Baseballist Fatally Hurt.

Chicago, May 12.—A dispatch to the Chronicle from Springfield, O., says: "In a baseball game between Cedarville college and Wilberforce university at the Wilberforce grounds, Chas. Glenn, center fielder for the Cedarville team, was fatally injured. A short fly was struck and the short stop and center fielder both made a rush to get it. Neither saw the other and they collided with great force, both being knocked unconscious for a few minutes. Glenn's skull was fractured, while Claude Phillips, the short stop, has an ugly gash over the eye."

Police Chiefs in Session.

New Orleans, May 13.—The International Association of Chiefs of Police have opened a four days' session here. Major Richard Sylvester of Washington, D. C., president, called the association to order. The attendance is large. Mayor Capdeville welcomed the visitors and extended to them the hospitality of the city. The first session was largely of a routine character. An elaborate series of entertainments have been arranged by the local police department. Many of the chiefs are accompanied by their wives.

Final Day's Session.

Atlanta, Ga., May 13.—The final day's session of the National Conference of Charities and Correction began with Mrs. Alice N. Lincoln of Boston presiding. The topics were: "Disease and Dependence," "Housing and Sanitary Inspection." The principal address was given by Homer Folks, commissioner of charities, New York City. Dr. D. J. McMahon of New York spoke on "Accidents and Fruitful Occupations as Causes of Dependence." During the afternoon sectional meetings were resumed.

Killed the Attackers.

Manila, May 13.—Struggling Moros attacked the rear guard of Captain Pershing's column near Cacoled, island of Mindanao, Saturday, wounding Lieutenant Rutledge and one soldier. The guard killed the attackers. The latest reports place the number of Moros killed at the capture of Taracas at 300. Brigadier General Sumner, commanding the department of Mindanao, has issued a congratulatory order to Captain Pershing's troops.

Another Sensation.

Birmingham, Ala., May 13.—As a result of alleged portages in Birmingham cotton shipments, that were exploded some twenty or thirty days ago, another sensation happened Monday when two English and two American creditors filed a petition in the United States court, praying that Smith & Coughlan, local brokers, be placed in involuntary bankruptcy. The petition also asks that a receiver be appointed.

Professor Plute Felled.

San Jose, Cal., May 13.—Clay Taylor, alias Professor Plute, was arrested for supposed designs on the life of President Roosevelt. He has served three terms in prison. It is alleged that he wrote to the president advising him not to come to San Jose. He is also accused of recent anarchistic utterances.

PRACTICALLY READY
Preparations About Completed For Confederate Reunion.
PLENTY PROVISIONS.
The Heralds Who Are to Ride at the Head of the Procession Have Signified Their Acceptance Except From Territory.

New Orleans, May 13.—Everything is now practically in shape for the Reunion. Auditorium quarters for veterans and arrangements for feeding them are virtually ready. The great betting ring at the fair grounds will be their dining room and tents in field provided with plank floors and excelsior mattresses. The committee bought 5000 blankets and an equal number of cots which will be placed in the Gasquet building and Old Hotel Royal which will accommodate 5000-6000 men in the sleeping quarters. The entertainment of veterans who are to be fed will begin with the breakfast Tuesday morning, the 18th. Ample provisions have been ordered to supply every want.
General Gordon, commander of the Tennessee division, has written there will be 545 men in uniformed companies from various cities of that state. They will bring guns and blankets. It is hoped as many organized companies as can will bring blankets.
The attendance will be enormous. There will be about 5000 from Tennessee, 5000 from Arkansas, 25,000 to 40,000 from Mississippi, 12,000 to 20,000 from Texas, etc. Of course, Louisiana will have vast numbers. Governor C. R. Terrell of Tennessee, and Governor Terrell of Georgia, will be here with large numbers of members of their staffs. Judge J. S. Reagan, the sole survivor of President Davis' cabinet, will come with the Texas Sons of Veterans, and will be shown special honors. Mrs. Stonewall Jackson will be here with Judge and Mrs. Geo. L. Christian of Richmond.

Heralds from all states who will ride in the decorated coach at the head of the parade bearing banners of their divisions, all have accepted except the Indian Territory herald, who will soon be appointed. They are: Virginia, Miss Eunice Michte of Charlottesville; Maryland, Miss Willie Henry of New Orleans; North Carolina, Miss Julia Alexander of Charlotte; South Carolina, Miss M. Earl Waterous of Columbia; Tennessee, Miss Elizabeth Vance of Memphis; Georgia, Miss Francis Meldrum of Savannah; Alabama, Miss Willie Browning Haralson of Montgomery; Mississippi, Miss Elizabeth Sara Silvey of Jackson; Missouri, Miss Elliott Todhunter of Lexington, Florida, Miss Elizabeth Legere Fleming of Jacksonville; Texas, Miss Betelle Cartwright of Terrell; Arkansas, Miss Beattie Rogers of Fort Smith; Kentucky, Miss Madeline Bridgeston of Louisville; Louisiana, Miss Beattie Utz of Shreveport. The sponsor for New Orleans to accompany heralds is Miss Myrtle Stauffer and the chaperone is Mrs. N. C. Blanchard, wife of Justice Blanchard of the supreme court.

AT EDINBURGH.

King Edward and Queen Alexandra Are Warmly Greeted There.
Edinburgh, May 13.—The city of Edinburgh is in holiday attire and immense crowds of people warmly greeted King Edward and Queen Alexandra as they proceeded from Dalkeith castle to Holyrood palace, where they held court and levee, the first of such functions to be held in the historic palace for eighty years. On their arrival at the palace the king and queen received a number of public addresses. Presentations to their majesties followed.

For Boer Colony.

New York, May 13.—General Benjamin Viljoen, former assistant commander general of the Burgher forces in the Boer war and a member for Johannesburg in the Transvaal Volksraad, and General Synman, a Boer commander, have arrived in this city from Mexico after completing arrangements with the Mexican government by which 83,000 acres of the best land of that country had been secured for a home for immigrants from South Africa. General Synman will await here the arrival of his family, and General Viljoen will sail for South Africa on May 17 to conduct the first expedition to the new country.
"I expect," said General Viljoen, "to bring fully fifty families immediately and that others will follow soon. Fully 1000 families will join the movement to seek freedom on this continent."

Red Men in Session.

Austria, May 13.—The city is filled with Red Men in attendance on the eighth grand sun carnival, the fires of which have been lighted. Delegates from all over Texas are on hand. The exercises are being held at the Hancock opera house. J. W. Shumate delivered the address of welcome in behalf of the mayor of Austin. Grand Sachem Henderson of Breunham responded.

Mayor appointed.

Philadelphia, May 13.—Mayor Weaver faintly before 3 guests at a banquet of the Methodist Social Union and remained unconscious for about ten minutes.

Relative to a Lottery.

Havana, May 13.—The senate is considering a proposition for a government lottery as a substitute for the tax levied on sugar, tobacco, liquors and matches under the new soldiers' pay law.
