PROMULGATION

—OF THE—
Proposed Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Louisiana, ADOPTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF 1890.

STATE OF LOUISIANA,
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE.
In pursuance of the provisions of the Constitution, publication is hereby made and given to the qualified electors of the State of Louisiana of the proposed amendment to the Constitution of this State, which has been concurred in by two-thirds of all the members elected to each House of the General Assembly of this State, at the regular session thereof, held at the City of Baton Rouge, in the year 1890, and which is required to be published for the information of the qualified electors of this State for three months preceding the general election for Representatives, and which proposed amendment more fully appears in Act No. 153, of the Regular Session of 1890 which is hereafter officially published for the information of the qualified electors of this State, and which will be submitted to them for their approval or rejection at the next general election, which will be held on Tuesday, the 19th day of April, 1892, (it being the Tuesday next following the third Monday of said month) in such manner and form that the qualified electors may vote for or against said amendment; and if a majority of the qualified electors voting at said election, shall approve and ratify said proposed amendment, then such proposed amendment, so approved and ratified, shall become a part of the Constitution of this State.

No. 153.] AN ACT
Providing for the submission to the electors of the State for adoption or rejection, an amendment to the Constitution of the State by inserting therein "an article of Levees, schools, Charities, Pensions, Drainage, Lotteries and General Fund."

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, That the following amendment to the Constitution of the State be submitted to the electors for approval or rejection, as provided in article two hundred and fifty-six of the Constitution, and if adopted, the said amendment shall read as follows:

ARTICLE OF LEVEES, SCHOOLS, CHARITIES, PENSIONS, DRAINAGE, LOTTERIES, AND GENERAL FUND.

In aid of the Levees, schools, charities, pensions, drainage and general fund hereinafter named, the following contract is now made. In consideration of the sum of thirty-one millions two hundred and fifty thousand dollars to be fully secured and paid as hereinafter provided, John A. Morris, his heirs, agents and assigns, are hereby authorized and empowered for the term of twenty-five years ensuing the first day of January, 1891, to prepare schemes of Lotteries, to sell lottery tickets and to draw and conduct lotteries in this State. Said sum shall be paid to the Treasurer of the State by the persons conducting the business pursuant to this contract, in one hundred equal installments, whereof each installment shall be paid on or before the first days of January, April, July and October in each and every year during said term; and the Treasurer upon the receipt of each of said installments shall apply the same as follows:

TO THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS OF THE STATE.—Three hundred and fifty thousand dollars annually, payable quarterly in advance, as above provided, which sum shall be distributed to each parish in the proportion prescribed by article two hundred and twenty-four of the Constitution.

TO LEVEES.—Three hundred and fifty thousand dollars annually, payable quarterly in advance, as above provided, which sum shall be distributed among the Levee Districts of the State or applied to levee purposes in the proportions and in the manner provide by law for the distribution and application of the one mill tax levied under Article 213 of the Constitution.

TO CHARITIES.—One hundred and fifty thousand dollars annually, payable quarterly in advance, as above provided, of which sum eighty thousand dollars shall be applied to the hospitals established by the State, forty thousand dollars to State insane asylums; twenty-five thousand dollars to State institutions for the deaf, dumb and blind; five thousand dollars to the Soldier's Home.

TO PENSIONS.—Fifty thousand dollars annually, payable quarterly in advance, as above provided, to the pensioning of disabled, infirm, or indigent Confederate soldiers, citizens resident in Louisiana.

TO THE CITY OF NEW ORLEANS, FOR DRAINAGE AND OTHER SANITARY PURPOSES.—One hundred thousand dollars annually, payable quarterly in advance, as above provided, the expenditure of said sum and the management and the control of the same to be determined by the General Assembly, which is hereby directed to carry into effect this provision by appropriate legislation.

TO THE GENERAL FUND.—Two hundred and fifty thousand dollars annually, payable quarterly in advance, as above provided.

The several sums of money above specified shall be devoted to the objects and purposes hereinbefore stated, and the General Assembly is hereby directed to carry into effect this provision by appropriate legislation.

Said John A. Morris, his heirs or agents, shall within twenty days from the date of the adoption of this article, file in the office of the Secretary of State a written acceptance by him or them of this contract, and for the protection of the State and the security of the public, this contract is made upon the express condition that said John A. Morris, his heirs or agents, shall within thirty days from the date of the adoption of this article file in the office of the Secretary of State a declaration in writing, signed by him or them and six persons, signifying their consent to from the corporation hereinafter named, and the said John A. Morris shall file therewith his bond with good and solvent sureties, residents of this State, in the sum of five million dollars, said bond to be in favor of and accepted by the Auditor of the State, the condition of said bond shall be that the said Morris, his heirs or assigns, shall pay to the State of Louisiana the said sum of thirty-one million two hundred and fifty thousand dollars at the dates and in the manner herein set out and shall faithfully perform all the obligations herein contained; and thereupon the persons signing the said declaration shall be thereby constituted a corporation under the name and title of "The Louisiana Lottery Company," whereof the capital stock shall be five million dollars, represented by fifty thousand shares of one hundred dollars each, at least twenty per cent, thereof to be forthwith fully paid up, and which corporation shall be and continue during the period of this contract, and shall have all the rights and powers possessed by corporations generally as defined by the present Civil Code of the State, and shall be liable for the money herein directed to be paid to the Treasurer of the State, and for all prizes to be drawn in said Lotteries, and shall be entitled to receive semi annually from the persons conducting the business under this contract fifty per cent, of the net profits of the said business, and in consideration of the payment of said sum of thirty-one million two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, in installments as aforesaid, said corporation and the shares of stock therein and the business authorized by this contract and the revenues and receipts thereof, shall be exempt from all taxes, dues, assessments, impositions and licenses of any kind whatever, whether State, parish, municipal or otherwise. The powers of said corporation shall be vested in a board of directors to consist of seven persons, who may make and establish rules and by-laws for the proper management and regulation of its affairs. The persons signing said declaration shall constitute the first board of directors and shall serve for the term of one year from the time of the filing of said declaration and until their successors are duly appointed.

All lotteries other than those authorized by this article are prohibited in this State, unless by similar amendment to this Constitution and for not less than one million two hundred and fifty thousand dollars per annum. All provisions of the Constitution and laws of this State inconsistent or in any way conflicting with this article are declared to be superseded hereby.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of State to publish the foregoing amendment in accordance with the provisions of article two hundred and fifty-six of the Constitution, within ninety days after the first day of January in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-one.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That at the next election all electors who desire to vote for said amendment shall write or print upon their ballots the words, "For the Levees, Schools, Charities, Pensions, Drainage, Lotteries and General Fund amendment," and all electors who desire to vote at said election against said amendment shall write or print upon their ballots the words, "Against the Levees, Schools, Charities, Drainage, Lotteries and General Fund amendment."

SEC. 4. Be it further enacted, That all officers charged with elections or the conduct of the returns thereof under the general election laws, shall at the time they give notice of the said general election also give notice of the election here ordered for the adoption or rejection of the proposed amendment, and shall without other authority than is herein contained make due returns of said election in conformity with the general election laws in so far as they are not inconsistent with or in conflict with this act.
