

Do you Really Think he did?

I waited till the twilight,
And yet he did not come,
I stayed along the brook side
And slowly wandered home;

He showed me where, half shaded,
A cottage home lay hid;
He said for me he made it—
Do you really think he did?

LANGWORTHY & TILDON'S

ARTIST'S UNION OF CINCINNATI.

AN INSTITUTION FOR THE ENCOURAGEMENT OF THE FINE ARTS IN THE WEST.

The "ARTIST'S UNION OF CINCINNATI," established for the promotion of the tastes for the Fine Arts, and the encouragement of the great body of artists residing in the Western States. To accomplish an object uniting great public good with private gratification, at a mere nominal expense, in a manner best suited to the wants, habits, and tastes of the people, the managers have adopted the following plan, which they think will meet the approbation of all those who take an interest in the progress of the Fine Arts.

To the production of two magnificent engravings in the highest style of art, of which every member receives one copy, for every certificate held, which will be delivered in the order of subscription.

To the purchase of American works of art, which will be publicly distributed among all the members, on the first of January of each year, in such manner as a majority of them may determine.

Members who subscribe for more than one share in the distribution, are for every share subscribed presented with an additional engraving, worth nearly that amount. Each member will also be entitled from the date of his subscription, to the numbers of the "Western Artists' Journal," a monthly publication devoted to literature and the Fine Arts.

An equivalent is guaranteed to subscribers for their money, and a chance to win a fine painting besides, while at the same time, they have the satisfaction to know that they are encouraging a noble enterprise.

The managers of the Artists' Union, in submitting the plan of their Institution to the people of the United States, are convinced that the Fine Arts in this country can never obtain an elevation and a more direct interest in the spread of a knowledge of the Arts, but to the community at large.

Members for 1854 will have the privilege of choosing from any of the engravings issued by the Artists' Union, viz: "Education of Morals," a beautiful steel engraving, and the "Burial of De Soto," (after Powell's celebrated work), "In a Quandy," (from a painting by Bingham), and "Education of Nature," or "Washington," (from Stuart's celebrated portrait), and "Catching Rabbits," by Mount.

Subscriptions received by honorary Secretaries in all the principal towns and cities throughout the United States, where appointments have been made. Places where there are none, subscriptions with the money can be remitted by mail to Chas. H. Erwin, Treasurer, Cincinnati, (at his risk,) on the receipt of which, a certificate of membership will be sent.

GERMAN BITTERS. Prepared by Dr. R. M. JACKSON, German Medicine store, No. 120 Arch st., one door below Sixth, Philadelphia.

Their power over the above diseases is not exceeded, if equalled, by any other preparation in the United States, as the cases attest. In many cases after skillful physicians have failed.
