THE COLONIZATION OF NICARAGUA.—An agent is about to embark for Central America, under the auspices of a new society formed in Washington for the colonization of Nicaragua. He intends carrying out with him the materials for a printing office, and to commence the publication of a newspaper, as the chronicle of enterprise. The Philadelphia American, in noticing this fact, says:

It seems, from all we can gather, that the organization is really bent on planting northern settlers in that remote region, and rearing up by peaceful means, a free State. A purchase of land has been made, or will be, and no measures, except those of a strictly lawful kind, are to be contemplated. The locality selected, we are informed, is between Virgin Bay and San Juan del Sur, an elevated plateau, removed from the malarious influence of the coast region on the Atlantic side, and quite salubrious.

MELANCHOLY DEATH OF A MISER.—A few weeks since a Spanish gentleman of high connections, named Stephen Despratt, died in London, under circumstances of a most extraordinary nature. Although in the possession of wealth to the amount of $150,000, he was so penurious that he denied himself the common necessities of life, and finally carried his frightful avarice to such an extent that his landlady was compelled to call in medical advice, in consequence of his being discovered in an insensible and exhausted condition in his apartments, the result of actual starvation. On a post mortem examination, the stomach was found empty, and in a withered condition. His apartments exhibited a most extraordinary collection of multitudinous trash, picked up by the wretched old miser for years past.

From Washington.

Great Excitement on Kansas Affairs.—Collision between Messrs. Grow and Keitt.—General Mele.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—There was a great excitement in the House of Representatives last night, on the motion to refer the question for the admission of Kansas into the Union, under the Lecompton Constitution, to a select committee of thirteen.

In the course of the proceedings, at 2 o'clock A. M., Messrs. Galusha A. Grow, from the Fourteenth District of Pennsylvania, and J. M. Keitt, from the Third District of South Carolina, got into collision, when the latter was knocked down. Mr. Keitt is alleged to have struck the first blow. A general fracas ensued in front of the Clerk's desk, in the midst of which the Speaker continued loudly to call the House to order, and direct the Sergeant-at-Arms to interfere. Quiet was at length temporarily restored; but disturbances were afterwards renewed.

Another conflict then took place between Messrs. Grow and Keitt, when the latter seized Mr. Grow by the throat, at the same time applying an opprobrious epithet to him. Mr. Grow retaliated by calling him a "nigger-driver," and knocking him down again. The Speaker here threatened to arrest the disorderly members, and another partial calm ensued, at 4 o'clock.

The House is still in session at 4 A. M., refusing to adjourn upon any question connected with Kansas.

The House adjourned at 6 o'clock this morning, after agreeing to take the vote on Monday.

THE LEXINGTON.—The cost of launching this magnificent steamship is now estimated at $500,000. Some weeks ago a Mr. Daniel Russell, who lately recovered the royal mail steamer Tyne, after she had grounded on the coast of Devonshire, and the Golden Age, which went ashore on her passage between San Francisco and Panama, offered to launch her for $30,000, but Mr. Russell, the engineer, preferred his own grand and extra scientific plans.

AN ALABAMA CONSTABLE AFTER ET AL.—An Alabama correspondent of the Mobile Advertiser, justly proud of the good things of his native State, writes to that paper as follows: "That was a pretty good story (the adjournment up to sine die) you copied in your Sentinel morning paper from the N. O. Pleasant, and as one of the same sort also happening in the same locality, I give you the following: "A certain fat constable, in the county of Calhoun, State of Alabama, once received a writ from a Justice of the Peace, known as Josh M—c. The case was R— vs. D— et al. The good constable, who was more famed for his honesty than literary attainments, was sorely puzzled at et al. So, after keeping the writ for a week, he entered the Justice's office with much anxiety depicted on his countenance, and saluted Squire Josh with this exclamation: "Josh, who's the et al? I've been looking for him all over the county for a week, and I can't find him. I don't believe there's any such man in C—."

American silver is very abundant in New York, and can not be used, except at a discount in large quantities.

A white woman named Peters, and her brother, have been fined $100 and sentenced to jail for one year, in St. Louis, for cruelly whipping a slave girl.

It is said that Gen. Scott and Col. Fremont will both sail for California in the steamer Moses Tyler, on the 24th inst. It will be a queer coincidence for two unsuccessful Presidential candidates to be thus thrown together.

Advices from Jerusalem, of the 11th ultimo, state that the copula of the Holy Sepulchre threatens to fall, and that some accident is dreaded if it be not immediately repaired.

"Mother, mayn't I have the big bible in your room?"

"Yes, my son, and I am glad to see you desirous of perusing that book. What do you most want to see in it?"

"I only want to see whether I can smash flies in it, like Bill Smith does at school!"

According to a Belgian paper, the funded property of the House of Rothschilds of Paris, amounts at present to forty millions sterling.

