

"CASCARETS" FOR LIVER, BOWELS

No sick headache, biliousness, bad taste or constipation by morning.

Get a 10-cent box. Are you keeping your bowels, liver, and stomach clean, pure and fresh with Cascarets, or merely forcing a passage every few days with salts, Cathartic Pills, Castor Oil or Purgative Waters?

Stop having a bowel wash-day. Let Cascarets thoroughly cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour and fermenting food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will make you feel great by morning. They work while you sleep—never gripe, sicken or cause any inconvenience, and cost only 10 cents a box from your store. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never have Headache, Biliousness, Coated Tongue, Indigestion, Sour Stomach or Constipation. Adv.

ECZEMA DISFIGURED FACE

Hampton Springs, Fla.—"I had had eczema on my face and hands for about three years. My face was badly disfigured. The eczema broke out in pimples and itched so very badly I would scratch it all the time. It was the most irritating disease I ever had. It started on my face and hands and spread all over my body. I had great large sores all over me, caused from the eczema. It bothered me day and night so that I could not rest at all.

"I used three remedies for skin disease but they didn't give relief at all. I was almost terrified until a friend recommended Cuticura Soap and Ointment to me. They helped me. I only used two cakes of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment and was cured." (Signed) Mrs. E. C. Parker, Dec. 7, 1912.

The man with the "I Am Blind" sign on his breast smelled of gin, but he looked pathetic. I stopped in front of him. He held out his tin cup. I had my suspicions.

Eyeing him carefully I drew from my pocket a large roll of bank bills. I saw him shudder.

"It is the chilly breeze," he hastily explained.

I wasn't satisfied.

"Come," I said, "if you leave this corner and go somewhere else I will give you a bank bill."

"Sure, I will," he eagerly replied.

"Taking a $1 from the roll, I put it in his hands.

"Thanks for the dollar," he said as he picked up his stool.

My suspicions rushed back.

"How do you know it is a dollar?" I demanded.

"I was sure you would give me the smallest bill you had about you," he said, and shuffled along.

I think he had me there.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

FOUGHT BY WILSON

EXEMPTION OF LABOR UNIONS AND FARMERS FROM TRUST LAWS PLANNED.

IS AWKWARD FOR PRESIDENT

If Paragraph is Inserted in Anti-Monopoly Measure Consistency Would Require That He Veto the Entire Legislation.

By GEORGE CLINTON.
Washington.—It is possible that President Wilson may be obliged to use his personal influence to prevent his partly in congress from inserting in one of the anti-trust bills a paragraph which may cause trouble. The president it is known is opposed to any legislation which will exempt certain organizations from prosecution under the anti-trust laws, but it is believed that the majority in congress is preparing to insert just such a provision into pending legislation and Mr. Wilson, it is said, wants to stop it.

It is the intention of these Democrats, who probably can dominate the house, to secure the insertion in one of the anti-trust laws of a provision which shall exempt from prosecution labor unions and farmers' organizations. It is of course the intention of the Democrats to make some exceptions. The organizations of the kind named of course can be prosecuted if they do certain things, but they first are not to be prosecuted for entering into any combination or agreement having in view an increase of wages, a shortening of hours, a bettering of the conditions of labor, or most important, "for any act done in furtherance thereof that is not in itself unlawful." As for the farmers' organizations, it is intended to exempt them from prosecution when they cooperate in an effort to obtain and maintain a fair and reasonable price for their products.

Fear It Will Be Abused.
On the face of things this legislation may look fair and square. Perhaps it is, for many of the legislators and thousands of their constituents are coming to the belief that labor and the farmer should be put into classes by themselves and should be helped by legislation which would be perhaps unconstitutional if enacted in favor of any other classes, or divisions if you will, of the citizenship of the United States. The objections which will be entered to the legislation rest upon what some men say is the certainty that it will be abused and that if it becomes a part of the law of the land labor unions will be allowed to do what they will unchecked, and that the farmer will be allowed to raise prices to the sky provided he can do it through co-operation with his fellows.

Last year the Democrats did what they could to exempt labor and the farmer from prosecution under the Sherman anti-trust law. In the sundry civil bill which was passed one year ago this month there was inserted a provision forbidding that any of the money voted for the use of the attorney general's office in prosecuting the trusts should be used to prosecute labor unions and farmers' organizations engaged in such lines of endeavor as those drawn above. Mr. Taft vetoed this bill as one of the last acts of his administration.

In March last the Democrats re-passed the sundry civil bill in virtually the form in which it was sent to Mr. Taft. President Wilson approved the measure, but attached to it a memorandum "condemning the principle of special exemption of organizations of farmers or laboring men from prosecution for maintaining combinations in restraint of trade and commerce."

