M. COGNEVICH, Assessor.

The State of Louisiana, Parish of Plaquemines.

John Dymond vs Nicholas Doyle. No. 1145. Twenty-ninth Judicial District Court.

By virtue of and in obedience to an order of seizure and sale to me directed by the Honorable the Twenty-Ninth Judicial District Court in and for the Parish of Plaquemines, dated the 12th day of September 1914, in the above entitled suit, I have seized and will proceed to sell at public auction, at the Court house at Pointe a la Hache, La., on Saturday the 21st day of the month of November 1914 at 11 o'clock a. m., the following described property, to-wit:

The interest of the said Nicholas Doyle as of heir in the undivided estate of his father, Jos. Doyle, of Bertrandville, Louisiana, and also in the succession of his mother, Rosa Doyle, who died before Jos. Doyle died, the property of the succession having been acquired by Jos. Doyle after his marriage to Rosa Ross, and before her death, and including two certain tracts or portions of land in the village of Bertrandville, in the parish of Plaquemines about twenty four miles below the city of New Orleans, on the left bank of the Mississippi river, having and measuring each forty feet front on St. Nicholas street, by one hundred and twenty-five feet in depth together with all and singular the rights and privileges and appurtenances thereunto belonging. Said tracts of land are designated by lots Nos. 28 and 30, the whole according to a plan made by J. Freeman, Surveyor, and dated the 10th day of July, 1880, and annexed to an act of sale by Pierre Bertrand to the St. Marks Baptist Church and Public School Association passed before E. Butler, then recorder of the Parish of Plaquemines, on the 31st day of March, 1870, being part of the larger tract acquired by purchase from Alexander Gordon, by act executed before Lucien Herman Notary Public in New Orleans, March 5th, 1841.

One lot, one arpent front and forty arpents deep, fronting on the public road, with all batture rights, and bounded below by the upper line of Fanny plantation formerly belonging to A. & R. Robertson, and constituting the lowermost lot of Woodlawn plantation and known as lot No. thirty, on a plan made by J. A. D'Hemecourt, Surveyor, and dated June 18th, 1873, annexed to an act passed before James Fahy, Notary Public, February 2nd, 1876, and which lot was acquired by Jos. Doyle from Chas. T. Dugazon, by act passed before James Fahy, Notary Public, October 3rd, 1887.

Any other interest that the said Nicholas Doyle may have in the succession of his father Jos. Doyle, and the succession of his mother Rosa Doyle.

Seized in the above suit:

Orange Day.

The Governor of Louisiana has proclaimed Thursday Nov. 19th, as Orange Day for the Louisiana Orange Growers. An orange exhibition will be held in New Orleans. Arrangements are being made to have all of the stores decorated in orange and green colors on that day. Motor trucks decorated in orange and green will be moved through the business district and pyramids of oranges will be given away by pretty girls. The day will be widely advertised throughout the country, both by moving pictures and publications in news papers and fruit journals.

All orange growers desiring to assist in providing funds or oranges please write to or get in touch with the Exhibition Committee, New Orleans.

The Grand Island Railroad has agreed to take the gift of oranges to the city free of charge. Oranges should be shipped on or before Monday the 16th.

Notice.

Resolved that a meeting of the Lower Coast Gazette Co. is called to take place on 21st, day November 1914 at the office of the said company at Pointe a la Hache at noon, to consider amendments to the charter of said company and the decrease of its capital stock.

Charter of the Geraty Wholesale Plant Company, Incorporated.

United States of America, State of Louisiana, Parish of Orleans, City of New Orleans.

BE IT KNOWN, That on this 13th day of the month of October in the year Nineteen Hundred and Fourteen (1914).

BEFORE ME, Eraste Vidrine, a notary public, duly commissioned, qualified and sworn, in and for the above named Parish and State, personally came and appeared the several persons, whose names are hereunto subscribed, who each and all declared:

That, availing themselves of the laws of the State of Louisiana, on the subject of the incorporation of corporations, and especially of Act 267 of the Legislature of the State of Louisiana for the year 1914, they have and do by these presents, organize and constitute themselves into a corporation and body politic in law under the following stipulations and provisions which they hereby adopt as their articles of incorporation, or charter, to-wit:

ARTICLE I.

