

CHARTER OF THE CRAIG OIL COMPANY.

The State of Louisiana, Parish of Caddo: Before me, J. A. Thigpen, notary public in and for the State and parish aforesaid, duly commissioned and sworn, on this day came and appeared the several persons whose names are hereunto subscribed, who declared that they have formed and do hereby form themselves into a body corporate under the laws of the State of Louisiana, and particularly under Act 111 of the General Assembly of 1882, regarding the formation of mining corporations, for the objects and purposes and under the conditions as follows, to-wit:

ARTICLE I.
The name and style of this corporation shall be CRAIG OIL COMPANY, and under said name and style it shall have and enjoy all the rights granted to corporations under the laws of the State of Louisiana, and shall have and enjoy corporate existence for a period of ninety-nine years from the date hereof, as hereinafter provided, unless sooner dissolved under the provisions of the laws of the State of Louisiana, together with the power to have and to use a corporate seal, and the same to make, alter or break at its pleasure.

ARTICLE II.
The domicile of this corporation is hereby fixed in the City of Shreveport, Caddo Parish, Louisiana, where all legal process shall be served in the manner provided by law, upon the president, or in his absence on the vice president, or in the absence of the vice president, at the office of the said corporation as provided by the statutes of this State.

ARTICLE III.
The objects and purposes of this corporation are hereby declared to be the carrying on of a general mining business, to-wit: The acquisition of lands and leases and other property, whether in Louisiana or elsewhere, for the purpose of drilling, mining, boring or exploring thereon for oil, gas and other minerals. And to this end, this corporation shall have and enjoy the rights to acquire, purchase, lease, sub-lease, sell and otherwise acquire and alienate property, real, personal or mixed, and to mortgage, pledge, pawn and otherwise hypothecate said property for the purpose of borrowing or for such other purpose as in the discretion of the board of directors may be proper.

ARTICLE IV.
The capital stock of this corporation is hereby declared to be fifty thousand ($50,000.00) dollars, to be divided into five hundred shares of one hundred dollars each. This stock may be issued either for cash or for property, labor or services purchased by or advanced to said company, and the judgment of the board of directors as to the value of the property, labor or services so taken, shall be conclusive, provided that no stock shall be issued at less than par. This corporation is authorized to commence business whenever one hundred and fifty shares of its capital stock shall have been subscribed and paid for in full. Each share of stock shall be entitled to one vote at all meetings, to be cast in person or by proxy.

ARTICLE V.
The corporate powers of this corporation are hereby declared, except as may be hereafter stipulated, to be vested in and exercised by a board of directors composed of seven directors, which said board shall be elected annually by the said stockholders on the first Monday of May of each year hereafter. The first board of directors, who shall serve until their successors are elected and qualified, are hereby declared to be H. L. Heilperin, L. E. Etchison, George M. Craig, Fred Clark, S. O. Lattimar, W. E. Hall and G. B. Woods. In case of the death or resignation of any of the directors, his successor shall be chosen by the remaining directors. Four (4) directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

ARTICLE VI.
The officers of this corporation shall consist of a president, vice president and secretary-treasurer. The officers shall be elected by the board of directors annually at its regular annual meeting and shall serve until their successors are elected and qualified. The first officers of the corporation, who shall serve until the election of their successors at the regular annual meeting in 1911, and their subsequent qualification, shall be George M. Craig, president; H. L. Heilperin, vice president; and Fred Clark, secretary-treasurer.

ARTICLE VII.
This charter may be amended or the corporation dissolved by consent of three-fourths of the stock thereof at any meeting called for such purpose, after ten days' notice in writing to each of the stockholders thereof, or duly waived. Whenever this corporation shall be dissolved by limitation or otherwise, its affairs shall be liquidated by a commissioner to be elected by the stockholders at the meeting at which the resolution for the dissolution of the corporation shall have been adopted. In the event of the death of such liquidator his successor shall be appointed by the court of proper jurisdiction.

ARTICLE VIII.
No stockholder of this corporation shall ever be held liable for any greater amount than the unpaid balance on his capital stock, and no informalities shall have the effect of rendering this charter null or of exposing any stockholder to any loss beyond the amount of his capital stock.

This done and passed in my office in said Parish and State, in the presence of Isidore Holland and Wheeler Shropshire, competent witnesses, on this the 22nd day of June A. D. 1910.

CHARTER OF McCANN & HARPER DRILLING COMPANY.

