLE VI.
This charter may be changed or amended or dissolved, by a majority of the votes of the shareholders, at a meeting called by the board of directors for that purpose, to dissolve this corporation, its affairs shall be liquidated by the board of directors, which is hereby constituted the board of liquidators.

No shareholder shall in any event be held liable for the contracts or debts of the officers of this corporation, beyond the amount of the balance that may be due by him to the corporation on shares owned by him.

Shares of stock may be conveyed, sold and transferred, but the transfer of said stock shall not have the privilege of voting with said stock until the transfer of said stock is made on the books of the corporation, and any unpaid balance that may be due thereon paid to the corporation.

ARTICLE VII.
The president, or in case of his inability to act, either the first vice-president or the second vice-president, shall give each shareholder ten days written notice, by mail, before the annual meeting of the shareholders, to be determined by the board of directors, and at any call meeting of the shareholders, each shareholder must have three days notice in writing through the mails, before the day on which they are called to meet, unless they shall be present and waive such notice.

Thus done and signed in the presence of J. M. Hyde and George M. Wallace, competent witnesses, and me, said notary, on this 12th day of June, A. D. nineteen hundred and six.

ACT OF INCORPORATION OF WINNFELD OIL WELL RAILWAY COMPANY

State of Louisiana,
Parish of Winn.
Be it remembered: That on this 12th day of June, A. D. nineteen hundred and six, (1906), before me, Robert Wade Oglesby, a Notary Public, duly commissioned and qualified, within and for the Parish of Winn, Louisiana, and in the presence of the undersigned witnesses of lawful age and domicile, appeared J. D. Pace, H. F. Henry, will A. Strong, John Henry Mathews, George P. Eagles, J. R. Hall, M. Pillar, who declared: That availing themselves of the laws of the State of Louisiana, relative to corporations, they have covenanted and agreed, and by these presents do covenant and agree and bind themselves, as well as such other persons as may hereafter be associated with them, to form and constitute a corporation, a body politic in law, for the purposes and objects and under the stipulations and provisions, which they accept and constitute as their charter, to-wit:

ARTICLE I.
The name and title of this corporation shall be "Winnfield Oil Well Railway Company". Its corporate name shall be hereby fixed and established at Winn Parish, Louisiana, and under its said corporate name, said corporation shall have power to contract, sue and be sued, and made use of a corporate seal and the same to break and alter at pleasure; to hold, receive, have, purchase, improve, alienate, convey, borrow, mortgage and hypothecate under its corporate name, real and personal property, and to do all other things necessary and proper to carry out the objects and purposes of said corporation.

Said corporation unless sooner dissolved by a majority vote of its stockholders, shall exist and continue for a period of Ninety-Nine (99) years, from the date hereof.

ARTICLE II.
All legal process shall be served on the president of this corporation, or in his absence, on either the first vice-president, second vice-president, or in their absence on the superintendent, at the domicile of said corporation. The officers of this corporation shall be a president, first vice-president, second vice-president, a superintendent, a secretary and treasurer, but the office of secretary and treasurer may be filled by one and the same person. The secretary and treasurer if the board of directors shall so require, shall give bond, the amount to be determined by the board, to determine, which officers shall be stockholders in said corporation and shall be elected annually by the board of directors, and shall serve until their successors are elected; however, such officers shall be subject to removal at the discretion of said board of Directors, for good cause shown at any time before such removal.

ARTICLE III.
The objects and purposes for which this corporation is organized and the nature of the business to be carried on by it are declared to be the following: To construct, own and operate a railroad from and through the town of Winnfield, to the oil field in Winn Parish, and other points; to buy or otherwise acquire by deed, gift, lease, will, or by any other process shown to law real or personal and mixed property, buildings, shops, machinery, apparatus, appliances necessary to the proper management and operation of said railroad, and in any manner required, and own such rights and franchises over streets and highways and public roads, and to do all other things necessary for the execution and carrying out of the construction, operation and maintenance of a railroad.

ARTICLE IV.
The capital stock of this corporation shall be Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00), to be divided into 50,000 shares of One Dollar ($1.00) each, and as soon as Twenty-five Thousand shares are subscribed for this corporation is authorized to begin business and operations, which shares shall be paid for in cash or its equivalent.

ARTICLE V.
The corporate powers of this corporation shall be vested in a board of Directors, to be composed of seven persons, at least, who shall be shareholders in this corporation, and a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum. The shareholders shall hold regular annual meetings, the time for which shall be designated by the by-laws of this corporation, and meetings shall declare dividends or losses, and transact such other business may come before their meeting, and at such meeting, shall elect a president, a first vice-president, a second vice-president, a superintendent, and a secretary and treasurer and such other officers and agents as they may deem necessary to serve for the next ensuing year.

The first board of directors shall, however, be composed of J. D. Pace, H. F. Henry, will A. Strong, John Henry Mathews, George P. Eagles, J. R. Hall, M. Pillar.

In all elections, each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by him, and these votes must be cast by him in person or by proxy, authorized in any manner that may be required by the board of directors, under their general rules and by-laws, and the majority of the votes cast shall elect.

The board of directors shall make such by-laws and regulations as may be necessary for the proper management of the affairs of this corporation, and shall amend and change the same as they deem best, and shall have power to provide for, contract debts, borrow money, issue bonds, drafts, notes, acceptances, execute mortgages, and to do all other things necessary and incident to the objects and purposes of this corporation, and shall have authority to vest the president and the superintendent with such of these powers as they see fit.

ARTICLE VI.
This charter may be changed, amended or dissolved by the majority of the stockholders, at a meeting called for that purpose.

Should this corporation be dissolved by a vote of its stockholders, its affairs shall be liquidated by the board of directors as a liquidating board.

ARTICLE VII.
Shares of stock can only be transferred or conveyed by having the transfer recorded on the books of the corporation, and no transfers of stock can be made until any unpaid balance thereon shall have been paid.

ARTICLE VIII.
The president, or in case of his inability to act, either the first vice-president or the second vice-president, is required to give each shareholder ten days' notice in writing through the mail before each annual meeting of stockholders, and at any called meeting three days' notice shall be given in the same manner, unless the stockholder is present and waives such notice.

Any irregularity or informality in the organization of this corporation shall not render this charter void.

This done and passed in the presence of J. M. Hyde and Geo. M. Wallace, two competent witnesses, and me, said notary, on this 12th day of June, A. D. nineteen hundred and six.
