

CALOMEL MAKES YOU SICK! CLEAN LIVER AND BOWELS MY WAY

Once! Try "Dodson's Liver Tone" When Bilious, Constipated, Headachy—Don't Lose a Day's Work.

Up your sluggish liver! Feel cheerful; make your work as vigorous and full of animation as you desire. But take no nasty, dangerous, because it makes you lose a day's work. Calomel is mercury or quicksilver, causes necrosis of the bones, and crashes into your bile like a breaking it up. That's why you feel that awful nausea and vomit.

Get me! If you want to enjoy the gentlest liver and bowel action you ever experienced just a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone. Your druggist or dealer will tell you that the sale of calomel is almost stopped entirely here.

Getting Back at Him. A man lived in a certain county a while, who had for a neighbor a full-bellied fellow named Fuller. Crane and Fuller were not just friends, and scarcely ever without having a passage-at-arms.

One day, Fuller said: "What is the difference between a crane and a meadow hen?" "I replied Crane, 'there is a deal of difference. The meadow hen is fuller in the body, and fuller in the back, and fuller in the breast—she is fuller all over.'"

WOMAN USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HER GRAY HAIR

Made Up a Mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to Bring Back Color, Gloss, Thickness.

Almost everyone knows that Sage and Sulphur, properly compounded, always bring back the natural color and gloss to the hair when faded, streaked, or also ends dandruff, itching, and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which was a very troublesome. Nowadays, looking at any store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you get a large bottle of the famous mixture for about 50 cents.

"I used to say gray! Try it! No one can tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally. You dampen a sponge or old brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, by morning the gray disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes naturally dark, thick and glossy."

IMPORTANT THAT PUBLIC SHOULD KNOW ABOUT GREAT KIDNEY REMEDY.

The testimonial I am to give you comes unsolicited. I have been suffering from lumbago for ten years and at times was unable to stand erect. A Mr. Dean of this city, saw me in my condition (bent over) and inquired the cause. I told him that I had the lumbago. He replied, "If you get what I tell you to, you need not have it." I said I would take anything for ease. He said, "You get two bottles of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root and take it, and if it does not fix you O. K. I will pay for the medicine myself." I did so and am a well man. For five months I have been as well as could be. Before I took your Swamp-Root was in constant pain day and night. This may look like advertising, but it seems to me most important that the public should be made familiar with this treatment as it is the only one I know which is an absolute cure. I owe a great deal to Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and am anxious that others situated as I was should know and take advantage of it. Hoping that this testimonial may be of benefit to some one, I am,

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By E. O. SELLERS, Acting Director of Sunday School Course Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.)

LESSON FOR FEBRUARY 28

SAMUEL, THE VICTORIOUS LEADER.

LESSON TEXT—1 Samuel 7:3-17. GOLDEN TEXT—Hitherto hath Jehovah helped me.—1 Samuel 7:12 R. V.

Having prepared a "guilt offering," 6:4-9, the Philistines started the ark back towards Shiloh. As a punishment for their sacrilege and perhaps for their boastful pride, God punished the men of Beth-Shemesh and finally the ark finds rest in the house of Abinadab, 6:10-21, 1, 2. For 20 years Israel was under discipline in bondage, v. 2.

I. "And Samuel spake . . . saying" vv. 3-8. It is possible that at times Samuel was a fugitive, but that he was praying, teaching and preaching "the word of Jehovah" we are assured. At last Israel was "drawn together," v. 2 R. V. margin. Undoubtedly Samuel's pure life and his faithful witnessing had as much to do with this assembling as did the oppression of the Philistines. Samuel told the people plainly that in order to be delivered from the Philistines Israel must "return unto Jehovah with all your heart." The putting away (judging) of sin and all idols is the first step of any real, genuine repentance towards God, Isa. 55:7. When Israel adopted Asherah and the "strange gods" they possibly did so with no thought of forsaking Jehovah, but rather with the idea of "enriching" their worship. Such liberality, such a federation of religions is weakening to the cause of faith, Matt. 6:24, 1 John 2:15, James 4:4. Samuel might be called "narrow," but his exhortation to Israel that they return to the love and worship of Jehovah, to the obedience of his laws with whole-souled devotion, was the first, and the most essential requisite to their freedom. Israel's response (v. 4) meant not alone self-denial, but a revolt against the Philistines. This meant also the giving up of amusements and profits which might accompany such worship. The word "heart" includes the will, affections, motives and powers of soul. Not merely a surface emotion, but a deep change of heart and character. It is said to recall that this was a reformation, not a regeneration (ch. 8:8), but such is the history of an emotional reformation. One day, however, we shall see that one will last. Rom. 11:26. Samuel is a type of Christ as a prophet and also as an intercessor, Heb. 7:25. Gathering the people at Mizpah ("a lookout") he caused the people to look to God. Such a gathering was an evidence of that unity of the people of God which must ever precede prevailing prayer. Ps. 99:6, Heb. 10:25. The meeting began by a prayer by Samuel who was nearest to God. They then poured out water upon the ground, a symbol of their utter helplessness, also of the pouring out of their hearts before God, II Sam. 14:14; Ps. 62:8. Israel also "fasted"—an expression of sorrow for sin which was so deep that they could not eat, and a sign of the humiliation of self and an earnest desire to find God, Dan. 9:3, Acts 13:2, 3. They made confession of sin, there was no boasting of virtue, Ps. 51:4.

