

BREVITIES

CHATS ABOUT MEN.

Carl Schurz at the age of thirty-two wrote a letter of admonition and advice to Abraham Lincoln.

Beverly W. Wrenn, Jr., is the youngest member of the Atlanta bar, being but twenty-two years of age.

The Marquis of Lorne sympathizes with strikes that are reasonable, and has often been known to contribute his mite to a socialist fund.

Kinloch Cooke is to be the editor of The Pall Mall Gazette under the new management. He was formerly Lord Dunraven's private secretary and editor of the London Observer.

James C. Baxter, Jr., who has been appointed fire chief of Philadelphia to succeed the late John R. Cantlin, is about fifty years of age, and has been connected with the department since 1870.

Gordon MacKay, of Boston, according to The Courier of that city, not only gives his divorced wife $25,000 a year, but has withdrawn the proviso that she shall receive it only so long as she remains unmarried.

Governor Russell, of Massachusetts, went through a special train, on which he was a passenger the other day, and collected quite a purse for the family of a man who had met fatal injuries under the wheels of the train.

Ex-Governor Henry N. Hoyt, of Pennsylvania, while leading a charge into Fort Fisher twenty-eight years ago, was captured and disarmed. He has now received his sword back again through the courtesy of the Confederate lieutenant to whom he surrendered it.

Justice Shiras, who has succeeded the late Justice Bradley on the supreme court bench, will eventually purchase a home in Washington, but for the present he has taken quarters at one of the leading hotels, where he and Mrs. Shiras propose to stay during the winter.

STAGE GLINTS.

The memoirs of Tommaso Salvini are in press.

Madie Scanlan, the star of "Nora Maude," died suddenly in New York city recently.

Miss C. Goodwin has engaged Lizzie Weston-Collier as leading lady in place of Mabel Amber.

George E. Veil, an American resident of Paris, has just had a one act play accepted by one of the Boulevard theaters.

Negotiations are in progress which may result in the reappearance of Mme. Patti in Italian opera in London this winter.

Henry E. Dixey expects that his "Edonis the Second" will be ready for the Chicago engagement beginning on Nov. 15. The piece is in two acts.

Colonel J. H. Mapleson's action against Mme. Melba, the prima donna, for breach of contract, is likely to be tried early in December in London.

Fedorowald is progressing so rapidly toward health that there is promise of the fulfillment of all his American engagements except the earlier concerts of the series.

Lee Ottolenghi has purchased "A Scandal in High Life," by Edgar Selden, author of "McKeena's Flirtations." The piece will be produced in the spring and run on four next season.

Signor Campobello is organizing an opera company in Memphis to sing in that city and undertake a tour of western states. His prima donna will be Mrs. S. T. Carnes, a leading society woman of Memphis, and wife of General Carnes, who is said to be in sympathy with the enterprise.

THE LATEST NOVELTIES.

Flat bodied silver pepper boxes are now.

A hand of silver mounted on a stand and is a paperweight.

Oblong forms seem to be superseding round forms, even in tea sets.

An antique silver key supported by a chain is used to hang keys on.

Two slender ewers of glass covered with pierced silver, and slender glasses likewise covered, are a new liquor set.

Candlesticks after French models, with square bases and tops, are good style. The latest candlesticks are in rich Italian styles and higher.

Cheese scoops, ice cream knives and other implements of this sort have perforated ornaments carried into the body of the metal from the upper side.

Spiral and parallel flutes hold their own in ornamentation. Gold lined bread, cake and berry dishes, with flutes curving shellwise and in parallel lines, are charming.—Jeweler's Circular.

TURF TOPICS.

F. A. Ehret's retirement from the turf has evoked universal expressions of regret.

The sensational pacer Carazo, which reeled off a quarter in 31¼ seconds, has been sold for $5,000.

Dr. McCully, of Toronto, is said to have refused an offer of $10,000 for his yearling colt Altoneer, by Sphinx.

The English Jockey club has filled both its $50,000 races to be run at Newmarket in 1893. Each received an entry of 199.

C. J. Hamlin has given J. Malcolm Forbes a refusal of the mare Princess Royal after her season's engagements are over.

No one can conscientiously deny that Queenie Trowbridge is a great racer. The way Reiff finished only a whisker behind Strathmeath in the Country club stamper McCafferty's mare as a prize of the first water.

Separation of Property.

No. 4004, D. C., First Judicial District Court of Louisiana. Mrs. Louisa L. O'Hara vs. P. M. O'Hara, Her Husband.

JUDGMENT.
In this case, by reason of the law and the evidence being in favor of plaintiff, and against defendant, it is ordered, adjudged and decreed that plaintiff, Mrs. Louisa L. O'Hara, have judgment against defendant, P. M. O'Hara, her husband, dissolving the community of acquests and gains heretofore existing between them.

It is further ordered that the judgment of separation of property herein granted to Mrs. Louisa L. O'Hara take effect from the date of the filing of this suit, and that defendant pay all cost of this proceeding.

This done, read and signed in open court, this 12th day of November, A. D. 1892. (Signed) S. L. TAYLOR, Judge 1st Judicial District Louisiana. A True Copy. F. A. LEONARD, Clerk.
