MEETING OF CATTLEMEN

Large Attendance at the City of Fort Worth.

PRaised BY MR. ANDREWS

Thirty-Third Annual Convention of the Cattle Raisers' Association was called to order Tuesday in Byers' opera house by President H. T. Pryor.

Fort Worth, March 18.—The thirty-third annual convention of the Texas Cattle Raisers' association was called to order Tuesday in Byers' opera house by President H. T. Pryor.

Major Harris, Captain B. B. Padock and Hon. T. T. Andrews delivered addresses of welcome and Hon. W. W. Turney of El Paso responded.

The annual reports of the president and executive committee showed the association to be in splendid condition.

In his address Hon. T. T. D. Andrews, manager of the Fort Worth Stock show, who made a welcome address for the Feeders and Breeders' association, said among other things: "The cattle raisers have become such an important factor in civilization that legislatures have listened to their counsels and senators have obeyed their will."

Numbers of new members were admitted and reception committees appointed.

HUNDREDS ENDORSE THOMAS.

Court House at Sulphur Springs is Crowded to Hear Former Senator. Sulphur Springs, Tex., March 18.—Every available foot of space was occupied by men and ladies to hear Hon. H. Bascom Thomas, expelled from the senate, who announced his candidacy for re-election.

Mr. Thomas reviewed at some length the charges he made as to violations of the anti-lobby law, the committee investigations and his ultimate expulsion.

Lieutenant Governor Davidson came in for a severe arraignment. In concluding, he said:

"Tonight I stand before you, expelled from the state senate just as half my time had expired. I was elected on an anti-graft platform, and in fulfilling my pledges to you for which I was elected, I come again as a candidate, advocating the same principles and without a blush of shame for my conduct." (Applause.)

Resolutions endorsing his nomination and election were then unanimously adopted.

Roach Nominated.

Mount Pleasant, Tex., March 18.—At a mass meeting held at the court house Hon. L. B. Roach, formerly representative from Titus county, was nominated by acclamation to make the race for senator from this district to succeed Bascom Thomas. M. G. Black and John B. Stephens both declined to enter the race.

SIGNS MANY BILLS.

Governor Campbell Affixes His Signature to Thirty-Six.

Austin, March 18.—Governor Campbell Tuesday signed thirty-six bills. Most important were the joint resolutions providing that the people by election voice their sentiments as to whether or not they wish certain amendments to the constitution. Among these resolutions providing for such elections was the house resolution amending Sec. 3, Art. vii of the constitution, regarding the formation and taxing power of school districts, the house joint resolution amending Sec. 51, Art. iii of the constitution so as to authorize the granting of aid in the establishment of a home for Confederate widows, the house joint resolution amending Art. vii of the constitution by adding Sec. 3, validating school district and other bonded indebtedness of the school districts, the same being declared void by the decision of the supreme court in the Baird case, and the senate joint resolution authorizing the incorporation of all cities and towns whose population exceeds 2,500 by a special act.

JUDGE TUCKER EXPIRES.

Falls From Chair and Passes Away in Couple of Hours.

Dallas, March 18.—Hon. Charles Fred Tucker, former judge of the Fourteenth and Forty-fourth district courts, fell from a chair at his residence Tuesday night and expired in two hours. Up to a short time before he was stricken he seemed in good health. He was one of the best known attorneys of Dallas, a resident about thirty-five years, and a high degree Mason and also a Knight of Pythias.

Confederates Invite President.

Paris, Tex., March 18.—At a meeting of Albert S. Diney Johnson camp of United Confederate Veterans resolutions were adopted expressive of appreciation of the kindly feeling expressed by President Taft for southern people and inviting him to be the guest of honor when he visits Texas.

PLUCKY TEXAS LADY.

Prevents Negro From Snatching Her Purse.

Washington, March 18.—Near the Lennox apartment house, where she is stopping, Miss Pearl White of Lancaster, Tex., was attacked by a negro. He seized her purse, but Miss White held on tenaciously and fought off the assailant, at the same time calling to a man across the street for help. The negro fled. The man to whom Miss White appealed for aid was apparently afraid to interfere and hastily set off in another direction.

Miss White came to Washington with her brother to see the inauguration, and remained here visiting a niece who is attending school.

On the detailed description furnished by Miss White the police arrested a negro who was identified as the party.

WYCLIFFS FREE.

Judge Pritchett Instructs Jury to Return Verdict of Acquittal.

Tablequah, Okla., March 18.—Tom John Wycliffe, full-blooded Cherokee, alleged outlaw who scouted for years in the Cherokee hills and was charged with taking part in a pitched battle near Caney, Kan., March 11, 1906, when Deputy United States Marshal Ike Gilstrap was killed, were acquitted of the charge of murder in the district court.

The defense offered no testimony. After the state rested its case Judge Pritchett instructed the jury to return a verdict of not guilty on the ground that the state did not clearly identify Tom Wycliffe as a participant in the pitched battle in which Gilstrap was killed. County Attorney Coppedge of Delaware county then asked that John Wycliffe be released on the same grounds, and the case against him was dismissed.

The result brought a loud demonstration from friends of the Wycliffes, who crowded the court room.

CHILD ASSAULTED.

Miscreant Who Did the Deed Either Mexican or Negro.

West, Tex., March 18.—The twelve-year-old daughter of W. T. Simonson, on her way to school at the little village of Tokio, a flag station on the Texas and Pacific railroad, thirteen miles north of Waco and five miles west of this city, was assaulted by what the little girl says was either a negro or a Mexican.

