CHARTER Of the Caddo-Miller Land and Development Company

State of Louisiana, Parish of Caddo: Be it remembered that on this day before me, A. L. Alexander, a notary public in and for said parish and State, duly commissioned and sworn personally came and appeared E. K. Smith and J. D. Wilkinson residents of said parish and State, and W. C. Kuhl, a resident of Texas, Arkansas, State of Texas, who stated and declared to me, notary, that availing themselves of the Constitution and laws of the State of Louisiana, they have formed and constituted themselves, as well as such other persons as may hereafter become associated with them, and do by these presents form and constitute themselves into a corporation and body corporate and have adopted and ordained as their charter and act of incorporation the following, to-wit:

ARTICLE I.
The name and title of this corporation shall be the "Caddo-Miller Land and Development Company" with its domicile at the City of Shreveport, in the Parish of Caddo, State of Louisiana and under its corporate name it shall have and enjoy succession for a period of fifty years unless sooner dissolved as hereinafter provided. All legal process shall be served on the president, or in his absence, on the vice president of the company at the office of the corporation.

ARTICLE II.
This corporation is formed for the purpose and the nature of the business to be conducted by it is hereby declared to be to acquire, lease and own both real and personal property, to reclaim and drain waste or wet lands, to drill, bore and explore for oil, gas or other minerals, and to acquire, lease or own land for such purpose and to build, construct, lease or own pipe-lines, tank cars, or other means of transporting oil, gas or other minerals and to do any and all things in connection with said purposes which may be necessary for the proper operation thereof.

ARTICLE III.
The capital stock of this corporation is hereby fixed at the sum of Five Hundred Thousand Dollars, divided into Five Thousand shares of the par value of One Hundred dollars each, and it shall commence business and become a going concern whenever Five Thousand Dollars of its capital stock is subscribed and paid for in full. Capital stock may be paid for in cash, labor or property at a valuation to be fixed by the Board of Directors and when issued shall be fully paid and non-assessable.

ARTICLE IV.
The affairs of this corporation shall be managed and conducted by a Board of Directors consisting of three stockholders to be elected at a general stockholders' meeting on the third Monday of May of each year, who shall hold their offices for one year, or until their successors are elected and installed and any vacancy occurring in said Board of Directors shall be filled by an election by the Board of Directors of a stockholder for the unexpired term. Until the election on the third Monday in May, 1913, the following shall constitute the Board of Directors of this corporation: E. K. Smith who shall be president; J. D. Wilkinson who shall be vice-president, and W. C. Kuhl who shall be secretary and treasurer. The Board of Directors shall have the right to make and adopt all needful rules, regulations or by-laws and the same to alter or change at pleasure, and to employ or discharge all managers, superintendents, clerks, or other employes as may be needful in the management of the affairs of said corporation.

ARTICLE V.
This charter may be amended, altered or abolished at the vote of three-fourths of the capital stock thereof at a meeting held for that purpose at ten days notice addressed to each stockholder through the United States mails, except when otherwise specially provided by the laws of the State of Louisiana, provided that the stockholders may by unanimous consent waive notice of any meeting. At all stockholders' meetings each share of stock shall be entitled to one vote to be cast by its owner in person or by proxy.

ARTICLE VI.
This corporation shall have power to contract, sue and be sued in its corporate name, to make and use a corporate seal, to hold, receive, purchase and convey, to mortgage, hypothecate and lease under its corporate name both real and personal property and to execute, issue and deliver mortgage notes, mortgage bonds or other obligations secured by mortgage and special hypothecation of its property, rents and revenues and in general to perform any and all acts authorized by corporations under the laws of the State of Louisiana.

ARTICLE VII.
No stockholder shall ever be held liable or responsible for the contract or faults of such corporation in any further sum than the unpaid balance due to the company on the shares owned by him; nor shall any mere informality in organization have the effect of rendering this charter null or of exposing a stockholder to any liability beyond the amount of his stock.

In testimony whereof said parties have hereunto signed their names in the presence of me, notary, and the attesting witnesses on this the day of May, 1912.

CHARTER AMENDMENT. Amendment to Charter of the Ayers Oil Company.

Shreveport, La., May 22, 1912.—The stockholders of the Ayers Oil Company met this day in called session at the domicile of the company in Shreveport, La. Holders of more than two-thirds of the capital stock of the company being present, the meeting was called to order, and on motion, R. S. Ayers was made chairman of the meeting and William M. Williams secretary.

On motion duly seconded, the following resolution was put to a vote, and on canvassing said vote it was found that said resolution had been unanimously carried, having received the votes of 10 stockholders holding 196 shares of stock in the company:

"Be it resolved, that the capital stock of the Ayers Oil Company now being twenty-five thousand dollars, represented by 250 shares of stock, be and the same is hereby increased to one hundred thousand dollars, represented by 1,000 shares, of a par value of one hundred dollars."

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned sine die.