State of Louisiana, Parish of Caddo: Be it known, that, before me, E. B. Herndon Jr., a notary public in and for the Parish of Caddo and State of Louisiana, personally came and appeared J. B. McCann, W. H. Harper and Edwin F. Stewart, all residents of Caddo Parish, who declared to me that they do hereby form, for themselves and such others as may hereafter become associated with them, a corporation under the laws of the State of Louisiana for the purposes and objects and under the stipulations and agreements as follows, to-wit:

ARTICLE I.
The name and style of this corporation shall be McCANN & HARPER DRILLING COMPANY, and its domicile shall be in the City of Shreveport, Caddo Parish, Louisiana. All citations and other legal service shall be made on its president, or in the absence of its president, on its vice president or its secretary or treasurer. Under its said name it shall have power and authority to exist and enjoy succession for twenty-five years from and after date hereof.

ARTICLE II.
The objects and purposes for which this corporation is formed and the nature of the business to be carried on by it are hereby declared to be, to drill and explore lands for the purpose of discovering and developing oil and gas and other minerals; to contract for the drilling for oil and gas wells, and to establish or lease pipe lines for the transportation of oil and gas; to purchase all material, machinery and appliances that may be needed to carry on the business of drilling and exploring for oil and gas; to sue and be sued; to borrow money, issue notes and generally to do such things as are incident to the business for which this corporation was formed as hereinbefore stated.

ARTICLE III.
The capital stock of this corporation is hereby fixed at the sum of $25,000.00, divided into 250 shares of the par value of $100.00 each, to be issued for cash paid the corporation or for property conveyed or for services rendered; provided, however, that no stock shall be issued at less than par, and provided further that this corporation may begin business as soon as fifty (50) shares of its capital stock shall have been subscribed and paid for in full, either in cash or its equivalent.

ARTICLE IV.
The corporate powers of this corporation shall be vested in and exercised by a board of directors consisting of three stockholders, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The board of directors shall make all by-laws, rules and regulations for the management of the business and the affairs of the company, and may amend and change the same at pleasure. The board of directors shall elect the officers of this corporation. All vacancies occurring in the board of directors by death, resignation or otherwise, shall be filled by the remaining directors. The first board of directors of this corporation shall consist of J. B. McCann, W. H. Harper and Edwin F. Stewart. W. H. Harper as president, Edwin F. Stewart as vice president and secretary, and J. B. McCann as treasurer, which said board of directors shall remain in office until the first Monday in June 1911, or until their successors shall have been duly elected and qualified. On the first Monday in June 1911, and annually thereafter, an election of directors shall be held at the office of the corporation in the City of Shreveport, Caddo Parish, Louisiana, notice of which said meeting shall be given in any one of the newspapers published in the City of Shreveport, Louisiana, for ten days prior to said meeting. At all stockholders meetings each share of stock shall be entitled to one vote, either in person or by proxy in writing. In the event of the failure to elect directors as specified above, the directors then in office shall serve until their successors shall have been elected, but a meeting for such election may then be held at any time after ten days written notice to each stockholder.

ARTICLE V.
This charter may be modified or amended, except as to increase or decrease of its capital stock, or this corporation may be dissolved with the assent of a majority of the stock at a general meeting of the stockholders convened for such purpose after thirty days notice published in any one of the newspapers published in the City of Shreveport Louisiana.

ARTICLE VI.
Whenever this corporation is dissolved, either by limitation of its charter or any other causes, its affairs shall be liquidated by two commissioners elected by the stockholders at a meeting convened for such purpose after thirty days published notice in any of the newspapers published in the City of Shreveport. In case of the death of either of such liquidators, the other commissioner shall continue to liquidate the affairs until same have been finally closed.

ARTICLE VII.
No stockholder shall be held liable for the contracts or faults of this company in any further sum than the unpaid balance due the company on the shares owned by him, nor shall any informality in organization have the effect of rendering this charter null nor of exposing a stockholder to any liability beyond the amount of his stock.

In testimony whereof, the said parties have hereunto signed their names in the presence of J. H. Nelson and C. C. Miller, competent witnesses, and me, notary public, on this the 24th day of May A. D. 1910.

CHARTER OF THE MINERAL WELLS ELECTRIC COMPANY.

United States of America, State of Louisiana, Parish of Caddo, City of Shreveport: Be it known, that on this the 28th day of May A. D. in the year nineteen hundred and ten, before me, L. C. Blanchard, a notary public, in and for the Parish of Caddo, State of Louisiana, and in the presence of the witnesses hereinafter named and undersigned, personally came and appeared the persons whose names are hereunto subscribed, who severally declared that availing themselves of the provisions of the general laws of the State of Louisiana relative to the organization of corporations for works of public improvement, and for other purposes, they have agreed and by these presents do covenant, agree and bind themselves, and those whom they represent, to form themselves into and constitute a corporation under the following agreements and stipulations, which they hereby adopt as their charter.

ARTICLE I.
The name and title of this corporation shall be MINERAL WELLS ELECTRIC COMPANY, and by that name it shall enjoy succession for the term of ninety-nine (99) years from the date hereof, unless sooner dissolved. It shall have power to sue and be sued; to borrow money, hold, purchase, lease, sell and hypothecate real and personal property, to make and use a corporate seal; to name and appoint directors, managers and agents, and to establish such by-laws, rules and regulations for the management of the business and affairs of the corporation as may be necessary, the same to alter at pleasure. Also to make and issue bonds and other evidences of debt, and to secure same by mortgage or otherwise.

