WEDDING CELEBRATIONS.

This has been a notable week for weddings in Shreveport, four having taken place up to Wednesday night.

The first was on Tuesday afternoon, when Mr. Eugene Perroncel of New Orleans and Miss Mary Jackson were made one.

The ceremony took place at the residence of the bride's brother, Mr. Walter Jackson, one of our most prominent young business men.

Miss Mary is the sister also, of Mrs. C. E. Perroncel, Miss Pinkie Jackson and Mrs. Oscar Armstrong. She is one of Shreveport's noblest and sweetest young women. One of that kind which make a home a place of rest, joy and contentment. We all know Miss Mary, and like her. She is a woman, with all that the word implies.

The groom is a sterling young gentleman, who holds a prominent position in the New Orleans Custom House. He is the brother of Mr. C. E. Perroncel, our parish Treasurer, and one the most prominent gentlemen in Caddo, and one of the best.

All the parties are our friends, and The Progress wishes the happy couple a long life of joy, success and pleasure.

Wednesday After-noon.

At 6 o'clock the elegant home of Mr. Henry Florsheim was ablaze with light and garlanded with handsome flowers, betokening that a sacred and joyable scene was about to be presented. This was the marriage of Miss Carrie, the eldest and lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Florsheim.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. I. Saenger, in his usual impressive and eloquent manner, and at the close Miss Carrie was the wife of Mr. Harry M. Weil.

The bride's father is one of the leading merchants of North Louisiana and one of Shreveport's most prominent and progressive business men, while his wife is one of the leaders in polite society.

Miss Carrie was one of our sweetest girls whose charms and graces made her a social favorite.

The Groom, Mr. Harry M. Weil, is one of Shreveport's best boys, now a splendid young business man, who has worked himself up to a prominent place in business circles in Alexandria, by his own merits.

The Progress joins in the merry wishes for their future state.

Wednesday Night.

That night the First Presbyterian church was crowded to witness the nuptials of Mr. W. F. Corbin of Kansas City and Miss Catherine Hamilton of this city.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Van Lear, always impressive and instructive.

The bride was attended by Miss Skannel, her neice, as maid of honor and Misses Josie Leonard, Mina Utz, Mabel Alcocke, Katie Allen, Martha Leary, and Miss Fiske, of Baltimore, as bridesmaids.

Messrs. S. B. Hicks, W. L. Young, S. J. Ward Jr., Jack Kline and Dr. T. E. Schumpert acted as Ushers and Mr. Felix L. Williams as best man.

A superb supper was given the couple and friends at the residence of Mr. W. E. Hamilton, brother of the bride, and who is one of the most prominent, progressive and successful business men of Shreveport; and also one of the most popular gentlemen in the city.

She is a Shreveport girl, her baby eyes first saw life in our city. She is now a charming woman, of sweet graces, lovely character and noble aims. She is one of Nature's brightest jewels, such as make womanhood a coronation of God's noblest work.

The Progress is totally unacquainted with the groom, but we heartily extend our most earnest congratulations for a life of the world's best gifts.

ROMANCE.

The fourth wedding is no doubt intended to invade the domain of Romance. The couple in this instance were youthful persons, the groom about 19, the bride about 17 years of age.

The groom is Mr. James Murray, the bride, Miss Mabel McFarlin, both of this city.

The marriage of this happy pair was hastened by the fact that the groom is one of the military boys, who is expected soon to answer to the call of his country. In fact he may be gone before our readers note this.

Mr. and Mrs. James Murray are young but the world has many possibilities for such, earnest hearts and they are both endowed with these. Jimmie is brave, manly, honest and energetic his sweet little wife is industrious, amiable and hopeful, and The Progress has no apprehensions for them. It heartily extends its earnest congratulations and sincere wishes for a roseate future.

Mr. James Heffner is confined to his bed with a broken rib. We all regret this very much; but the fish are said to be holding a jubilee.

This place has been provided with a commodious and comfortable building for a Summer theater and the season will be opened by this troupe.

Refreshments of all kinds will be obtainable, but no intoxicating liquors will be served under any consideration.

We all love, and are proud of our soldier boys: but, "my Heaven!" every body is tired, disgusted and sick of the daily statement, that the Caddo and Trezevant Rifles are constantly drilling, and ready to march at a moment's notice. It is all true: but let's give a suffering public a rest.