Would Tie McReynolds' Hands.
After President Wilson had signed the sundry civil bill, including the exemption clauses, Attorney General McReynolds started a prosecution of labor unionists in West Virginia. He was not allowed to use any of the sundry civil bill money in the case, but there were funds at his disposal which enabled him to secure indictments, carry the matter into court and start the trial. This was pointed out by the administration as showing that it had no intention of exempting labor unions from the operation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

If the Democrats, however, carry out their present intention and exempt the unions and the farmers' organizations from prosecution by means of an actual law of exemption, the hands of the president and his attorney general will be tied. As things are, the inhibition lies simply against the use of certain money to pay for prosecutions of the unions. The paragraph of exemption, if one of the anti-trust laws actually will prevent the bringing of any suits against labor unions and farmers' organizations for acts which on the part of other combinations would be criminal.

Some of the Democrats seem to think that if their party shall insist upon legislation of the kind outlined Mr. Wilson will veto it, even if in so doing he must veto all of the anti-trust legislation which goes with it. If the matter is put up to the president he will be troubled to sign the bill containing it and be consistent with his utterances of last March, when he virtually rebuked his party for doing what it did through the medium of the sundry civil bill.

PUT END TO MATHEMATICS

Prof. Stiffun's Guest Relates Story That Would Seem to Contain a Moral.

"Now," said Prof. Stiffun, "I told you I wanted half a cup of coffee, and you've given me a whole cup! You do such things all the time. Don't you know what half a cup is? Fifty per cent. of a cup of coffee—does that make it any plainer?"

"Not the least bit plainer!" answered Mrs. Stiffun, mad because her spouse had been guilty of an outbreak in the presence of a guest.

"It won't do," declared the guest, "to be too mathematical. It has been tried. I once knew a mathematician at a university who was ambitious to reduce everything to an exact science. He talked mathematically, and therefore, as he reasoned, correctly. But it turned out unfortunately in the end. That mathematician declared that his method did away with all misstatements and put things on the correct basis, and it was all as simple as two and two make four.

He would call up the grocer and say: 'You sent me what were supposed to be fresh eggs, but of the two I started to eat this morning one was only 40 per cent. fresh, and the other 5 per cent.'"

Bradyville, Tenn.—Mrs. Mattie Spry, of this place, makes the following statement: "Ten years ago, I was a great sufferer from womanly troubles, and was in bed nearly all the time, for about two years. I tried many treatments, but they did not seem to do me any good.

I read in the Ladies' Birthday Almanac about Cardul, the woman's tonic, and I quit all other treatments, and began taking it. I took 8 bottles, and was cured.

That has been ten years ago, and since then I have been in better health and spirits, than for 20 years.

My oldest daughter was very puny at the age of 16. I gave her Cardul, and she was soon all right, and now enjoys the best of health.

I am so thankful that I know of a true medicine that I can give my girls, or take myself, and that I know what medicine to send for, when I need a tonic.

I am very much alive now, and certainly enjoy telling my friends, when they ask me what I found at last to help me so much, about Cardul. I can never praise it enough."

FRUIT LAXATIVE FOR SICK CHILD

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach, liver and bowels.

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs" that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleaning" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Adv.

SAGE TEA DARKENS GRAY HAIR TO ANY SHADE. TRY IT!

Keep Your Locks Youthful, Dark, Glossy and Thick With Common Garden Sage and Sulphur.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and look years younger.—Adv.

"George, come quick! The cook has tried to kill herself inhaling gas!"

"Good gracious!" growled George as he rushed to the kitchen, leaped over the cook's prostrate form, and turned off the cook—"good gracious, think of what the gas bill will be this month!"—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

QUIT MEAT IF KIDNEYS BOTHER AND USE SALTS

Take a Glass of Salts Before Breakfast If Your Back Is Hurting or Bladder is Irritated.

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, you'll stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush out of the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then set free. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink.—Adv.

Watch Carefully the Child's Diet

Start Them Off Right With a Good Laxative and Then Watch Their Food.

RALPH M. PATTEN

Mothers are often unconsciously very careless about the diet of their children, forcing all to eat the same foods. The fact is that all foods do not agree alike with different persons. Hence, avoid what seems to constipate the child or to give it indigestion, and urge it to take more of what is quickly digested.

If the child shows a tendency to constipation it should immediately be given a mild laxative to help the bowels. By this is not meant a physic or purgative, for these should never be given to children, nor anything like salts, pills, etc. What the child requires is simply a small dose of the gentlest of medicines, such as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which, in the opinion of thousands of watchful mothers, is the ideal remedy for any child showing a tendency to constipation. So many things can happen to a constipated child that care is necessary. Colds, piles, headaches, sleeplessness, and many other annoyances that children should not have can usually be traced to constipation.

Many of America's foremost families are never without Syrup Pepsin, because one can never tell when some member of the family may need it, and all can use it. Thousands endorse it, among them Mrs. M. E. Patten, Valley Junction, Iowa, who is never without it in the house. Mrs. Patten says that Syrup Pepsin has done wonders for her boy Ralph, who was constipated from birth but is now doing fine. Naturally, she is enthusiastic about it and wants other mothers to use it. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold by druggists at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, the latter size being bought by those who already know its value, and it contains proportionately more.

Everyone likes Syrup Pepsin, as it is very pleasant to the taste. It is also mild and non-gripping and free from injurious ingredients.

Families wishing to try a free sample bottle can obtain it postpaid by addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 203 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. A postal card with your name and address on it will do.
