MARRIED.

F. Baugess and Dr. A. D. Stroud

On the morning, December 9, at 9 o'clock, M. F. Baugess of Caddo, and Dr. A. D. Stroud of Henderson, Tex., were united in the presence of Rev. J. M. Longwood, La., by Rev. J. M. Longwood, La., in the presence of a gathered and well-wishers.

The bride was exquisitely dainty in a pure white costume of Henrietta cloth, silk and chiffon trimmed with white passementery. She wore white chrysanthemums in her hair.

The bridesmaids wore pink unvelvet dresses, trimmed in white silk, and white applique lares with pink chrysanthemums in their hair.

The groomsmen wore the regulation black dress suits.

After the ceremony, the organ was played, while the bridal party marched back to the sitting room, and received the congratulations of their friends, who marched in at one door, and out at another and back into the parlor.

There were many beautiful wedding presents, which testified to the bride's popularity.

She is the daughter of J. E. Green, and is a native of Webster parish. She has won many admirers by her handsome personal grace, tact and charm of manner.

The handsome groom is a native of Bellevue, La., and is well and favorably known in this section. On the 6th he was given a reception by his aunt, Mrs. J. M. Oclive, at her home, where many of his friends and relatives tendered him and his bride their hearty congratulations, and all were entertained with music and song, and a most excellent supper.

The next day they were cordially received, honored with a dining at the home of his mother and grandfather, Judge L. W. Baker, at Bellevue.

They will reside near Minden, XX.

Green-Baker Wedding at Minden, La.

The marriage of Miss Theodora Green and Mr. Lambert W. Baker, Jr., was solemnized at 3 p. m., Wednesday, the 5th of December, 1900, at the home of the bride, near Minden, La., in the presence of a large company of relatives and friends, the Rev. Mr. Alford officiating.

The attendants were: Miss May Baker, with Mr. Z. P. Green; Miss Ida Green, with Mr. Charles Dickens.

The bride was exquisitely dainty in a pure white costume of Henrietta cloth, silk and chiffon trimmed with white passementery. She wore white chrysanthemums in her hair.

The bridesmaids wore pink unvelvet dresses, trimmed in white silk, and white applique lares with pink chrysanthemums in their hair.

The groomsmen wore the regulation black dress suits.
