now on in this State; and also in the election of a Congressman from the 6th district. Cleveland's administration has been a financial failure.

The bull-whip has lost its terrors in politics, and there are thousands, yea tens of thousands of Democrats who will not vote the ticket if a gold-bug platform is adopted or gold-bug nominated for President.

THE PROGRESS returns thanks to Rev. J. T. Barrett, president of Acadia College, for a copy of the program of the commencement exercises of that institution.

Acadia College will have nine graduates at the close, this session. THE PROGRESS tenders congratulations to President and Mrs. Barrett and Prof. J. L. Barrett for their success.

COLORED PEABODY NORMAL. Opened Monday With Thirty Teachers Present.

Unintentionally THE PROGRESS failed in Thursday's issue to note the opening session of the Colored Peabody Summer Normal Monday.

THE PROGRESS takes pleasure in giving its encouragement to the colored people and hopes that one and all will reap rich benefits from this school.

On Tuesday the attendance was increased to forty-four and still more interest was manifested. Prof. Caldwell is a thorough instructor and has a way of instilling ambition in the breasts of teachers which makes them better instructors.

RE-BEKAH LODGE. Queen Esther Rebekah Lodge, No. 14, I. O. O. F. was instituted in this city yesterday afternoon. It is already a strong lodge and will grow.

An Appreciated Courtesy. Thursday morning a negro man entered THE PROGRESS office bearing a covered water on which was a card which bore these words: "Compliments of Mr. and Mrs. George Beardley to Mr. Cal Hicks."

Our friend, Mr. L. S. Scott has full charge of the Crowley Signal, being editor and proprietor. Scott will continue to make the Signal hum. THE PROGRESS expects much from the journal in the great silver fight take home to the wife and babies whom he thought should take part in their respects to the edibles. We tip our hat to Mr. and Mrs. George Beardley. May the goddess of fortune smile on them.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. H. O. Goodwin, who has charge of the brick work of the new railroad shops to be constructed here, arrived in the city Thursday.

Mr. Lee L. Smith, special correspondent of the New Orleans Times-Democrat and local for the Judge, left for New Orleans Thursday afternoon.

The two old Bell phones poles in front of THE PROGRESS office have been taken down. It took eight men to do it and they had to be "keeful like." The performance was watched by quite a crowd.

A negro named Wm. Smith was arrested in Marshall, Tex. this week charged with stealing Dr. A. S. Reisor's horse some weeks ago. He was brought in by Constable L. M. McDuffie and jailed Thursday morning.

THE PROGRESS regrets to learn of the death of Mr. J. J. Rayburn which occurred in New Orleans Tuesday last. Mr. Rayburn was the father-in-law of Hon. A. B. Weaver, a former townsmen of ours, and was once a prosperous business man of Shreveport.

THE PROGRESS takes great pleasure in mentioning the fact that Miss Mattie Allen, daughter of Mrs. and Major N. S. Allen is head book-keeper in the Breckenridge National Bank, one of the largest banks in San Antonio, Tex. We refer to this with a great deal of pride because Miss Mattie is one of Shreveport's girls and the family is very close to the writer.

PUBLIC NEWS THAT IS PLEASING.

All Persons—Not Dumb—Can Talk, But All Cannot Say Something Which Will Interest All.

The readers of THE PROGRESS have read of car shops, iron works, cotton mills and new railroads. They have heard them talked about and expatiated on; and the conversation was pleasing.

MADAM RUMOR SAYS

That all the courts are dull and listless now. That man, beast, the gardens and fields need rain. That disappointment waiteth always on some.

That there was a little flutter in real estate circles this week. That Judge W. T. Slayton opened his office for business this morning.

That the sprinkle Thursday aroused one's expectations and then stopped. That competition maketh even the hackman pay deference to ordinary individuals.

That closing exercises of schools, called commencements, are quite the thing just now. That THE PROGRESS can do all kinds of job work and will do it at rock bottom figures.

That May and June to date have seemed to indicate that— is not far from Shreveport. That there will be a change in business all around when the plow works and car shops start.

That some would-be, self-constituted officers make themselves very officious on gala occasions. That several of the boys, competing for travelers' valises, held a levee at the mayor's court this week.

That Louisiana should send a 16 to 1 delegation to Chicago, with no straddlers in the delegation at all. That the average clerk with $15 salary is generally far more important than the owner of the establishment.

That She hopes that those who have notarial work to do will carry their business to C. D. Hicks, 205 Milam street. That Caddo parish should make the light fairly and squarely, silver and gold, or gold alone, in the election next Tuesday.

That, clothed with a little authority, (some people become very overbearing; and there is such a man in Shreveport, and it is time he was being suppressed. That She knows one or two people in our city who are immeasurably happy, because, in their own estimation, they never make a mistake, and always say and do just the right thing.

That She wonders if anyone reported that uncalled for and brutal knock down in front of Schwartz's butcher shop—not by the proprietor or any employe—which occurred some days ago.