R. S. AYERS, Chairman,
W. M. WILLIAMS, Secretary.

State of Louisiana, Parish of Caddo: Before me, E. Wayles Browne, a duly qualified notary public, in and for the aforesaid State and Parish, personally came and appeared before me, R. S. Ayers and William M. Williams, who, being sworn, declared and acknowledged that the above and foregoing is a true and faithful copy of the minutes of a meeting of the stockholders of the Ayers Oil Company held at Shreveport, La., on May 22, 1912; that at said meeting the capital stock of the said corporation was increased from $25,000.00 to $100,000.00, as set out in said resolution, such increase having been voted for by holders of stock amounting to more than two-thirds of the outstanding stock in said corporation.

Said appears further certified that the total liabilities of the company amount to the sum of ten thousand dollars.

R. S. AYERS,
W. M. WILLIAMS,
Subscribed and sworn to before me on this 22nd day of May 1912.
E. WAYLES BROWNE,
Notary Public.

Endorsed: Filed and recorded May 23, 1912.

S. O. WILLIAMS,
Deputy Clerk and ex-Officio Deputy Recorder.

State of Louisiana, Parish of Caddo: I hereby certify that the above and foregoing is a true and correct copy of the original act, as the same now appears on file and of record in my office. Given under my hand and seal of office this 23rd day of May 1912.
S. O. WILLIAMS,
Deputy Clerk and ex-Officio Deputy recorder. 5-23.

Take Notice.
Notice is hereby given of a measure to be introduced in the next session of the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana providing for an election in this, the Fourth Congressional District, to determine whether or not the sale of alcoholic liquors shall be legalized within said district.

Notice.
Notice is hereby given that an act will be introduced in the coming session of the Legislature amending Act No. 103 of 1898 increasing the salary of the City Judge and giving him the power to appoint a clerk at his own expense, and fixing the term of vacation, also changing the emoluments of the city marshal.

CHARTER Of the Quick Seven Oil and Gas Company Limited.

State of Louisiana, Parish of Caddo: Before me, John B. Files, notary public in and for the State and Parish above written, duly commissioned and acting as such, personally came and appeared on the 29th day of May 1912, in the presence of the witnesses hereinafter undersigned, the persons named in Article IX hereof, acting in the capacities as therein mentioned, who declared that they do by these presents organize a corporation under the laws of the State of Louisiana with the following articles as the charter of said corporation and also as the original subscription list for the purpose of organizing.

ARTICLE I.
The name of the corporation shall be The Quick Seven Oil and Gas Company Limited. Its domicile shall be at Shreveport, in the Parish of Caddo, State of Louisiana. Citation and other legal process shall be served on its president, or in his absence on the first vice president, or in his absence on such other person as may be named by law to receive citation. It shall begin business immediately and shall exist for a period of ninety-nine years from this date.

ARTICLE II.
It shall have power to contract, sue and be sued; to make and use a corporate seal; to hold, receive, purchase, convey, mortgage, pledge and hypothecate property, real and personal; to name and appoint such managers, directors and officers as its interests and conveniences may require; to make and establish such by-laws for the proper regulation of its affairs as may be deemed necessary; and shall have all such other and further powers as are now or may hereafter be conferred by law on corporations of its kind.

ARTICLE III.
The corporation is formed for the purpose: First, of mining or boring, by other means, for petroleum and other oils, gas, salt, sulphur and other mineral products in the State of Louisiana, either in its own lands or lands leased from others, or both. Second, of establishing and operating pipe lines and other means for transporting such products to the market. Such mining and transportation are declared to be the nature of the business to be carried on by the corporation.

ARTICLE IV.
The capital stock is fixed a twenty thousand dollars, divided into two hundred shares of one hundred dollars each. No stock shall be issued until fully paid for. No transfer of stock shall be binding on the corporation until noted on the books thereof. Stock subscriptions, both present and future, shall be paid for in cash, or in property or in lease at valuation to be fixed by the board of directors.

ARTICLE V.
The corporate powers of the corporation shall be vested in and its affairs shall be managed by a board composed of not less than five nor more than nine directors elected by ballot by the stockholders at a meeting to be held at the domicile of the company on the first Tuesday after the second Monday in January of each year beginning in 1913. In case of failure to hold an election on the day fixed, the directors in office shall hold over until their successors are duly elected, which may be done at a meeting held thereafter. Vacancies in the board may be filled for the unexpired term by the remaining directors. Board members may be written proxy act for each other at board meetings. The directors shall elect, viva voce, a president, first vice president, a second vice president, a third vice president, a secretary treasurer, an assistant secretary treasurer, and may employ or engage a general manager and such other agents or assistants as the interests of the corporation may require, and discharge them at its pleasure. Each director shall own at least one share of stock of the corporation. Three directors shall constitute a quorum of the board for the transaction of business. The secretary treasurer shall maintain his office at the domicile of the company at Shreveport, La., and he shall give bond with the security of a solvent surety company in the sum of five thousand dollars conditioned on his duties and the proper accounting for all moneys that may come into his hands. The board may be increased or decreased at the discretion of the board of directors. The premium for such bond shall be paid by the corporation. The following shall compose the first board of directors and they shall serve until the first Tuesday after the second Monday in January of each year, beginning in 1913, or until their successors are elected, viz.: Oscar Shanks, George A. McCollum, D. S. Bray, G. N. Bray, J. K. Bivins, J. J. Hudson, C. F. Miles, J. H. Jarrett, T. C. Morgan. The following shall be the first set of officers with like tenure of office, viz.: J. K. Bivins, president; Oscar Shanks, first vice president; V. N. Gray, second vice president; J. H. Jarrett, third vice president; T. C. Morgan, secretary; treasurer; J. J. Hudson, assistant secretary treasurer.

