THE PRESIDENT'S TRIP.

President Taft has started on his Western and Southern trip. In the course of his journey he will come down the Mississippi river where he will be received with acclaim at all big cities and towns. On his arrival and during his stay in New Orleans he will be greeted with greetings and welcomes such as the citizens of New Orleans know how to give.

During his journey on the Mississippi President Taft will be escorted by three vessels of the Federal fleet.

What a trip? President Taft has been the world over but the assertion is ventured that he will become the gainer of much valuable information from his personal contact with the people of the Western and the Southern States.

While West he may be pined with queries connected with the tariff and Republican legislation, but as President is a big man he will stand the test well.

From his view of the Mississippi he will, it is to be hoped, be impressed with the needs of improvement of this great artery of commerce, this national waterway to the Gulf.

Great as was the importance of the Mississippi during the conflict between the States in the sixties, its magnitude today as a commerce developer can scarcely be estimated. And with the completion of the Panama Canal this waterway will develop into a commercial magnitude which may astound the world.

NEWS AND NOTES

Items of Interest Gathered by a Caucasian Representative.

Monroe has distanced all of the cities of America in the matter of municipal ownership of public utilities. Three years ago the first car on the first municipality owned and operated electric street railway of the United States was run over the Monroe municipal street railway. Since that time the system has been in successful and profitable operation, giving universal satisfaction and being the pride and boast of every citizen. In addition to the street railway, Monroe owns and operates its water and light plant, sewerage system, free traffic bridge across the Ouachita, a public market, the finest in the State, and maintains its public schools independent of State or parish aid. The school building is the handsomest in the State, or the South, and cost $85,000. Twenty-two thousand dollars is annually expended in the education of the children.

To Mayor A. A. Forsythe more than to any other man or set of men is due the growth and consummation of municipal ownership in Monroe. He went into office in 1898 on a platform of public improvement, calling for the modernization of Monroe. In that year a new State Constitution was adopted in which an act was incorporated authorizing municipalities to issue bonds for public improvements, and under and through his initiative Monroe was the first city in the State to take advantage of that portion of the Constitution and an issue of $155,000 was voted. Up to this time the only public utilities enjoyed were water and lights under private ownership. The service was indifferent, but the franchise was paid handsomely, and here began the campaign for municipal ownership. The policy of the Mayor is to use the net earnings for betterment and expansion and to add other utilities with the ultimate end in view, when all the needed institutions are acquired, to reduce the cost to consumers to the minimum, the true principle of municipal ownership being the best service possible and the lowest cost possible.—Souvenir Catalogue Monroe Fair.

THE MONROE FAIR.

Monroe is to have a big fair from October 5 to 9 inclusive. The souvenir catalogue gives full particulars. A board of lady managers has charge of the ladies departments. Mrs. G. B. Cooley is chairman. Mrs. H. D. King is superintendent; Mrs. T. E. Flournoy of the culinary department; Mrs. W. E. Allen and Mrs. G. F. Moore superintendents of the floral department. There is also an odd ladies department of which Mrs. T. L. Morris is superintendent and children's department with Mrs. H. D. Appar in charge. Monroe's fair will be well worth attending, and Secretary Brueggerhoff will have an eye to securing its best exhibits for the State Fair at Shreveport, November 1 to 6.

BEREAVEMENT.

The very distressing news of the death of Mr. Leon H. March at Covington, La., was received Friday. With the hope of restoring to comparative health his impaired constitution, Mrs. March moved with her family to Covington a week ago. There unexpectedly the end came to a young life dear to many.

Leon March was the only son of Mrs. Ida March of this city. Bereaved in the past few years of another dear son, Sidney March, and of a devoted husband, the loss of this only son, the support, comfort and protection of her family, is a deep and inconsolable grief. A young man of fine sturdy habits of character, kind and considerate of others, a devoted son and brother, his death is greatly deplored. The deepest sympathy is extended the bereaved mother and sisters, Misses Theresa and Hannah March.

The remains reached Shreveport Saturday and were received by sorrowing friends. Interment today in Hebrew Rest.

SHREVEPORT SCHOOL OF MUSIC.

Prof. and Mrs. E. H. R. Flood have opened their School of Music at their residence on Fairfield avenue. With these thorough and accomplished musicians in charge excellent work will be done, and Shreveport's rank as a musical center maintained.

