PUTTING THE BLAME ON SOMEBODY.

Ruth Cameron, who contributes short stories to the Times-Democrat said recently in her refreshing style:

"If we try hard enough, we can always find someone to blame" when things go wrong. "But wouldn't it be a happier world if, instead of trying hard enough, we cheerfully accepted things as nobody's fault, just accidents?"

There is not the least doubt about it. We would all be happier and more cheerful, if we could get over the deep-rooted habit of blaming the other fellow.

Where the great harm comes, is in the irritation, friction, and unpleasantness, which we bring into our own lives by brooding because certain plans miscarried through someone's mistake.

There is nothing but unhappiness in brooding and sulking. Blaming some one when things go wrong puts you out of humor and gives you the blues and does not help at all to remedy anything.

Because certain people prefer to deal with strangers over in New York, Chicago and other far away cities, is no reason for those who in supporting home enterprise to lose their temper.

Saved His Foot

H. D. Ely, of Bantam, O., suffered from horrible ulcer on his foot for four years. Doctor advised amputation, but he refused and reluctantly tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve as a last resort. He then wrote: "I used your salve and my foot was soon completely cured." Best remedy for burns, cuts, bruises and eczema. Get a box today. Only 25c. All druggists or by mail. H. E. A friendship that makes the least noise is very often the most useful; for which reason we should prefer a prudent friend to a zealous one.—Ex.