ARTICLE VI.
When the corporation is dissolved three commissioners shall be elected by the stockholders at a general meeting called for that purpose. Such commissioners shall liquidate the affairs of the corporation, sell its property, pay its debts, and distribute the surplus estate among the stockholders.

ARTICLE VII.
At all stockholders' meetings each share of stock represented in person or by written proxy shall be entitled to one vote. Stockholders shall be notified of meeting by publication of a notice stating the object of the meeting thirty days preceding the same in a weekly newspaper published in Caddo Parish, Louisiana and also by a written or printed copy of such notice mailed, prepaid, to each stockholder at his usual place of residence at least ten days before the day fixed for such meeting; but meetings may be held without such notice and delay upon waiver thereof in writing signed by all stockholders.

ARTICLE VIII.
No stockholder shall ever be held liable or responsible for the contracts or faults of the corporation in any further sum than the unpaid balance owing on the shares owned by him; nor shall any mere informality in organizing have the effect of exposing any stockholder to any liability beyond such unpaid balance.

ARTICLE IX.
The following persons are the organizers of this corporation, severally declare that they do hereby subscribe for the amount of stock opposite their respective names fully paid for by them in the transfer and sale to the corporation of their several interests in oil and gas leases of record in the recorder's office of the Parish of Caddo, Louisiana, and by money paid in viz.:

CHARTER Of the Woodrow Realty Company.

State of Louisiana, Parish of Caddo: Be it remembered that on this day before me, J. H. Stephens Jr., a notary public in and for the said Parish and State, duly commissioned and acting as such, personally came and appeared W. T. Pegues and W. T. Pegues Jr., residents of DeSoto Parish, Louisiana, and G. W. Jack, a resident of Caddo Parish, Louisiana, who stated and declared to me, notary, that availing themselves of the Constitution and laws of the State of Louisiana, they have formed and constituted themselves, as well as such other persons as may hereafter become associated with them, and do by these presents form and constitute themselves into a corporation and body corporate and have adopted and ordained as their charter and act of incorporation the following, to-wit:

ARTICLE I.
The name and title of this corporation shall be "Woodrow Realty Company," with its domicile at the City of Shreveport, in the Parish of Caddo, State of Louisiana, and under its corporate name it shall have and enjoy succession for a period of fifty years unless sooner dissolved as hereinafter provided. All legal process shall be served on the president, or in his absence on the vice president of the company at the office of the corporation.

ARTICLE II.
The purpose for which this corporation is organized and the nature of its business is declared to be the buying and selling of both real and personal property, and the conducting of a general real estate business.

ARTICLE III.
The capital stock of this corporation is fixed at the sum of $250,000.00, divided into 250 shares of the par value of one thousand dollars each, and it shall commence business and become a going concern when $25,000.00 of its capital stock is subscribed and paid for in cash, labor or property, at a valuation to be fixed by the board of directors, and when issued shall be fully paid and non-assessable.

The board of directors shall have the right to make and adopt all needful rules, regulations or by-laws, and the same to alter or change at pleasure, and to employ or discharge all managers, superintendents, clerks, or other employes as may be needful in the management of the affairs of said corporation.

ARTICLE V.
This charter may be amended, altered or abrogated at the vote of three-fourths of the capital stock hereof at a meeting held for that purpose after ten days notice addressed to each stockholder through the United States mails, except when otherwise specially provided by the laws of the State of Louisiana, provided that the stockholders may by unanimous consent waive notice of any meeting. At all stockholders' meetings each share of stock shall be entitled to one vote to be cast by its owners in person or by proxy. If this corporation should be dissolved or the charter expire, it shall be liquidated by three commissioners appointed by the stockholders for that purpose.

ARTICLE VI.
This corporation shall have power to contract, sue and be sued in its corporate name, to make and use a corporate seal; to hold, receive, purchase and convey, to mortgage, hypothecate and lease under its corporate name both real and personal property, and to execute, issue and deliver mortgage notes, mortgage bonds or other obligations secured by mortgage and special hypothecation of its property, rents and revenues, and in general to perform any and all acts authorized by corporations under the laws of the State of Louisiana.

ARTICLE VII.
No stockholder shall ever be held liable or responsible for the contracts or faults of such corporation in any further sum than the unpaid balance due to the company on the shares owned by him; nor shall any error or omission in organizing have the effect of rendering this charter null or of exposing a stockholder to any liability beyond the amount of his stock.

ARTICLE VIII.
