

G. LEARD & CO.

TALMAGE'S SERMON.

"HOW TO WARM THE WORLD" THE LATEST SUBJECT.

Golden Text: "He Casteth Forth His Ice Like Mortar; Who Can Stand Before His Cold?"—Psalm 117: 17—Delivered Sunday, March 15.

HE almanac says that winter is ended and spring has come, but the winds, and the frosts, and the thermometer, in some places down to zero, deny it.

he must sometimes have been cut by the sharp weather. In this chapter he speaks of the snow like wool, and frost like ashes, the hailstones like marbles, and describes the congelment of low-est temperature.

When I was a lad I remember seeing two rough woodcuts, but they made more impression upon me than any pictures that I have ever seen.

Notwithstanding all the modern inventions for heating, I tell you there is nothing so full of geniality and sociality as the old-fashioned country fireplace.

Recently an engineer in the southwest, on a locomotive, saw a train coming with which he must collide.

Escaping Temptation. If any man should escape temptation it will not be because he is strong, but because he is weak.

He Was Easily Cured. A Lewiston (Me.) man borrowed a neighbor's battery for treatment of his rheumatism.

The Social Evil. Women can cure the social evil by stamping upon the forehead of the man the same brand of infamy with which they condemn his victim.

Bibles and creeds. Kindle that fire where it has gone out. Wrap something around those shivering limbs. Shoe those bare feet.

never drops below zero, but December is a cheerless month, and the pasturage is very poor on the hilltops.

Oh it was this Christ who warned the chilled disciples when they had no food by giving them plenty to eat, and who in the tomb of Lazarus shattered the shackles until the broken links of the chain of death rattled into the darkest crypt of the mausoleum.
