Several of Them Previded at Louisian Stato Fair Grounds for Visitors

State Fair Grounds for Visitors.

For women and children visiting the Louisiana State Fair particular accommodations, especially in the form of rest rooms, have been provided. There are four of these rooms, or buildings, located at convenient parts of the Fair Grounds, and leading to them there are comfortable walks.

The main rest room is situated under the grandstand. It has ample accommodations for the women and children. These accommodations include beds and cots, hot and cold baths and other facilities, so as to provide real rest and comfort, in order to make the visit to the Fair Grounds as pleasurable as possible.

By virtue of a Writ of Seizure and Sale to me directed from the Honorable Ninth Judicial District Court, for the parish of Madison aforesaid, in the above entitled cause, I will proceed to sell at public auction, at the front door of the Court House in the town of Tallulah in Madison parish Louisippe. visit to the Fair Grounds as pleasurable as possible.

Another is the Model Home rest room. In this structure the first baby show of the Louisiana Fair was held. It was substantially built and is still in splendid condition. There are facilities for accommodating scores of women and children, especially bables. The old Schumjert homeplace, in which the annual Better Bables contest is held, is also used as a rest room. It is especially convaniently located, facing the Greenwood road, on which electric cars operate. lulah, in Madison parish, Louisiana, on Saturday, the 7th day of Kovember, facing the Greenwood road, on which electric cars operata.

The fourth rest room is near the main exposition building, along one of the principal walks. It has several sections adequately furnished.

In all of these buildings competent nurses and attendants will be on duty during the Fair. Members of Shreve-port Women's Clubs will also be on hand, to see that proper service is furnished, all free of cost

In addition to the above, a number of comfort stations have been placed on the grounds. Appropriate signs will designate the locations.

The fair dates are: November 4 to 11, inclusive.

BETTER BABIES SHOW.

This Will Foature Louisiana State Fain

This Will Feature Louisiana State Fair.

Nothing at the Louisiana State Fair last year was a bigger success than the Better Bables contest, and nothing this year promises to prove more popular than the 1914 Better Bables show. It will be in progress throughout the week of the Fair, November 4 to 11.

The main object of this feature of the Fair is for the bables to receive the benefit of expert medical examination, so that the defects and abnormal conditions, if there are any existing may be pointed out to the parents. This is for the purpose of having the conditions improved and the bables properly developed.

But besides this inducement for bables to be placed in the show, there are some splendid prises offered. These included cash prizes aggregating $200 and gold, sliver and bronze medals, effered by the Woman's Home Companion, which is encouraging the Better Bables movement throughout the country, and is giving Shreveport the credit for holding the initial coatest of this sort.

In the context last year 255 bables already resulted in defects in their children being cured.

Mra C. L. Wheeler of Shreveport will have charge of the show and Dr. J. M. Bodenheimer, also of Shreveport, will be the medical director. Mra Wheeler will have a number of club ladies assisting, some for each day, and Dr. Bedenheimer will be assisted by about sixty physiciana. There will also be about thirty trained nurses to help in the judging of the children.

Score cards will be used for recordation of any abnormal conditions, so the parents may be advised.

Remember the date of the Fair: November 4 to 11. Write Secretary Louis M. Brueggerhoff, Shreveport, La., for catalog and premium lists.

FARM DEMONSTRATION EXHIBITS

guits of Co-operation in State.

Under direction of Mason Snowden, state agent in charge of the Louisians branch of this work, the agents of the Co-operative Farm Demonstration Bureau are preparing for the biggest exhibit they have ever shown at the State Fair at Shreveport. Almost every parish in the state will be represented. The demonstration movement has spread over the greater portion of Louisians, and the agents in every parish in which it has taken root are complying with Mr. Snowden's request to collect various agricultural specimens for the Bureau's big booth in the general agricultural building at the Fair.

These exhibits will be evidence of what is being accomplished in Louisians by the Co-operative Fairs Demonstration department. The results are wonderful, as will be demonstrated by the numerous fine specimens of cornection, hay, oats and other diversified products. One of the special lessons to be taught the visitors to this booth is the fact that the demonstration agents endeavor to save the farmeralabor and expense and at the same time increase their advantages and profits This is done by the adoption and steady use of the scientific and practical methods laid down by the demonstration experts.
