AND COMEDY

Mrs. Natt Day, Sr., leaves today for her home in Vicksburg. She has for the past two weeks been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. A. J. Sevier.

Mrs. Tom Lucas and son, Bedford, motored Thursday to Lake Providence where she is visiting her mother, Mrs. Herman Stien of that place.

Mrs. M. D. Monette and Miss Anita Monette left Thursday after a delightful stay with Mrs. W. S. Craig.

Mrs. W. S. Craig returned during the week from Fort Gibson, where she had a most enjoyable visit there with relatives and friends.

A very much enjoyable dance was given by Mrs. George Yerger on last Wednesday night at Mounds, La., in honor of her guest. Those from Tallulah attending the dance were: Miss Wynna Pierson, Noland Harvey, Miss Elizabeth Kell, Will Schass, Miss Shelby Harvey, Cedric Starrett, W. H. Ward and Mr. C. H. Bratton.

Mr. E. A. Beers and Mr. W. L. Darrow are contemplating a visit to the Gulf Coast soon by way of boat. However, they will not go by the

The work has been begun on the grading of the streets of Tallulah. Several streets will be graded which will not be gravelled. If all are graded well and drained, they will be a lot better and we believe there will not be much need for the gravel. However, the principal streets of town will be gravelled.

The Bynn Yann Grocery Co. of Memphis, Tenn., is going to open a store in Tallulah soon. They are, as will be seen by an advertisement in another place in this issue, offering stock in this store to the people of Tallulah. They are also looking out for a manager.

MUSICAL RECITAL

A Recital will be given in this city Tuesday August 3, at 8:15 at the Opera House by Amanda Louise Randall, violinist of the Peabody Conservatory of Music, Baltimore; Anna Randall, pianist, of Sophia Newcomb School of Music, New Orleans; and Madge McAnally Jones of Louisiana State University.

The ladies are all from Lake Providence, and are accomplished artists. This entertainment will be an event of the season. The Misses Randall are daughters of Judge F. K. Randall. The admission to the Recital will be 75 cents to all.

The Tallulah Hardware & Furniture Co., Ltd. say that they have the best little water heater you ever saw. It is not very large, but large enough for the average family, and water can be heated in a few minutes. Call and inspect this heater. If you are not satisfied then they can refer you to one already installed so that you can see it in operation.

Two negro women got into a cutting scrape at Mound during the week and one of the women cut the other we understand in forty nine places. The woman who was cut was carrying a white baby at the time of the cutting and the baby was not touched. We understand that the woman who was doing the cutting said when she began that she was not going to cut the baby.

A white man engaged a boy to drive him to Delta from Tallulah during the week, and when he arrived at Delta, so the boy says, he not only would not pay for the trip, but took some change from the boy. The man is in the jail at Tallulah.

The stockholders of the Tallulah Social and Literary Club are to hold a meeting Monday for the purpose of electing officers of that club.

Several carloads of water melons have been in Tallulah lately. There were three cars selling water melons yesterday.

A negro minstrel show gave an exhibition in Tallulah last Saturday night. We understand that a large crowd of negroes and a few white people patronized the show.

Weed cutting about town is progressing very nicely. However, there are places along the edge of the side walks which need attention.

Mr. T. P. Cassidy, of the Delta Laboratory, was in Tensas parish during the week looking after the poisoning operations of planters in that parish who are poisoning for the boll weevil this year.

Dr. S. J. Franks made a business trip to St. Joseph during the week.

Mr. J. E. Bethea requests us to announce that he has sold out Pike's Market to Mr. R. E. Proctor, who will operate it under the old name. Mr. Bethea wishes to thank all those who patronized his market during the time when he was the manager.

The old Cades mill has been completely overhauled and substantially strengthened. Messrs. Ellis and Melton are the gentlemen behind the new operation of the mill, and they have started like they are going to put the mill in a condition to turn out lumber.

Rapid progress is being made on the new houses in the northern end of Tallulah by the East Arkansas Lumber Company for the Tallulah Housing Corporation. Some of the houses have been practically finished and are being papered and painted. There will be ten on the block. We are sure that the demand will be far greater than the number of houses when they are finished.

MRS. CHARLES WHITTINGTON ENTERTAINED

Mrs. W. A. Gilpin was hostess to quite a number of her friends on Friday afternoon, July 23, in honor of her charming sister, Mrs. Charles Whittington, of Greenwood, Miss., who is a guest in her home.

The home was a bower of loveliness, decorated in ferns and other greenery, while a sunflower motif was most successfully carried out.

The lovely honoree, who received with Mrs. Gilpin was gowned in orchid Fantasi with georgette overblouse, the hostess being attractively attired in white georgette and serge. Little Patricia Gilpin, beloved of all who know her never looked more adorable than on this occasion, costumed as a sunflower. She flitted in and out among the guest passing the tallies in a sunflower basket and presenting to the guests, upon a sunflower tray, favors which were tiny sunflower baskets filled with nuts.

Five enjoyable games of 500 were played at the close of which Mrs. Andrew Sevier, having made the highest score was presented with a pair of mahogany candle sticks holding yellow candles and Mrs. Whittington was the recipient of an arts-crafts vase, as guest's prize.

Delicious ice cream and cake were served, the cream moulded to represent a sunflower and the cake colored in brown and yellow.

Those present were: Mesdames Whittington, Henry Sevier, D. H. Allen, Perry Folk, Walter Scott, A. J. Sevier, Mason Spencer, Stanton Bettis, Will Rountree, J. V. Sevier, Chas. Cloughton, Tom Lucas, Tom Kell, Noland Harvey, Louis Moeller, John E. Yerger, G. H. Ogbourne, Jim Cason, Howard Sevier, B. R. Coad, N. T. Day, Warren Ward, John Dale, J. M. Rowan, F. Bonde, George Sevier and Misses Erwin and Witherow.

A new pair of concrete steps and walk to the sidewalk has been put down in front of the Harvey home. Will says the old steps were so "rickety" that he was afraid they were going to break down sometimes when there was someone on them.
