STATE TAX SALES.

—OF—

IMMOVABLE PROPERTY.

State of Louisiana vs. Delinquent Tax Debtors—Parish of St. Martin.

By virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of the State of Louisiana I will sell at the principal front door of the Court House, in which the District Court of said parish is held within the legal hours for Judicial sales, beginning at eleven o'clock a. m. on Saturday May 31th. 1890.

and continuing on each succeeding day until said sales are completed, all immovable property on which said taxes now due to the State of Louisiana and Parish of St. Martin to enforce collection of taxes assessed in the year 1889 together with interest thereon from the 31st day of December of the year in which said taxes were due at the rate of two per cent per month until paid and all costs.

The name of said delinquent tax payers, the amount of the taxes due by each on the assessment of said year, and the immovable property assessed to each to be offered for sale as follows, to wit:
