Millinery Opening

Miss Byrd Ingram, the most popular Milliner in North Louisiana will have her opening on FRIDAY SEPTEMBER 25 Miss Ingram has been East in the very center of fashion and style, has let nothing escape her observation. Has a complete line of everything in Millinery: Hats for Brides, Hats for those who want to be Brides, Hats for those who have already been Brides and Hats for those who don't care to be Brides, Hack hats, and in fact everything in the hat line and trimmed to suit the purchaser. Remember the Opening will take place on Friday, September 25, 1908

She is willing to risk her reputation on suiting you in quality, style and price if you will give her a chance. You don't have to wait until the opening to buy, she will sell at any time. Her place of business is now open. Remember the place

Poultry Premiums.

Being associated with the Poultry Departments of all the Parish and State fairs of North Louisiana and believing it will be of interest as well as beneficial to the people of North Louisiana, who will be unable to attend these fairs, I will furnish The Sentinel with a write up of the entries and the winners of all premiums in this department. The writer has just returned from the Calhoun Fair, which was the best fair ever held at that place. The exhibits were far ahead of any previous year. The winners of premiums in the poultry department were:

For best trio Barred Plymouth Rocks, Wyatt McClendon; for best trio White Plymouth Rocks, H. M. Williams; for best trio Buff Plymouth Rocks, Tom Simonton; for best trio White Wyandotts, J. A. Hawley; for best Buff Wyandotts, J. Lee Hester; for best trio Rhode Island Reds, J. B. George; for best trio White Leghorns, Otho Lang; for best trio Brown Leghorns, R. W. Pitcher; for best trio Pit Games, J. B. Burdy; for best pair Mammoth Bronze Turkeys, T. J. Norris; for best pair White Holland Turkeys, S. T. Hart; for best pair Common Turkeys, W. L. Warren; for best Cock any breed, J. A. Hawley; for best Pullet any breed, J. A. Hawley; for best Hen any breed, H. M. Williams; for best pen any breed, J. A. Hawley; for best display poultry, H. M. Williams; for second best display poultry, Ed Caldwell, W. E. Bryon, superintendent; C. E. Faulk, judge. X. Y. Z.

Expect a Big Find.

Our young friend, Charles G. Beard, Secretary and Treasurer of the Lillian B. Mining Company in Nevada, was in Winfield last Tuesday and reports his company is making splendid progress. They are 250 feet deep with their shaft and will commence cross-sectioning their plant. He is confident that they will find something that will make their stockholders feel good.