II. "And Samuel offered" vv. 9-12. Twenty years of bondage bred a spirit of fear in the hearts of the Israelites and in their extremity they turned to Samuel to intercede for them. Christians have a better one as their intercessor, I John 2:1; Heb. 7:25; Rom. 8:34. Israel no longer places its trust in an outward symbol as when formerly they sent for the ark, ch. 4:3. All real prayer is preceded by sacrifice, and the only ground we have upon which to approach a holy God is to shed blood, Heb. 10:19, John 14:6. This is also a type of entire consecration. The lamb of Samuel's sacrifice is a type of our Christ who entered into God's presence for us "by his own blood," Heb. 9:11, 12. Having thus properly approached God, Samuel cried for Israel, and "the Lord heard him," John 17:9. In the midst of this the Philistines gave battle (v. 10) even as Satan often makes his fiercest assaults upon us in the midst of our holiest exercises. God "thundered with a great voice," v. 11, marg., bringing discomfort and fear to the enemy, I John 5:14. No voice of Israel could have effected such results but the voice of God in response to the prayers of a godly man brought victory, James 5:16. Both secular and sacred history record instances where God used the elements to deliver his praying people. The storm which destroyed the Spanish armada and saved England; the unusual winds and tides which saved Leyden came in connection with the most earnest prayers, see also III Kings 19:35. In this we see a fulfillment of Hannah's prophecy, ch. 2:10. In our last lesson Israel was defeated, 4:10, now they pursue the Philistines as far as Beth-car and Shun, an unknown place west of Mizpah. Between the latter and Mizpah, Samuel erected a memorial pillar and called it "Ebenezer," the Stone of Help, where 20 years previous Israel had suffered defeat and the ark of God was captured. So this stone was a twofold monument of a victory, and also of deliverance from 20 years of bondage. Ever and anon the church has cause to set up its Ebenezer for new deliverances. Persecution and corruption have not yet revealed against the true church of God, Matt. 16:18.

The Heart of the Lesson. This lesson is a great revelation of the power and effectiveness of intercessory prayer. "Moses and Aaron among his priests, and Samuel among them that call upon his name," Ps. 99:6, seems to place Samuel at the head of Israel's intercessors even as Moses and Aaron led the prophet priests.

HE GOT THE TWELVE CENTS

Pointed Argument of Old Colored Toll-Man Was Too Much for Motor Tourists.

One of the pioneer manufacturers of motor cars, is responsible for this motor story.

"On one of the old turpikes which the motor tourist occasionally runs across, a big touring car had twice rushed through the gate without paying toll. The third time they made the attempt the old colored toll-man shut the gate, and brought them to a standstill. The half-dozen occupants of the large touring car were very indignant and declared emphatically that they were entitled to ride free.

"Look at your own board," said the driver, "Every carriage, cart or wagon drawn by one beast, two cents; every additional beast, two cents." "We're not drawn by any beast at all."

"No sah, but here's where ye come in," replied the old colored man, as he pointed to another clause, which read: "Every half-dozen hogs, four cents," and he added, "An' three times four is twelve."

"The twelve cents was paid."

The Flight of Time.

Uncle Rastus lives in a pleasant little bungalow on the outskirts of a large town. Wending his way thither on the Saturday evening before Easter he stopped suddenly as colliding with safety gates and uttered a cry of dismay.

Several people hastened up to see what was the matter. On the ground was a broken bottle. On the face of Rastus was an expression of great sadness.

