Tri-Weekly Line of Stages.

From Clinton to Amite Station, passing through Greensburg to Amite City, on the New Orleans, Jackson, and Great Northern Railroad.
THERE IS NOW ESTABLISHED, on this route, a Tri-Weekly Line of Stages leaving Amite City every MONDAY, WEDNESDAY and FRIDAY, on the arrival of the Passenger Trains from New Orleans, and reaching Clinton the same evening at 7 o'clock. Returning, will leave Clinton every TUESDAY, THURSDAY and SATURDAY, at 5 o'clock in the morning, and arriving at Amite City in time for the evening train to New Orleans.
By this route, passengers will pass from New Orleans to Clinton the same day. This route is 68 miles by Railroad, and 35 miles by Stage. The Stage road is over a beautiful undulating country, affording a good natural road. As there is, as yet, no mail established on this route, a bag for the transmission of letters and papers, has been placed at the office of the New Orleans and Jackson Railroad, No. 45 Carondelet Street, and will be sent to the Railroad every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, at 7 o'clock in the morning, and every attention will be paid to the proper delivery of letters and papers.
The FARE for through passengers from New Orleans to Clinton will be five dollars. It will be thus seen that this is the cheapest, quickest and safest route from Clinton to New Orleans.

CHARTER OF THE Clinton Branch Railroad Company.

AN ACT to incorporate the Clinton Branch Railroad Company.

PREAMBLE.

WHEREAS, a corporation, styled the Clinton Branch Railroad Company, has been created under the Act of the Legislature, entitled "An Act for the organization of Corporations for works of Public Improvement and Utility," approved, March the twelfth, eighteen hundred and fifty two, which said corporation was enacted in the following words, to wit:
We, the undersigned, agree to form ourselves into a corporation under the laws of the State of Louisiana, hereinafter set forth, for the purpose of constructing a Railroad from the town of Clinton, Parish of East Feliciana, running through the Parish of St. Helena, to some point of intersection on the line of the New Orleans, Jackson, and Great Northern Railway, and for that purpose we have formed the annexed Charter, and have signed the same.

CHARTER OF THE COMPANY.

SECT. 1. The said corporation shall be called the Clinton Branch Railroad Company, and its domicile be fixed in the town of Clinton, in the Parish of East Feliciana.

SECT. 2. The said corporation is established for the purpose of constructing, working, and maintaining a Railroad from Clinton, in the Parish of East Feliciana, eastward through the Parish of St. Helena to a point of intersection on the New Orleans, Jackson, and Great Northern Railway, which shall be deemed the most favorable after satisfactory surveys.

SECT. 3. The capital stock of the company is fixed at Five Hundred Thousand Dollars, divided into twenty thousand shares of twenty-five dollars each. Payments shall be made in such sums and at such periods as shall be fixed by the Board of Directors.

SECT. 4. The said corporation shall go into operation and be organized, as soon as shares of stock to the amount of seventy-five thousand dollars shall have been subscribed.

SECT. 5. The business of the Corporation shall be conducted at its domicile in the town of Clinton by a Board composed of twelve Directors. A quorum shall consist of at least five Directors. The directors shall elect one of their body, as President of their Company, at their first meeting after their election. No person shall be eligible as a director, who is not a share holder. At all elections by stock holders, and all their meetings, each share shall be entitled to one vote. Votes may be given in person, or in proxy. The President of the Company is the officer designated as the one on whom legal service of all process or citation whether made on the President, in person, or left to his address at the office of the Company, in the hands of any of its officers.

SECT. 6. The first Board of Directors shall be chosen as soon as the list of subscription shall be closed. The notices of the election of the first Board of Directors, shall be given by publication made fifteen days in advance in one newspaper in the city of New Orleans, and one in the town of Clinton, and the election shall be held at the time and place designated by the commissioners charged with receiving the subscriptions.

