

Southern Sentinel.

Good Bye!

Air—"Good Bye!"

Old Cass once wore the black cockade, Till he found it was "all in my eye;" And then he turned tail on the Federalists, And solemnly told them "Good bye!"

The American Taylor.

Air—"My Old Aunt Sally."

'Tis said nine tailors make a man— A fact I will not answer— But we've a Taylor hereabouts, Would make at least nine men sir.

Keep it before the People!

That Millard Fillmore has distinctly disavowed the slightest wish or desire to interfere with the question of slavery in the United States.

nor make professions at the eleventh hour to gull the South. Keep it also before the people, that southern democrats are endeavoring to hold up Lewis Cass as "a Northern man with Southern principles," just as they did Van Buren, and that Lewis Cass is aiding to propagate the fraud, by causing to be circulated two editions of his life.

Keep it before the people, that Mr. Yancey, a Southern democrat, and delegate from Alabama to the national democratic convention, refused to sustain Lewis Cass, pronouncing him a political weath-ercock, "all things unto all men, an Abolitionist at heart, and false to the South."