It seems that the girl, after the assault, was left in a helpless condition, but after several hours was able to make her way to the school house, where she told of the outrage. The news was quickly sent to West with the request that a doctor come at once. Drs. Gidney and Thomas went at once to the scene of the trouble.

Deputy sheriffs from both Waco and Hillsboro started in pursuit of the man. Posses also went.

To Create New County.

Cushing, Okla., March 18.—The effort to create a new county out of parts of Lincoln, Logan, Payne and Oklahoma counties is being revived under the direction of those persons who hope to see Fallis become a county seat. The proposed county is to meet the requirements as to area, population and valuation, and petitions are to be circulated asking that an election be called.

Pass Christian, Miss., March 18.—Two unknown white men attempted to assassinate Mayor J. A. Adams. One of the men was bending over Mayor Adams with an upraised knife when Mrs. Adams awoke and screamed. The men were frightened off and escaped.

Fatal Explosion in Mine.

McAlester, Okla., March 18.—An explosion occurred in Reid mine No. 1 at Adamson. A shot firer named George Petri was killed and the mine set on fire. It is supposed the explosion was caused by a "windy" or imperfectly tamped shot.

Alexandria, La., March 18.—Saying his conscience hurt him so badly as to force him to surrender, E. R. May, wanted for forgery at Mountain Grove, Mo., walked into the sheriff's office here and gave himself up. He was taken back to Missouri.

Robbed of Valuables.

Fort Worth, March 18.—L. M. Bibby of Tyler reported to the police that he had been robbed of a diamond stud valued at $200 and a ring-valued at $350.

SCHOOL BOOKS

As Usual Changes Are Made in the Books to Be Used During the Next Four Years.

There was held yesterday in Baton Rouge a lively session of the Board of Education at which were present Governor Sanders, State Superintendent Harris, Attorney General Guion, D. C. Scarborough, E. L. Kidd, A. Britton, Emile Godchaux, Walter J. Burke and S. B. McLaurison, and the swarm of book agents who are in evidence every four years.

With a single exception the board accepted the recommendation of the special committee comprising Superintendent Harris, Institute Conductor Allen and Mr. Weber of the high school.

There appeared before the board a committee of New Orleans educators, Superintendent Warren Easton, President Kronenberg, Mr. Speakin and Mr. Loeb. This committee's desire was expressed in the fact that they wished to be relieved of the control of the State Board of Education in the selection of books for the public schools. In brief, New Orleans wants to select its own books without any reference to the State Board. They received little encouragement.

It is reported there was a change of about forty per cent of the books used. This change every four years is not anticipated with relish by the parents and guardians who must provide the books at considerable outlay, but the agents are generally more successful in obtaining these changes than the people in their opposition.

What do the people know of books, and why should their objection to these changes be heeded? If there were no changes in books how could the book manufacturers thrive, and how could the book agents "hold on to their jobs?"

It is claimed that the "dear good people" will be saved money in the books selected, which are cheaper in their cost.

There was strong objection raised against the adoption of "Meyer's Ancient, Medieval and Modern History," which deals in religious subjects which should be eliminated from the public schools. There should be engendered no strife in the public schools over the issue of creeds or of religious questions, nor should there be sectional histories, such as have been used in the public schools of Louisiana and of the South wherein the Confederate Cause is discredited and its leaders are branded as rebels and traitors. Of recent years these distortions of history have been checked and practically eliminated by a committee of Confederate Veterans with Attorney General Guion as its chairman, who with his committee has been zealous in his examination of the books offered, a number of which have been rejected as they should have been.

THE "NEW WOMAN"

Thinks She Has Just as Much Right to Be at the Head of an Establishment as a Man.

Lottie Aite Weir in the New Orleans States declares that "the 'new woman' thinks she has just as much right to be at the head of an establishment as the man has. She has the same right to go where and when she pleases unaccompanied and unobserved."

"And why not, if she possesses a man's ability to manage and direct the business successfully?"

"She finds that this is just as good if not better than little jannits with an ardent suitor," says Lottie Aite Weir.

"What can the ardent suitor do for her that she can do for herself?"

"That is the question that assails the mind of the modern girl, and it can be answered almost in one word—nothing. The only avenue that is now left open for him is to promise to give up smoking or to pass up a dear friend when invited to join him in a 'smile.'"

"It is sad to think that all the great deeds that used to win a lady's heart are degenerated into such paltry affairs as giving up a favorite vice, or contracting others to please the lady."

"With the rise of the 'new woman' the occupation of the lover is gone. He can no longer exhibit his ability to protect her as an asset in winning her affections. She can probably do the same; physique, no longer awes the lady of his dreams and his vows of constantly overcoming obstacles for her sake are less than nothing in making her look kindly on his suit. In permitting women to educate themselves up to the standard of men, they are shown that man as an institution is of course a pretty good thing, but, again, they are taught that they can get along without him indefinitely, as they are as well equipped to meet the world as he."

"Man can offer them nothing that they can not get for themselves, and as matters stand the 'new woman' will not permit herself the luxury of even a prosaic love."

THE GRAND JURY.

The Jury Commissioners have been summoned to convene to draw twenty names of qualified citizens from which the grand jury is to be selected, and also to draw a venire for two weeks service of the criminal term for the two weeks beginning on the 19th day of April and ending on Saturday, May 1.
