CAN A CHINESE MARRY A NEGRO?

"Can a Chinaman marry a negro woman?" was the query submitted by a deputy clerk of the district court Friday afternoon to District Attorney Land for official decision. "He can; there is no law against it," was the reply. A Caucasian could not obtain a license to marry a negro or a descendant of an African. A Caucasian is a white man; a Chinese is a Mongolian. The law is operative in all cases where the man or woman is of the Caucasian race. Of the five races the Caucasian is the superior, the race which dominates the other four races.

The legal license in this instance was issued to Wash Lee to marry Kiala Shafter.

JASTREMSKI FOR GOVERNOR.

The candidacy of General Leon Jastremski for governor has been announced publicly. It has some significance from the general's connection with the Governor and his administration. General Jastremski has not yet taken the dear good people into his confidence by lining up for or against the machine. In General Jastremski in favor of the return to the people of all the power vested in the governor by appointment?

Postmasters Responsible.

Bowling Green, Ky., May 23.—Judge Walter Evans in the United States court here ruled that a man in charge of a postoffice must pay to the government any amount or amounts burglarized may steal from the office. This decision is considered important, as establishing the liability of postmasters for funds and supplies which are lost by reason of burglary or other cause.

PARADE MOST NOTABLE

Ten Thousand Men Marched Along Streets of Crescent City.

STRAINS OF LONG AGO

It Was a Day Such as New Orleans Has Never Seen Before and Revived Memories of Stirring Days of Confederacy.

New Orleans, May 23.—To New Orleans was revealed Friday what no man has seen for two score years and more. For a few brief hours she held close to her heart the incarnate spirit of the Confederacy, and for her it lived and breathed again. Always hers to love, it was Friday hers to have and hers to hold. Once more she pressed to her lips the white-stuffed cross of blue on the crimson field and flung it to the winds that loved it well, the symbol of the cause for which the heroes fought, and by whose blood it was purged and sanctified.

Again the martial airs of forty years ago were born upon the breeze; again the streets were trod by men of war; again the cheers for the marching host rang high, and again the echoes returned the "rebel yell," that southern cadence of the fighting cry of the fighting Anglo-Saxon race, that never for a thousand years has suffered any save the dead of an alien breed to sleep upon a battlefield.

It was a day such as New Orleans has never seen before, such as she may never see again. It was a revelation, in passionate patriotism, and to the old soldiers of the south an offering of affection that was closely akin to worship.

At the head of the column came General J. B. Levert of New Orleans, the chief marshal, with his numerous staff, all beautifully mounted and presenting a brave appearance in gray and gold.

The scarlet uniforms of the Memphis bugle corps were seen ahead of Company A of the Confederate veterans of Memphis, whose splendid marching induced great applause.

Behind Company A came a beautifully decorated float upon which were seated the sixteen heralds of the reunion, Miss Eunice Michie of Virginia, Miss Willie Henry of Louisiana, for Maryland, Miss Julia Alexander of North Carolina, Miss M. E. Watrous of South Carolina, Miss Elise Vance of Tennessee, Miss Frances Meldrim of Georgia, Miss Willie Haralson of Alabama, Miss Ethel Syvely of Mississippi, Miss Elliott Tod Hunter of Missouri, Miss Elizabeth Fleming of Florida, Miss Estelle Cartwright of Texas, Miss Bessie Rogers of Arkansas, Miss Madaline Bridgford of Kentucky, Miss Bessie Uitz of Louisiana and Miss Bennetta Coleman of Indian Territory. The young ladies, all in white, presented a beautiful picture, surrounded by the gray decorations of their float, and no feature of the parade with the one exception of the old soldiers brought forth as much applause.

Following the young ladies were carriages in which rode Mrs. Stonehall Jackson, Mrs. E. Kirby Smith, Mrs. Braxton Bragg, Mrs. Thomas J. Semmes and Mrs. John H. Reagan. Judge Reagan was in one of the carriages with two of the ladies. There were many other notables, including Generals A. P. Stewart and Joe Wheeler. Following General S. D. Lee of the department of the Tennessee were the divisions of his department, Louisiana, Tennessee, Alabama, Florida, Mississippi, Georgia and Kentucky.

General Cabell of the Transmississippi department headed the last division of the old soldiers, and with him were the men of Texas, Indian Territory, Arkansas and Oklahoma. With each department was a carriage containing the sponsor and her maids of honor.

The Sons of Veterans were quite strongly represented, and the parade was closed by a long line of carriages containing the ladies of various memorial and patriotic societies.

About 10,000 men were in line, and it was just four hours from the start on Canal street until the column disbanded.

General Gordon's condition is not serious, but it was deemed unwise for him to ride in the hot sun. He believes that a short rest at home will soon restore his health.

MEETS A TEXAN.

Otto Winter was invited to the Platform by the President.

Tacoma, Wash., May 23.—Under a favorable blue sky, the president's train rolled into the Northern Pacific station Friday afternoon. A multitude thronged the streets about the station and rent the air with cheers.

