CONFUSION;

OR CARE, IN A DILEMMA.

Confound the noise! "Confusion was confounded!" That noise, I fear 'll prevent me being heard Fully upon the question you've propounded...

Keep it before the People!

That Millard Fillmore has distinctly disavowed the slightest wish or desire to interfere with the question of slavery in the United States.

Keep it also before the people, that Lewis Cass proclaimed in his place in the Senate, that he would have voted for the Wilnot proviso, had it been brought forward during the session of 1846.

Keep it before the people, that Millard Fillmore is denounced by the Abolitionists as a traitor and a dough-face, because he recognises the institution of slavery, and brought a bill into congress to pay a master the value of a runaway slave.

Keep it also before the people, that Gen. Cass boasts that he never was a slave-holder, that he detests slavery, and would be delighted to see it abolished, if it could be done safely and peaceably.

Keep it before the people, that the Democratic papers dare not inform their readers that Millard Fillmore voted in favor of the first of the Atherton resolutions, which declares that Congress has no jurisdiction over the question of slavery in the United States.

Keep it also before the people, that Gen. Cass has proclaimed the monstrous opinion that the question of slavery in the newly acquired territory must be settled by the people thereof; thus giving to the Indians, Mesozoos, Zamboes, and other colored inhabitants of such territory, the right and power to exclude citizens of the South from establishing themselves with their property on the soil.

Keep it before the people, that Millard Fillmore has always been a frank, open and consistent politician, that he has not two sets of opinions, one for the North and the other for the South; that he does not, like Van Buren, boast of being "a northern man with southern principles," nor make professions at the eleventh hour to gull the South.

Keep it also before the people, that southern democrats are endeavoring to hold up Lewis Cass as "a Northern man with Southern principles," just as they did Van Buren, and that Lewis Cass is aiding to propagate the fraud, by causing to be circulated two editions of his life, one intended to reconcile slave-holders to his support, and the other to ingratiate himself with Northern anti-slavery men.

Keep it also before the people, that Lewis Cass never was regarded in any other light than as a violent opponent of slavery and a recognized champion of the Wilnot proviso, and that he only modified his opinions when he became the candidate for the Presidency; that even now he has never written or uttered one syllable against the principle of the Proviso; and that when interrogated by his northern friends on the subject, he pretends that the noise and confusion prevented him from explaining his views.

Keep it before the people, that Mr. Yancey, a Southern democrat, and delegate from Alabama to the national democratic convention, refused to sustain Lewis Cass, pronouncing him a political weathervane, "all things unto all men, an Abolitionist at heart, and false to the South."

Oh! RARE CONSISTENCY!—I. General Cass writing a book lauding Louis Philippe, and then, on his overthrow, congratulating the people that deposed him.

2. General Cass voting for the Wilnot Proviso when he wanted Northern votes, and opposing it when he wanted Southern votes.

3. General Cass refusing the "overgrown patronage" of the Government, after exhausting that patronage to his own benefit.

4. General Cass speaking eloquently about the suffering of the people of Ireland, and then forgetting to vote for the appropriation for their relief.

5. General Cass concurring with Mr. Polk's administration and voting for the Harbor and River bill, the veto of which was the "crowning glory" of Mr. Polk.

6. General Cass was enchanted with the prospect of peace throughout the world, and greasing his palate "to swallow the whole of Mexico."

An Ordinance concerning Peddling in the Streets.

SEC. 1st. Be it ordained, &c., That from and after the promulgation hereof, all persons are hereby prohibited and forbidden to peddle or hawk fruits, confectionaries, &c., within the incorporated limits of the town of Plaquemine.

Sec. 2d. Be it ordained, &c., That should any person be found contravening Section 1st of this Ordinance, they shall be fined in a sum not to exceed ten dollars, at the discretion of the court trying the same, on conviction thereof before any court of competent jurisdiction, to be sued for on information of any citizen of our town.

Sec. 3d. Be it, &c., That should any slave be convicted of contravening Section 1st of this ordinance, the proprietor or employer of such slave shall be liable to the above penalty.

Approved August 1st, 1848. L. DESOBRY, Jr., Mayor. J. SEDLEY WEBB, Clerk.

Asthma and Consumption.

DR. SHERMAN'S ALL-HEALING BALSAM, as a remedy for Asthma, Consumption, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, and all Diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Liver and Stomach, stands unexcelled.

Read what it has done! More Home Testimony in Favor of DR. SHERMAN'S ALL-HEALING BALSAM.

New Orleans, Feb. 25, 1848. To Dr. Sherman's Agent, 151 Chartres street: Dear Sir—Having derived great benefit from the use of Dr. Sherman's Balsam, you will permit me to address a few lines to you. I have been troubled for a long time with a bad cough, together with raising blood, to such a degree that I could scarcely talk without coughing.

Yours, dear sir, with respect. J. E. BRISCOE, Clerk for T. L. White, 53 Canal st. Residence, 24 Maria street, New Orleans STILL THEY COME!

Having accidentally become acquainted with the virtues of Dr. Sherman's All-Healing Balsam, I have no hesitation in declaring that it possesses all the gifted qualities attributed to it. In one case, where the medicine was taken on my recommendation, the effect was almost magical, as the Cough and Expectoration of mucus matter bore a strong analogy to a decided consumptive tendency.

13 Camp st., New Orleans; MOBILE, December 7th, 1847. I hereby certify, that for 18 months I had been lingering under Consumption, and expected every day to be my last. At length I procured a bottle of Sherman's Balsam, and it raised me as it were from the grave. It cured me, and I am now able to attend to my daily avocation of a boatman.

WINER'S Canadian Vermifuge.

THE best remedy ever yet discovered for all kinds of WORMS. It not only destroys Worms and invigorates the whole system, but it dissolves and carries off the superabundant slime of mucus, so prevalent in the stomach and bowels of children, more especially of those in bad health.—The mucus forms the bed or nest in which Worms produce their young, and by removing it, it is impossible for worms to remain in the body. It is harmless in its effects on the system, and the health of the patient is always improved by its use, even when no worms are discovered; the medicine being palatable, no child will refuse to take it, not even the most delicate.

Sold Wholesale and Retail by J. Wright & Co., 151 Chartres st., New Orleans. A. E. RICHARDS is the agent for "Winer's Canadian Vermifuge," in Plaquemine, and also for the sale of "Dalle's Pain Extractor." mar11 1y