The name of this Corporation shall be: The Geraty Wholesale Plant Company, Incorporated.

and its domicile is hereby declared to be at Harlem Plantation, in the Parish of Plaquemines, State of Louisiana.

This Corporation shall have and enjoy corporate existence and succession for and during a period of Ninety-nine (99) years, unless sooner dissolved.

ARTICLE II.

The objects and purposes of this Corporation and the nature of the business to be carried on by it are hereby declared to be, the cultivation and selling of vegetable plants and nursery stock, the owning or leasing of lands for this purpose and for the cultivation and sale of truck and farm products, the right to buy and sell farm products for others on commission or brokerage, including the doing of any thing that may be incidental to the said purposes and necessary for their successful accomplishment. The Corporation shall have the power to acquire such lands, implements, farming equipment and supplies, from Warren Buckley, of Harlem Plantation, La., and Charles W. Buckley, of Chicago, Ill., as the Board of Directors may desire, and in payment thereof, to issue full paid common stock of this Corporation as hereinafter provided.

ARTICLE III.

The capital stock of this Corporation is hereby fixed at Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), of which five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) shall be common stock, and five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) shall be preferred stock, which capital stock shall consist of fifty (50) shares of one hundred dollars ($100.00) each of common stock, and two hundred (200) shares of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) each of preferred stock. The preferred stock shall have no voting power of any sort whatsoever, and shall not be considered as affecting the amount of the stock of the Corporation in connection with the amendment of the charter, or the increase or decrease of the capital stock as provided for by Act 267 of the Legislature of the State of Louisiana of 1914. The preferred stock shall be entitled to receive an annual dividend of Ten Per Cent (10%), payable out of the net profits of the Company for the previous year, prior to the holders of the common stock receiving any dividend upon their common stock holdings. This ten per cent (10%) annual dividend on the preferred stock shall, however, not be cumulative. The preferred stock shall be subject to redemption by the Company at any time at par after thirty days' notice by the Company by mail, addressed to the last known address of such preferred stockholder as shown by the books of the Company, such notice to contain advice of the intention of the Company so to redeem said stock. If earned, a pro rata of the annual dividend up to the date of redemption shall be paid at time of redemption. The preferred stock shall be sold by the Board of Directors for not less than par to be paid for on such terms and conditions as it may determine.

The Board of Directors of this Corporation is authorized to purchase from Mr. Warren Buckley, of Harlem Plantation, Louisiana, and Charles W. Buckley of Chicago, Illinois, the following at the following prices, to-wit: Two (2) mules at two hundred dollars ($200) each... 400.00 Two (2) disc cultivators at twenty dollars ($20) each... 40.00 Three (3) disc harrows at fifteen dollars ($15) each... 45.00 Two (2) corn cultivators at fifteen dollars ($15) each... 30.00 One (1) rotary harrow... 10.00 One (1) water cart... 50.00 One (1) eight H. P. which said property is now at Harlem Plantation, Plaquemines Parish, Louisiana, and to issue full paid common stock of this Corporation to said Warren Buckley and Charles W. Buckley in payment of the purchase price thereof.

The Board of Directors of this Corporation shall have the right to acquire from James Ray Geraty, formerly of Young's Island, S. C., the business of raising and selling at wholesale, vegetable plants and nursery stock heretofore carried on by him in the name of James Ray Geraty, together with the good will of said business and mailing lists, and shall have the power to acquire such mules, implements, farming equipment and supplies, from Warren Buckley, of Harlem Plantation, La., and Charles W. Buckley, of Chicago, Ill., as the Board of Directors may desire, and in payment thereof, to issue full paid common stock of this Corporation as hereinafter provided.

ARTICLE VI. This charter may be amended, the capital stock increased or decreased of this Corporation dissolved in accordance with the provisions of Act 267 of the Legislature of the State of Louisiana for the year 1914.

THUS DONE AND SIGNED at my office in New Orleans, Louisiana, in the presence of Messrs. E. Lloyd Posey and Chas. A. Friele, competent witnesses, after due reading of the whole, the subscribers to this corporation hereby affixing after their names the amount of each stock respectively subscribed for by them, and hereby declaring this to constitute their stock subscription list.

Name, Warren Buckley; address, Phoenix, La.; kind of stock, common; number of shares, Thirteen (13).

Name, James Ray Geraty; address, Phoenix, La.; kind of stock, common; number of shares, twenty-five (25).