The first election shall be held under the superintendence of the commissioners aforesaid, who shall select three of their number for that purpose. All subsequent elections under the superintendence of three commissioners to be appointed from among the stockholders by the Board of Directors for the time being. The first Board of Directors shall hold office until the first Monday of May, of the year Eighteen hundred and fifty-six. The election shall be annual, and each subsequent board of directors shall be elected on the third Monday of April. A failure to elect directors, shall not dissolve the corporation, but the Board in office shall continue the exercise of its functions, until a new Board can be elected. All notices of elections and meetings of shareholders, after the first election of Directors above provided for shall be given by publication, fifteen days in advance in one newspaper in the city of New Orleans, and one in the town of Clinton.

SECT. 7. The following named persons are hereby appointed commissioners for the purpose of receiving subscriptions to the stock of said corporation to-wit:

EAST FELICIANA.

Messrs. Baynard & Hamilton, Clinton, La.

" A. Levi, Bloom & Co., " "

" Isaac N. Lemon, " "

" Wm. Gurney, " "

" James M. Stokes, " "

" George A. Neafus, Port Hudson,

" Gen. A. G. Carter, " "

" John McKenon, Jackson,

" William Sandell, Kellertown,

" Samuel W. Riley, " "

" John F. George, Bluff Creek,

" Dr. Wm. C. Williams, " "

ST. HELENA.

John Burton, Saml. Davis, John Wheat,

John M. Bach, C. D. Suckland, Jr. W. Williams,

EAST BATON ROUGE.

Wm. Kelly, W. C. Greshaw.

LIVINGSTON.

Levi Spiller, Jacob I. Watts,

WILKINSON CO. MISS.

Dr. D. L. Pharis, Philip Huff, John Whitaker,

AMITE, CO. MISS.

Eli I. Capel, H. G. Street, Robt. Germany,

NEW ORLEANS.

Col. S. W. Oakley, W. H. Garland.

The said commissioners shall have power to appoint deputies or agents in other places for receiving subscriptions. Seven shall form a quorum for doing business in the town of Clinton.

The lists of subscription shall be closed on the first day of December, eighteen hundred and fifty-five, or if the subscription shall not amount to one hundred thousand dollars at that date, then they shall be closed as soon as said amount shall have been subscribed. As soon as the subscription list shall have been closed, they shall be returned to the town of Clinton for registry in the office of the Recorder of mortgages of the Parish of East Feliciana, as required by law.

SECT. 8. Immediately after the election of the first Board of Directors, the subscription lists shall be opened for a period of four months, in such places as the said Board of Directors may deem advisable, and public notice shall be given thereof in a newspaper published in the places where said subscription books are opened, and the Board shall have power to appoint agents for receiving the subscriptions. At the end of the said four months if the amount of subscription shall exceed the capital required, a meeting of stockholders and subscribers shall be held to determine whether the capital shall be increased to the whole amount of subscription, and if the capital be not so increased, then the number of shares subscribed shall be reduced by deduction from the largest subscriptions so as not to diminish the number of shares of any subscriber, whilst another remains with a larger number of shares. If there be any deficiency in the amount of capital subscribed, the said subscription books may be reopened and closed from time to time till the whole capital shall have been subscribed.

SECT. 9. In case of a failure on the part of any subscriber, to pay the installments on his stock as required, the board of directors shall have the option after thirty days written notice to the defaulter of forfeiting the stock, and selling it for the benefit of said stockholder, or of compelling by suit the payment of such installment, and no stockholder shall be permitted to vote while in default.

SECT. 10. All meetings of stockholders called for the purpose of increasing or diminishing the capital stock of the company or for any of the purposes enumerated in the 5th section of the Act of the Legislature of Louisiana, entitled "An Act for the organization of Corporations for Works of Public Improvement and Utility," shall be composed of persons holding in their own right, or as agents of others, at least three-fourths of the stock of the company in order to make valid and binding their actions in the premises: at all other meetings of the stockholders and at all elections a majority of stock shall be represented, and in this latter case, if such majority be not present, nor represented, the meeting shall be adjourned for one week, and the vote of the majority of the stock present, and represented at such adjourned meeting shall bind the company in the same manner as if a majority of all the stock were present and represented.

