CHARTER

Of The Dickson Land Company.

State of Louisiana, Parish of Caddo: Be it remembered that on this day before me, John D. Wilkinson, a notary public in and for said parish, duly commissioned and sworn personally came and appeared S. A. Dickson, G. S. Dickson, Mildred D. Levy, wife of Mahlon Levy; C. B. Dickson Jr., Claudius M. Dickson and Susie Dickson, residents of said Parish and State, who stated and declared to me, notary, that availing themselves of the Constitution and laws of the State of Louisiana relating to the formation of corporations in general, they have formed and constituted themselves and do by these presents form and constitute themselves, as well as such other persons as may hereafter become associated with them, into a corporation and body corporate, and have adopted and ordained as their charter and act of incorporation the following, to-wit:

ARTICLE I.

The name and title of this corporation shall be the Dickson Land Company, with its domicile at the City of Shreveport, La., and under its corporate name it shall have and enjoy succession for a period of fifty years, unless sooner dissolved as hereinafter provided. All legal process shall be served on its president, or in his absence on the vice president of the company.

ARTICLE II.

The objects of this corporation and the purposes for which it is formed are hereby declared to be to acquire, purchase, receive and own both real and personal property and the same to sell, mortgage and dispose of at will, and more particularly to conduct and operate farms, plantations and plantation stores and gins and other operations necessary in conducting such farms and plantations, and in general to conduct agricultural operations in the State of Louisiana and elsewhere.

ARTICLE III.

The capital stock of this corporation is hereby fixed at sixty thousand dollars, divided into six thousand shares of the par value of one hundred dollars each, and it shall commence business whenever thirty thousand dollars of its capital stock is actually subscribed and paid for. No stock shall issue except when fully paid, and may be issued for money, property, services or other thing of value to the satisfaction of the board of directors, and when issued shall be non-assessable. No stockholder shall sell or otherwise dispose of his or her stock in this corporation without first offering the same to the other stockholders in writing and waiting thirty days thereafter, whereupon if none of the stockholders will buy the same at the price offered, he or she may sell or dispose of the same to other parties at the same price and on the same terms and conditions.

ARTICLE IV.

The affairs of this corporation shall be managed and controlled by a board of directors consisting of seven stockholders to be elected at a general meeting of the stockholders to be held at the office of the company on the first Monday of January of each year, and until the election of a board of directors on the first Monday in January 1914, the following shall constitute the board of directors of this company: S. A. Dickson, who shall be president; G. S. Dickson, who shall be vice president; Mildred D. Levy, who shall be treasurer; C. B. Dickson Jr., Claudius M. Dickson and Susie Dickson. The said board of directors shall have authority to fill any vacancy occurring therein from any cause by the election of another stockholder thereto for the unexpired term, and shall have the power to elect, name and appoint any and all agents, employes or managers that may be necessary in the operation of its business, and may make such by-laws and rules for the government of said corporation as in their judgment seems best and the same to change and alter at pleasure.

ARTICLE V.

This charter may be amended or altered, or this corporation may be dissolved by a vote of three-fourths of the stockholders at a meeting called for that purpose in accordance with the laws of the State of Louisiana; and when not otherwise provided by law may be called on ten days written notice addressed to each stockholder at his usual postoffice address; provided that by unanimous consent the stockholders may waive such delay and such notice of any meeting. All stockholders meetings each share of stock shall be entitled to one vote to be cast by its owner in person or by written proxy. When this corporation is dissolved by limitation or otherwise, its affairs shall be liquidated and settled by one or more liquidators to be appointed by the stockholders, who shall perform such duties and give such bond as the stockholders may prescribe.

ARTICLE VI.

No stockholder of this corporation shall ever be held liable for the contracts or faults thereof in any further sum than the unpaid balance due on his or her stock, and no mere informality shall have the effect of rendering this charter null and of exposing any stockholder to any greater liability than the loss of his or her stock.