DEPARTURES.

Ambitious sweet girl graduates are turning from pleasure's call and departing for college. Among those who left during the week are Miss Annie Leigh Frierson, last season's graduate of the high school, for Buford College, Nashville. On Saturday, leaving for Randolph-Macon College, Lynchburg, Va., were Misses Pearl Dillon, Annie Linn and Margery Fields, high school graduates; and bearing out the record of the past only golden opinions will be won by these bright ambitious girls.

OFF FOR THE L. S. U.

Our splendid State University will have its quota of students as usual from Shreveport. Some are returning and other entering. Among the departures the past week are Andrew Querbes, Jack Murff, Montgomery Martin, Fred Dilzell, Garland Latta, Crea Pugh, Howard Hargrove. New students who accompanied them are two bright boys from St. John's College, Justin Querbes and Alfred Purnell. To the credit of the Shreveport boys and of the University good reports of conduct and class work come home, which makes them most desirable students. A Shreveport boy is always cordially received at the L. S. U.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. H. C. Rogers left Friday for New Orleans where she was joined by her daughter Miss Julia Rogers who will again have charge of the classes in expression of the girl's high school of New Orleans. Miss Rogers is one of the talented young women of the South. Her line of work is high and beautiful, and she means much more to a school than merely an instructor. A broad, sympathetic point of view, intelligence and interest in her work enables her to accomplish more than the average teacher. In appreciation of what she has done, Superintendent Easton again tendered her the position she filled, so acceptably last term.

A SUMMER MOOD.

Oh, to be lost in the wind and sun,
To be one with the wind and stream,
With never a care while the waters run,
With never a thought in my dream.
To be part of the robin's lilting sell
And a part of the bobolink's rhyme,
Lying close to the sly thrush singing alone
And lapped in the cricket's crime!

Oh, to live with these beautiful ones,
With the lust and the glory of morn,
Lost in the circuit of springtime suns—
To lie as the snake lies, content in the grass;
To drift as the clouds drift, effortless,
free,
Glad of the power that drives them on,
With never a question of wind or sea.
—Hamlin Garland.

SOUVENIRS OF TRAVEL.

Our prized possession is a beautiful souvenir booklet of the city of Denver from Mr. and Mrs. August Erickson who spent the summer in Colorado. With cover of dull brown and pale blue fastened with silk cord, one opens it with expectations of delight. The printing is artistic and the hundred views look like etchings. Accompanying this acceptable gift was a paper weight of clear crystal showing bits of mineral, goldstone, agates, pyrites, rose quartz, show their beauty through the flawless glass. A most acceptable and highly gift for my desk.

THE WOMANS DEPARTMENT.

The catalogue of the State Fair has a long list in the womans department. Hundreds of dollars will be paid out in premiums. The premiums range from $1 to $5 and every line of beautiful work is covered. Special old ladies and juvenile departments carry a good line of premiums. And the culinary department is well covered with premiums. Now is the time to get ready for the Fair.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Dennis Ricou and children who have enjoyed the summer on the gulf coast, reached home Thursday. Mr. Ricou joined his family the last week of their stay and returned with them.

Mr. and Mrs. August Erickson are at home again after a delightful two months stay in Colorado. Their son, Mr. Clarence Erickson has decided to remain in Denver for the winter and take up special studies in medicine.

Mr. Willis Butler, Vanderbilt student of medicine, left during the week for Nashville where he will begin his third year's work.

Miss Suddath a valued member of the faculty of Parkview public school is pleasantly situated with Mrs. L. K. Ridley on Milan street.

Mrs. Mattie Ford, who has spent the summer on the lake coast, has returned and will be with Mrs. E. D. C. Marshall on Market street for the winter.

After a delightful summer spent in Virginia and North Carolina, Mrs. H. T. Griffin and little son Hardin are at home again at 622 Jordan street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Paty are still at Sulphur Springs, Ark., where Mr. Paty is recuperating from an attack of fever.

Miss Lillian Ponder, who was the guest of her grandmother last week is visiting friends at Boyce. Miss Ponder is an accomplished violinist, having graduated last spring from the Conservatory of Music in San Antonio. She will probably arrange for classes this winter at Boyce.