SECT. 11. Any vacancy in the Board of Directors occurring during the year may be filled by a vote of the Board of Directors.

SECT. 12. The President and directors of said corporation shall have power to make and use a common seal, to elect a newspaper which shall be known to the stockholders as the official paper of the company, and in which all its advertisements shall appear, and to do every thing, necessary for the construction, repair, and maintenance of the railroad hereinafter described, with as many tracts as they may deem necessary to determine the line of the road, and the deposits that may be necessary to make, and contract for all works whatsoever, for the proper and complete working of said road, to contract specially, for all work, labor, or materials to be furnished to the company, and to agree, whether the whole or any part thereof shall be payable in the capital stock of the company; to appoint a secretary, treasurer, superintendent, engineer, solicitors, and other officers or servants, necessary or proper for the faithful performance of any duty necessary to the construction and proper maintenance of said railroad; to make all contracts for the furnishing of iron, or other necessary equipments or supplies of the road, and on such credits as they may deem proper, and to mortgage the said road for the payment of the same; to borrow money for and on account of said road, in any sum not to exceed ten thousand dollars, unless authorized by a vote of two thirds of the stockholders to exceed that sum, and to mortgage the said road and its appurtenances to secure the payment of the same; to make all contracts necessary for the purpose of speedily and properly constructing said road; to purchase with the funds of the company, all the locomotives, engines, cars, vehicles, teams and other equipments deemed by them necessary or useful to the purposes of the company; and when said road or any part thereof is finished, to fix the rate of toll for passengers and Merchandise; to make all rules and regulations, and other by-laws deemed necessary, for the proper, safe, and regular transaction of the business of the company; but such rules, regulations, and by-laws shall be subject to repeal, change, amendment or modification by the stockholders at their meetings, or by the President and Directors in the intervals; they may accept donations in land or money, or such material or labor as may be useful to the company; they shall declare semi-annually the dividend arising from the working of the road after the payment of all necessary expenses; said dividend shall be declared and payable to the stockholders within fifteen days of the months of January and July of each year; they shall make a report in full detail to the stockholders to the first days of January and July of each year, of the working of the road and its expenses and profits, as also a detailed statement of all contracts during the process of constructing the road and its bridges, &c., with an account of the progress made; they shall keep, or cause to be kept, a regular set of books, in which shall be entered, in the regular order of their several dates, all business or other transactions of the company, which said books shall be opened to the inspection of any stockholder, at the office of the company during the business hours of the day; a stock book shall be kept, and certificates of stock shall be issued to the stockholders, and no transfer of stock shall be binding on the company until made on its stock book; and to call a meeting of stockholders, on the written requisition of stockholders representing one-fifth of the stock of the company.

SECT. 13. If any subscriber for stock shall be taxed by virtue of any law or ordinance for the payment of subscriptions to the company, he shall have the right of reducing the number of his shares by an amount equal to that of the tax imposed, but this right must be exercised within sixty days from the date of the tax receipt, after which, it shall not be allowed.

SECT. 14. An annual meeting of the stockholders, shall be held on the third Monday of each April, to receive the annual report of the last year's operations and business of the company, at which meeting, a full statement of the financial affairs and other business of the company shall be submitted by the President and directors for examination by the stockholders and their agents.

SECT. 15. At the expiration of the Charter, or whenever the dissolution of the Corporation shall render necessary its liquidation, three commissioners shall be elected by the stockholders whose duty it shall be to take possession of the property of the company, and conduct its business to a final liquidation on such terms and in such manner as shall be determined by a meeting of stockholders regularly convened for that purpose; and if at the expiration of the present charter a majority of the stockholders in number and amount shall desire to renew the same for a further term, the stockholders dissenting from the renewal, shall be bound to transfer their stock to those desiring a renewal, at its fair value, to be fixed by appraisers mutually drawn for that purpose.