ARTICLE II.
The domicile of this corporation shall be in the City of Shreveport, Parish of Caddo, State of Louisiana, and all citations or other legal process shall be served on the president, or in his absence on the vice president, or in his absence as the law directs.

ARTICLE III.
The objects and purposes for which this corporation is established, and the nature of the business to be carried on by it, are declared and specified to be:
(1) The construction or acquisition and operation of street railways and suburban railways within or near any city, town or village, for the transportation of freight and passengers, and the operation of same with electric or other motive power.
(2) The construction or acquisition and operation of electric plants, for the purpose of the manufacture of electric current, and the sale of same to the public.
(3) The construction or acquisition and the operation of ice and refrigerating plants for the manufacture of ice, and the storage of articles for the public, the doing of all of which things may be done and carried on at any place or places within the limits of the State of Louisiana and Texas.

ARTICLE IV.
The capital stock of this corporation is hereby fixed at the sum of three hundred and fifty thousand ($350,000.00) dollars, divided into thirty-five hundred (3500) shares of the sum of one hundred ($100.00) dollars each; the company to begin operations as soon as one hundred thousand ($100,000.00) dollars shall have been subscribed and paid for. Said stock shall consist of one (1) series, to be known as common stock. Said stock shall be paid for at such times as the board of directors may determine, but any part of same may be issued by said board of directors at not less than the par value thereof, in payment of labor done or property actually received by said corporation. Stock books and stock registers for said stock shall be kept by the corporation.

ARTICLE V.
All of the corporate powers of said corporation shall be vested in and exercised by a board of directors, to be composed of five (5) stockholders, to be elected annually, on the first Monday in July of each year, unless such first Monday shall be the first day of July, in which event said election shall take place on the Tuesday following said first Monday, a majority of which said board shall constitute a quorum at all meetings. All such elections shall take place by ballot, at which each stockholder shall be entitled to cast one (1) vote for each share of stock held by him, and which stockholder shall act either in person or by proxy in writing, and at which a majority of the holders of the stock shall constitute a quorum. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors is to be filled by the remaining directors.

ARTICLE VI.
Whenever this corporation may be dissolved, either by limitation or any other cause, the same shall be liquidated by three (3) stockholders, to be appointed at a general meeting of the stockholders to be convened for such purpose after thirty (30) days previous notice shall have been given by advertising in two or more newspapers, and shall be published in the City of Shreveport, Louisiana, and the City of Fort Worth, Texas, and a majority in amount of the capital stock of said corporation shall be required to elect, each share being entitled to one (1) vote, in person or by proxy. Said commissioners shall remain in office until the affairs of said corporation shall have been fully settled and liquidated; and in case of death of one or more of said commissioners, the vacancy shall be filled by the election of the surviving commissioners.

ARTICLE VII.
This act of incorporation may be modified, changed or altered, or said corporation may be dissolved, with the assent of two-thirds (2/3) of the capital stock represented at any general meeting of the stockholders convened for such purpose, after thirty (30) days previous notice shall have been given in two or more newspapers and shall have been published both in the City of Shreveport, Louisiana, and in the City of Fort Worth, Texas. Any changes which may be proposed or made in reference to the capital stock of said corporation shall be made in accordance with the laws of the State of Louisiana on the subject of the manner of altering the amount of the capital stock of corporations.

ARTICLE VIII.
No stockholder shall ever be held liable or responsible for the contracts or faults of said corporation in any further sum than the unpaid balance due on the shares of stock owned by him; nor shall any mere informality in organization have the effect of rendering a stockholder to any liability beyond the amount due on his stock.

ARTICLE IX.
S. B. Cantey, W. C. Forbes and David T. Bomar, of Fort Worth, Texas, and N. C. Blanchard and Leon R. Smith, of Shreveport, Louisiana, with said S. B. Cantey as president, said N. C. Blanchard as vice president, and W. C. Forbes as secretary, have been chosen and selected as the first board of directors of said corporation, to serve as such until the first Monday in July A. D. 1911, or until their successors shall have been elected.

ARTICLE X.
The board of directors shall have power to establish stock transfer agencies in the cities of Shreveport, Louisiana, New York City, New York, Chicago, Illinois, St. Louis, Missouri, and Fort Worth, Texas, under reasonable rules and regulations.

Thus done and passed in my office in said City of Shreveport, Louisiana, in the presence of C. H. Blanchard and Sydney Smith, competent witnesses of lawful age, both of this city, who hereunto sign their names with said appearers and me, notary, on the day and date aforesaid.
