"I'd Rather Die, Doctor," said M. L. Bingham, of Princeville, Ill., "but you'll die from gangrene (which had eaten away eight toes) if you don't," said all doctors. Instead, he used Bucklen's Arnica Salve till wholly cured. Its cures of Eczema, Fever Sores, Boils, Burns and Piles astound the world. 25c at all druggists.

Louisianians Honored.

It is highly complimentary to the professional knowledge of Dr. W. H. Dalrymple, of the Louisiana State University, that Uncle Sam wants him as chief veterinarian of the Philippines. Prof. W. R. Dodson, chief of the Louisiana agricultural department, was also tendered a place under the Government. These two distinguished men are doing noble work in Louisiana and the State needs them.

FIGHT DISEASE SPREAD IN CHINESE LAUNDRIES

Method of Sprinkling Clothes to be Stopped by Chicago Health Officials. Who See Danger in Practice.

Criminal action may be taken against Chinese laundries in Chicago who sprinkle clothes by blowing water through their mouths. Complaints have been brought to the attention of Health Commissioner Evans that disease has resulted from this practice.

GERMS LODGE IN COLLAR. These complaints, coming upon the heels of reports from Patterson, New Jersey, that a citizen of that place had contracted leprosy from a collar ironed by a Chinese laundryman, have caused an investigation to be made here. The collar was rough edged and the germs of the dread disease lodged in these breaks in the linen, the doctors say.

The possibility of such a thing in Chicago has stirred the health authorities. A thorough inspection of Chinese laundries is to be made, the owners will be compelled to keep their places in sanitary condition and the Chinese practice of sprinkling clothes through the mouth will be stopped.

CALLS METHOD DANGEROUS. Dr. Herman Spalding, in charge of the department of contagious diseases, declared the method of doing up clothes in Chinese laundries was dangerous and ought to be prohibited by law.

"The mouth is the favorite breeding place for consumption, pneumonia or other diseases, his mouth would be full of infection. To deliberately spread this on clothing is almost criminal. That may be the way in which the Patterson man's collar spread leprosy. Doctors now admit that it can be caught by inoculation."

An ordinance or state law is suggested by the health authorities to prevent unsanitary methods of laundry work. It is said that ironing even will not kill all the disease germs on linen.—From Chicago Daily Journal, January 26, 1909.