"What in the world has happened, Uncle Rastus?" solicitously asked one of the party. "Have you broken your bottle of gin?"

"Yes, sah, boss! Yes, sah!" was the mournful reply of Uncle Rastus, as he pointed to the broken bottle. "Dar' Eastah come an' gone."

INDIGESTION, GAS OR SICK STOMACH

No difference how badly your stomach is disordered you will get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

You feel different as soon as "Pape's Diapiesin" comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructations of undigested food.

Go now, make the best investment you ever made by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin from any store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or bad stomach. Adv.

Educational Limitations.

A small boy asked his father the meaning of equinox, and received this answer: "What in the world do you go to school for? Don't you study mythology? An equinox is a mythical animal, half horse, half ox. The name is derived from the Latin 'equine,' horse and 'ox.' Dear me, they teach you absolutely nothing that is useful nowadays!"—Aitchison Globe.

Famous South American Falls.

The falls of Tequendama are situated near the city of Bogota, United States of Colombia, where the River Bogota rushes through a cleft 36 feet wide and falls about six hundred feet into a rocky chasm. Near the falls is the natural bridge of Inconongo, which is something more than three hundred feet high.

Changed Views.

"Time makes a big difference." "What are you thinking of?" "My wife's father. I used to think him a stubborn old fool. Now I respect his judgment."

Winter Chills Bring Kidney Ills

A spell of cold, damp weather is always followed by a fine crop of kidney troubles and backache.

Colds and chills damage the kidneys. Other troubles common to winter weather are just as bad. Grip, tonsillitis, quinsy, pneumonia or any other infectious disease hurts the kidneys by overloading the blood with poisons. The kidneys get worn, weak and inflamed trying to work it off.

It isn't hard to strengthen weak kidneys though, if you act quickly. At the first sign of backache, dizzy spells, headaches, loss of weight, nervousness, depression and painful, irregular kidney action, start using Doan's Kidney Pills. Rest the kidneys by simple eating, avoidance of overwork and worry, and getting more rest and sleep. A milk diet is fine.

This sensible treatment should bring quick benefit and prevent serious kidney diseases like dropsy, gravel and Bright's disease.

Given Up to Die Helpless With Agonizing Kidney Ills

Clairville, Simonau, Barton, La. says: "For a number of years I suffered greatly from kidney disease. I gradually ran down until finally I was given up to die. I was helpless and my limbs were swollen to twice their natural size. In fact, I was bloated all over. My hands and feet and also my ankles were puffed up until the skin was tense. Doctors who attended me were afraid that dropsy would reach my heart, but nothing they could do helped me. My back pained greatly and the kidney area was so sore in passage and unusual. At last the doctors gave me up and it was then that I was told to try Doan's Kidney Pills. I did and the effect was almost a miracle. The bloating and swelling commenced to go down and as I continued taking this medicine I felt better in every way. After I had taken five boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, I was well. That was over four years ago and since then I haven't suffered in the least."

OWNER EXPECTED TOO MUCH

Borrowing Neighbor Considered He Had Done His Fair Share in the Transaction.

A few days ago saw Ol McMahon borrowing a hatchet or other implement to drive or draw nails at Sherman's hardware store, says the Toronto (Kan.) Republican. And that brought to mind a "borrowing" story of Uncle Ol:

A great number of years ago Herbert Lockard owned one of the few two-section harrows hereabout. Uncle Ol was farming some, and went up to borrow it. Herbert always would loan anything he had, but he wanted it brought back, and finally, having to use it, went after it. As he drove along he began to get rolled over the thought of going after his own harrow, and by the time he got it loaded into his wagon was downright mad. Said he: "Ol, I thought you was neighbor enough to bring home what you borrowed."

"Bring it home!" shouted Ol, with a great show of indignation; "bring it home! Why, heavens to Betsy, man, I went after it! How much do you expect of a neighbor, anyhow?"

FALLING HAIR MEANS DANDRUFF IS ACTIVE

Save Your Hair! Get a 25 Cent Bottle of Danderine Right Now—Also Stops Itching Scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its luster, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any store, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, luster and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp. ## Lost His Reckoning.

One of this world's unfortunates was arrested in Covington for loitering, and when taken before the judge to be dealt with was asked by that official, "My good fellow, do you live in this town?"

"Nope," said the prisoner.

"Where are you going?" inquired the judge.

"To heaven," came the answer.

"Take him below," commanded the judge. "He is crazy or he never would have come to Covington on the trip he says he is taking."