While the drive about the city was progressing the crowd thronged Wright park, where the president was to address the people. About the grand stand were passed the G. A. R. and Spanish-American war veterans. Cheering and college yells burst forth as the president stepped on the platform and was introduced by Mayor Campbell. Looking down at the Spanish-American veterans, the president said he understood a man who was in his regiment in Cuba was on the ground and he invited him to come upon the platform.

Mayor Campbell then presented Otto Winter, who was a Texas trooper in the Cuban campaign.

MILLER LET OUT.

He Was Also Arrested at Washington and Placed Under Bond.

Washington, May 27.—Postmaster Daniel W. Miller, assistant attorney in the office of the assistant attorney-general for the postoffice department, for accepting a bribe in connection with the case of John J. Ryan & Co., a trust investment concern, charged with fraudulent use of the mails.

Another warrant has been issued for the arrest of a man who is charged with being the partner or go-between in the transaction. The bribe is alleged to have been accepted at Cincinnati last December.

Miller came here from Terre Haute, Ind., about two years ago. He was appointed by Former Assistant Attorney-General James N. Tyner. The charge against Miller has been under investigation for three months. Miller was taken to the city hall and placed under arrest by a deputy marshal. He waived examination and was released court in Cincinnati next autumn. The warrant, it was learned, charges conspiracy instead of bribery, as at first reported. A warrant on the same charge has been issued for the arrest of Joseph M. Johns, lawyer, of Rockville, Ind.

DEEPLY TOUCHED.

President Is Pleased With the Action of McKinley's Home County.

Walla Walla, Wash., May 27.—Secretary to the President Loeb gave out the following statement:

"In speaking of the sudden political developments in Ohio the president this afternoon said: 'I have not asked any man for his support. I have nothing whatever to do with raising the issue as to my indorsement. Sooner or later it was bound to rise, and inasmuch as it has arisen, of course those who favor my administration and nomination will indorse them, and those who do not will oppose them.'"

The president also stated he was deeply touched by the action of President McKinley's home county, in which Canton is situated, in instructing so heartily in his favor. Nothing could have pleased him more.

SOLDIER STABBED.

Trouble Caused About Remarks Regarding Negro's White Wife.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., May 27.—George Engle, a private in Company A, First United States Infantry, stationed at Fort Brady, is in a serious condition from a stab wound inflicted by Larry Oliver, of this city. Oliver, who has a white wife, was walking home with her when several soldiers from the fort followed them, making remarks about the couple. Oliver claims that finally three of them jumped on him. In the fight that followed, Oliver says he saw Engle put his hand in his pocket, as if to draw a revolver and he thereupon pulled out a knife and stabbed the soldier several times.

TRYING TO INDICT

Special Grand Jury of Jackson County.

Jackson, Ky., May 27.—While the special grand jury is still sitting in session to indict the assassins of Major Coker, H. and Cox, members of the militia sent here to preserve order and scouring the country in an effort to bring together witnesses and bring them to indict Monday evening. A grand jury of six men, in charge of Lieutenant Tom Craig of Louisville, an officer of the artillery company, is accompanying

CURTIS JETT.

Special. Charles T. Little left Winchester to bring Curtis Jett, who was arrested there and confined in the county jail. While on Monday Jett, jointly with Curtis Jett for the murder of J. B. Marcum, it is stated that Leslie county, it has gone to the home of his mother, Mrs. Leslie county, some forty miles distant.

The grand jury will ask for the forced attendance of Captain John Patrick, Moses Felner, Tom Cockerill and James Cockerill, who have witnessed the assassination. Town Marshal James Cockerill and Felner have affidavits stating that certain officers had hired four men to assassinate James B. Marcum.

Tom Cockerill, who is the young brother of the Cockerill faction, is wanted to tell about the assassination of Dr. Coker. It being stated that he knows the names of all the men who were in the stable at the time.

Mountaineers Monday night attacked the soldiers and there was a commotion of war to ask for more troops. It is reported here that Curtis Jett has made a confession that implicates prominent persons.

Extra precautions have been taken to protect B. J. Ewin. He is guarded constantly by a strong detail. His testimony before the grand jury caused the indictments of Jett and White. There was a hostile move made against him Monday in the courthouse by officers and soldiers, who all gave details. Belvin Ewin fears for his life. His family is greatly alarmed.

BRAVE OFFICERS.

Badly Burned in Their Efforts to Save Remains of Burning House.

New York, May 27.—Prompt and heroic work by two policemen, one of whom was so badly burned that he was crazed by pain, saved the lives of several women and children, who had been caught in a burning building in Flatbush, Brooklyn. When the police and firemen reached the scene women and children were at the windows of the building calling for help. Policemen William McAuley entered the building and on the top floor found Mrs. Howard Murray unconscious. He carried her to a window and then succumbed, having been burned about the face and hands. The pain from his burns caused him and he had to be placed in a straightjacket at the hospital. In the meantime policemen and firemen rescued other women and children who were asleep when the fire broke out.
