One Teaspoonful of Medicine

makes a whole lot of difference when you're sick, and your body is in a weak, exhausted state.

If it's pure and fresh, and just what your doctor prescribed, it will go far toward bringing you back to health.

If it's poor and lacking in necessary power, it is like so much waste to your starved system and may turn the scales against you.

All our medicines are right—pure, fresh, and reliable.

Do you suffer much from headaches? If so, you will find REXALL HEADACHE WAFERS the simplest and most effective cure for headaches and neuralgia you ever employed. They are perfectly suited to women; quickly stop pain and soothe the nerves.—Absolutely harmless, guaranteed free from antipyrine, opium, morphine or chloral. Sold with the Rexall guarantee.

His Happy Home.

She sews the buttons on his shirt,
And darns his socks with care
She never fails to be alert
His every woe to share.
She lays his night clothes on the bed
And turns the covers down,
She never fills his heart with dread
By a suspicious frown.

She gives him what he likes to eat,
And never makes complaint;
And there is never when they meet
A hint of cold restraint.
Her faith in him is deep and great,
She courts his least caress.
When he gets home to dinner late
There is no bitterness.

She never scolds because the folk
Next door have more than they.
On him she pauses' to invoke
God's blessing day by day,
She strives in every way to ease
The burdens of his life;
You may have guessed ere this that she's
His mother, not his wife.

The High School Entertainment.

Friday of last week the pupils of the High School gave a very interesting and entertaining little exhibition at the High School Auditorium.

The attendance was not half as large as it should have been, and this, we believe, was caused by lack of the proper advertising.

The program was interesting and nicely carried out.

The first play, "A Public Benefactor" was rendered by Robert Marais, Thomas Martin, George Bienvenu, Zerben Bienvenu, Jas. Simon, Jr, and Leonard Resweber.

A violin duet by Dumas and Edmond Delahoussaye was a real treat.

The debate "Resolved that the Petticoat has done more for Civilization than the Sword" was well contested by Misses Effie de La-loire and Ruby French for the affirmative and Miss Effie Soulier and Louis Gridry Jr for the negative, both sides made good and strong delivery, but the judges decided in favor of the negative.

A piano duet was nicely rendered by Misses Camola Bienvenu and Verna Knight.

Miss Tom Boy was the most laughable piece on the program and it was elegantly rendered by Misses Jeanne Robicheaux, Viola Broussard and Pauline Voorhies. Pauline was the star of the evening.

$100 Per Plate

was paid at a banquet to Henry Clay, in New Orleans in 1842. Mightily costly for those with stomach trouble or indigestion. To day people every where use Dr. King's New Life Pills for these troubles as well as liver, kidney and bowel disorders. Easy, safe, sure. Only 25 cts at all druggists.

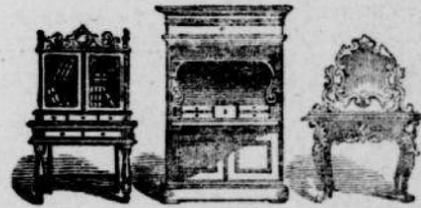

—The Street Fair of Nigro and Loos which left here last Monday after having been held here for fifteen days on account of the bad weather, was not much of an attraction. They had nothing worth seeing, a negro minstrel, a roulette, crazy house and big head child, were no attractions at all, the whirl of death was the only thing worth seeing. The most part of the fair was composed of about a dozens of gambling wheels of some kind.

FIRE OUT

Then comes the matter of INSURANCE. You get out your policy and note the Company in which you are insured. Certain questions should not arise to worry you at such a time.

You should not be worried by the question of whether you are insured in a company that dickers and delays over settlement.

You should not be worried over the question of whether the company can pay the claim. You should not be worried by the question of whether you have had enough protection to cover your loss.

To be insured in COMPANIES such as are represented in my agency eliminates the first two of these worries. By consulting me before taking out your policy, I will tell you the proper proportion of insurance to carry, and that eliminates the third.

The evident thing to do before the fire, in order to eliminate worry, is to be insured in the right kind of COMPANY.

INSIST ON THE BEST, IT IS THE CHEAPEST.
