Monday, at half past four o'clock in the evening, Mr. Wade Bernard was married to Miss Luvina Delaune, the pretty daughter of Mr. Alfred Delaune; the bride, one of the strawberry blondes of the creole type, was the picture of sweetness and loveliness. The ceremony was performed at the Catholic Church and was witnessed by a large number of friends and relatives.

Now that Spring is upon us, is the time for general improvement and our people should make a rule to make a liberal use of paint and white wash and make the town look bright, prosperous and happy.

A PURE WHISKY. ROSE OF ORLEANS. DISTILLED AND BOTTLED BY THE LOUISIANA DISTILLERY CO., OF NEW ORLEANS, LA. — SPECIAL THIRTY DAYS SALE.

In this issue of the Messenger will be found the advertisement of the Louisiana Distillery Co., of New Orleans, who make the readers of this paper a generous offer, especially those who like and enjoy a pure family and medicinal whiskey.

They will ship express prepaid anywhere in the state of Louisiana four full quarts of the "Rose of Orleans," a pure whiskey distilled in this state, bottled in bond and eight years old. It bears the government stamp which is a guaranty of its purity and being 100 proof. There is no better whiskey sold for less than a dollar a quart. The "Rose of Orleans" is a splendid whiskey for the sideboard, the home, and the medicine chest, and must not be in any way connected with the cheap whiskey that is being shipped over the state.

The Louisiana Distillery Co., is one of the oldest and most reliable distilling house in the South and this state. This special sale forty days, at an unheard of price for pure whiskey, and is only done to introduce the "Rose of Orleans" to the trade. Order to today this ad may not appear again.