In testimony whereof said parties have hereunto signed their names in presence of me, notary, and the attesting witnesses and have set opposite their respective names the number of shares of stock subscribed for by them, which shall constitute a subscription list, on this 6th day of June 1913.

CHARTER

Of Shreveport Oil Refining Company.

State of Louisiana, Parish of Caddo: Be it remembered that on this day before me, J. A. Thigpen, notary public, came and appeared the parties whose names are hereunto subscribed, who declared that availing themselves of the provisions of the laws of this State relative to corporations, they have formed a corporation under the name and style and of the powers and privileges hereinafter stipulated, to-wit:

ARTICLE I.

The name of this corporation shall be "Shreveport Oil Refining Company," with its domicile in the City of Shreveport, La., and under said corporate name it shall have and enjoy succession for a period of ninety-nine (99) years unless sooner dissolved as hereinafter stated. All legal process shall be served upon the president, or in his absence at the office of the corporation according to law.

ARTICLE II.

The objects and purposes of this corporation is hereby declared to be the business of refining and selling petroleum and its products, with all of the rights and privileges necessary and incident to the refining and distributing of petroleum and its products; with the right to hold and own real and personal property, and to sell and dispose of the same, together with the right to contract and otherwise to exercise all powers which are not prohibitive under the laws of the State of Louisiana to such corporations.

ARTICLE III.

The capital stock of this corporation is fixed at the sum of five thousand ($5,000.00) dollars, divided into fifty shares of the par value of one hundred dollars per share; and said corporation is authorized to commence business when five thousand dollars of its capital stock is subscribed for and paid in cash or its equivalent. No stock shall be issued until the same is fully paid for, but stock may be issued in payment of property, real or personal, or for services rendered to the corporation, as may be determined by the stockholders. No sale of stock by any stockholder in this corporation shall be valid unless the same shall have first been offered to the remaining stockholders for a period of ten days at a price equal to any bona fide offer made for same; or, in lieu thereof, at its book value; such offer to be made in writing addressed to the president of this corporation. And this limitation as to the sale of stock shall be incorporated in all certificates of stock issued by this company.

ARTICLE IV.

The corporate powers of this corporation shall be vested in a board of directors consisting of five stockholders, three of whom shall constitute a quorum, who shall be elected annually on the first Monday in June of each year, beginning with the year 1914. Until its successors are elected and qualified the board of directors is hereby declared to be S. J. Harman, J. M. Ledbetter, E. M. Telle, S. W. Tullios and Louis P. Samsot. The officers of the company shall be elected by the directors annually, beginning with the first Monday in June 1914; and until such date the officers are declared to be S. J. Harman, president; J. M. Ledbetter, vice president; and E. M. Telle, secretary and treasurer.

At all meetings of stockholders the majority of stock shall elect the directors, and in all elections or proceedings of stockholders each share of stock shall be entitled to one vote. Notice of all elections or meetings of stockholders shall be advertised ten days prior thereto in any of the public newspapers published in the City of Shreveport.

ARTICLE V.

Whenever this corporation is dissolved by limitation or otherwise its affairs shall be liquidated by two persons selected for the purpose at a stockholders meeting duly held; and said liquidators shall perform such services and give such security as the stockholders may require.

ARTICLE VI.

No stockholder of this corporation shall ever be held liable or responsible for the contracts or faults thereof in any further sum than the unpaid balance due the company on their stock; and no further informality in organization shall have the effect of rendering this charter null or of exposing its stockholders to any loss beyond the amount of their capital stock.

CHARTER

Of Belcher Telephone and Telegraph Company.

Be it known that on this 30th day of May 1913, personally came and appeared before me, J. H. Stephens Jr., notary public, duly commissioned and sworn, J. H. Nattin Jr., L. F. C. Pearce, D. P. Hollis, Julius Gamm, Dr. A. S. Bugg and Sam Wilber, all of age and residents of Caddo Parish, State of Louisiana, who declared that availing themselves of the laws of the State of Louisiana relative to corporations, they have covenanted and agreed, and by these presents do covenant and agree, and bind themselves, as well as such others as may hereafter become associated with them, to form and constitute a corporation and body politic in law for the purposes hereinafter set forth, in the following articles, to-wit:

ARTICLE I.