Mrs. James Cox who has enjoyed the summer in Colorado has returned home. Miss Fortson, member of faculty Annex public school, returned Friday from Chicago where she enjoyed six weeks study at the university, taking special work in English. Traveling with Miss Fortson from Chicago to Shreveport was Miss Creighton, the new assistant teacher in English of the central school. Miss Creighton came direct from Chicago University where she did special work.

Prof. H. C. Bond, instructor manual training, arrived a week ago and has been busy getting the shop in order.

Mrs. S. H. Bolinger and Miss Isa Bolinger are gladly welcomed home again after a years residence in Colorado. Mrs. Bolinger brings good news of the restored health of her daughter Miss Ursula Bolinger, who has decided to spend the winter in Colorado Springs.

Mrs. W. H. Werner is enjoying a visit from Mrs. J. W. Allen of Denver and her daughter Mildred Allen.

Mrs. T. C. Lewis and son are expected home today.

Mr. J. W. Bell was called to Mer Rouge Thursday by the illness and death of his brother, Mr. W. E. Bell. Sympathy is extended the family and especially the lovely young daughter, Miss Maud Bell, who is well known and loved in Shreveport.

Miss Myra Woodward has returned from a pleasant visit to friends at Washkom.

Miss Schuster enjoyed the last three weeks of vacation visiting her mother and sister in St. Louis and returned home Sunday.

Mr. Frank Grosjean, who spent her vacation in Galveston, has returned home much refreshed by the salt sea air.

JUDGE SORELLE AND THE PROHIBITION LAW.

Mansfield Journal: In the matter of the enforcement of the prohibition law in dry parishes Judge Sorelle wisely takes the position assumed by several other of the district judges of the State, and which position has met the unqualified approval of public sentiment, and that is that the sale of any kind of substitutes or subterfuges is, in spirit at least, a violation of the prohibition law, and the permission of such sales nullifies public sentiment and sets at naught the wishes of the people. This view of the question is not only sound law but is certainly in keeping with the spirit of democratic doctrine, that the majority shall rule, and there is no sort of justice in attempting to override the wishes of the majority in a prohibition parish by the sale of a forbidden beverage under an assumed name. With Judge Sorelle on the bench, the parishes of DeSoto, Sabine and Vernon will be forbidden territory for the aliases.

ST. MARKS EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

Rev. Jos. H. Spearing, Rector—Services today as follows: Holy communion 7:30 a.m.; morning prayer 11 a.m.; evening prayer 8 p.m. Sunday school 9:30 a.m. Regular meeting of Parish Aid Society Monday in build room at 4:30 p.m. Everybody cordially invited to all services. All seats free.

HELL AND GOOD INTENTIONS.

Ruston Leader: It has been said time and again that "hell is paved with good intentions." We do not believe the report. It may be surfaced therewith, but that is extremely doubtful. A fair summary of the evidence leads irresistibly to the conclusion that there is very little if any room in hell for good intentions. It appears to be "clock full" of the other kind. It is graveled, tamped and concreted with low-down, unmitigated meanness of soul, mind and body.

BISHOP McCLOSKEY SINKING.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 16.—The Right Rev. Wm. George McCloskey, Bishop of Louisville and the oldest Catholic prelate in the United States, is seriously ill at his home here. Bishop McCloskey is not suffering from any definite malady, but a steady lessening of the vital forces is perceptible. The bishop was born in Brooklyn eighty-six years ago.

CONCUBINAGE CONVICTIONS.

A few days since two concubinage convictions were secured in New Orleans by Acting District Attorney Henriques. The first case was that of a white woman and a negro, and the second an old white man and a negress. Sentence was reserved in each case.

WELCOME.

The Commoner: The Aldrich bunch of senators is being welcomed home by the representatives of the special interests—while the progressive Republicans are being welcomed by the rank and file. This throws some light on the division in the Republican party.

PERSONAL OPINION?

The Commoner: The language employed by Justice Brewer in denouncing the income tax raises the suspicion that his vote against the income tax when it was before the court was the expression of a personal opinion rather than a judicial decision.

When you are looking for the good kind of stationery, remember that we are still at 517 Edwards street and will print that kind for you.