The name and title of this corporation shall be "Belcher Telephone and Telegraph Company," and under its corporate name said corporation shall have power to contract, sue and be sued; to acquire and purchase, hold, receive, alienate, convey and sell, pledge, mortgage and hypothecate under its corporate name, property, real, mixed and personal; and borrow money and issue notes and security therefor, and exercise the power of eminent domain; to name and appoint such officers, directors and employes as the interests and convenience of the corporation may require; to make such by-laws, rules and regulations for the control of its affairs as may be deemed necessary and proper, and the same to change and alter at will, and to do all other acts permitted by law to carry out the purposes for which this corporation is organized. This corporation shall continue in existence for a period of twenty-five years unless sooner dissolved in accordance with its charter.

ARTICLE II.

The object and purposes of this corporation are hereby declared to be to build, equip, purchase and maintain a telephone and telegraph exchange and toll lines of telephone and telegraph, and to furnish telephone and telegraph service to the citizens of Belcher, Caddo Parish, La., and its adjacent and surrounding territory, and throughout the State of Louisiana.

ARTICLE III.

The domicile of this corporation is hereby declared to be Belcher, Caddo Parish, La., and citation and other legal process shall be served on the president, and in his absence on the vice president, and in his absence at the domicile of the company according to law.

ARTICLE IV.

The corporate powers of this corporation are declared to be vested in a board of directors consisting of three members; said board to be elected annually on the first Monday in June of each year, beginning in the year 1914. Each share of stock shall be entitled to one vote, to be cast in person or by proxy, and at all elections and at all meetings of stockholders a majority of votes cast shall elect. Ten days prior notice shall be given in writing to all stockholders of all special elections or special meetings; said notice to be mailed to the usual postoffice address of such stockholders. The board of directors shall elect annually at its regular meeting the officers of the corporation, to-wit: A president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, who shall hold office until their successors are elected and duly qualified. The first board of directors of this corporation, who shall hold office until their successors shall have been elected in 1914 and duly qualified, is hereby declared to be: J. H. Nattin Jr., L. F. C. Pearce and D. P. Hollis. The officers of this corporation, who shall hold office until their successors are elected in 1914 and duly qualified, are hereby declared to be: J. H. Nattin Jr., president; L. F. C. Pearce, vice president; D. P. Hollis, secretary-treasurer.

ARTICLE V.

The capital stock of this corporation is hereby fixed at the sum of ten thousand ($10,000.00) dollars, divided into and represented by two hundred shares of fifty ($50.00) dollars each; and this corporation stock may be paid for in cash or its equivalent in the discretion of the board of directors, and the corporation may commence business when three thousand dollars of the capital stock is paid in.

ARTICLE VI.

This act of incorporation may be altered, amended, modified or changed, or the corporation dissolved by a vote of three-fourths of the entire stock at a meeting of the stockholders of the corporation convened for that purpose after thirty days previous notice of said meeting shall have been given in writing to each stockholder.

ARTICLE VII.

Whenever this said corporation shall be dissolved by limitation or otherwise its affairs shall be liquidated by two of the stockholders of this corporation selected for that purpose at a special meeting. In case of the death of either of the liquidators the other shall act alone with full power and authority.

ARTICLE VIII.

No stockholder of this corporation shall be held liable or responsible for the contracts or faults of this corporation in any further sum than the unpaid balance due on his capital stock subscribed for by him, nor shall any informality in organization have the effect of rendering this charter null and void, or of exposing the stockholders to any liability beyond the amount of his capital stock.

Thus done, passed and signed at my office in the Parish of Caddo, in the presence of D. C. Scarborough Jr., and Percy N. Browne, competent witnesses, on this 10th day of June 1913.