Walled Lake in Iowa.

A correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette gives an account of a walled lake in Wright county, Iowa. He says:

To me it was one of the greatest curiosities I had ever seen—enveloped as its history is with a mantle that will probably never be withdrawn. This lake lies in the midst of a vast plain—the rich, gently undulating prairie extending for many miles in every direction. The lake covers an area of about 1900 acres. The water is clear and cold, with a hard, sandy bottom, from two to twenty-five feet deep. There is a strip of timber about half way round it, probably ten rods wide, being the only timber in many miles. There is a wall of heavy stone all round it.

It is no accidental matter. It has been built with human hands. In some places the land is higher than the lake, in which case the wall only amounts to something like a rip-rap protection. This, I believe, is what engineers call it. But in other places the water is higher in the lake than the prairie outside of the wall. The wall in some places is ten feet high; it is thirteen feet wide at the base, sloping up both sides to five feet wide on the top. The wall is built entirely of boulders, from three tons in size down to fifty pounds. They are all what are called lost rock. I am no geologist, and consequently can give no learned description of them. They are not, however, natives, "to the manor born." Nor has the wall been made by the washing away of the earth, and leaving the rocks. There is no native rock in this region. Besides, this is a continuous wall, two miles of which, at least, is higher than the land. The top of the wall is level, while the land is undulating—as the wall is in some places two feet, and in others ten feet high. These rocks, many of them at least, must have been brought a long distance; probably five or ten miles. In Wright county the best rocks are scattered pretty freely, but as you approach this lake they disappear, showing that they have been gathered by some agency—when or by whom history will never unfold. Some of the largest oaks in the grove are growing up through the wall, pushing the rocks in, in some cases, outside in others, accommodating their shape to the rocks. The lake abounds with excellent fish. The land in that township yet belongs to the Government.

When I was there in the Spring of 1856 the wind had blown a large piece of ice against the south-west part of the wall and had "knocked it down," so that the water was running out and flooding the farms of some of the settlers, and they were about to repair the wall to protect some of their crops. It is beautiful farm land all around this lovely lake.

The readers of the Gazette should not imagine that the wall around this lake is as nice as the wall around the fountain in front of the City Hall in New York, nor need any entertain the theory that it is a natural wall; but it has been built hundreds and probably thousands of years. The antiquary may speculate by whom this might as well as ornamental work was done, but it will only be speculation.

Notwithstanding the water in the lake is pure and cool, there is no visible feeder or outlet. This is about twelve miles north of the located line of the Dubuque and Pacific railroad, and about one hundred and fifteen miles west of the former place. The time is coming when the lake will be a great place of public resort.

Initiating a Mormon.

[From the Bee.]

John Hyde, formerly an Elder in the Church of the Latter-Day Saints, lectured on Mormonism last Tuesday evening, in Lyceum Hall. He began by giving a succinct account of the rise and progress of Mormonism in this country, and dwelt at considerable length upon the tyranny exercised by Brigham Young over his deluded followers.

The lecturer then went on to speak of the ludicrous ceremonies attending the initiation of the neophytes into the Mormon church. The men are separated from the women. Both are then stripped naked, and while in this condition an Elder, supposed to represent the Lord, enters the men's apartments and kneads them, in commemoration of the process to which our first father's clay is thought to have been subjected before being endowed with vitality. The neophytes are then anointed with sacred oil, and there is whispered in their ears a new name which they are warned as they value their salvation never to forget. They are then dressed in uniform, and when the bandage is removed from the men's eyes, each one sees a woman standing beside him similarly accoutered to himself. The men are thereupon led through a succession of rooms, four in number, in one of which, after the performance of sundry mystic and heathenish rites, they are made to take a solemn oath by which they vow an eternal hatred to and warfare against the United States and its institutions, until they shall have been uprooted and overturned, and until the very remembrance of them shall have ceased among men. The new Adam and Eve then wander forth into a garden, not quite so large as Eden, where they behold a bunch of raisins tied with a piece of thread to the limb of a tree. An outlandish looking fellow, dressed in red and supposed to typify the devil, then rushes in and invites the woman to pull down said raisins and eat them, which, of course, she proceeds to do, whereupon enter the Lords, with a formal request that the pair should vacate the premises forthwith; promising them, however, at the same time that a Savior should finally appear to reinstate them therein. The lecturer alluded to the fact that his own wife and child—the former an obstinate believer in the doctrines of Brigham Young, were now in Salt Lake City, his wife having refused to follow him to the United States.

A Good Comparison.

The Rev. William Roulett, a well known Methodist clergyman, residing at Naples, draws the following amusing but apt comparison between Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Vermifuge, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., and a ferret:

"A ferret, when placed at the entrance of a rat-hole, enters the aperture, travels along the passage, seizes upon the rat, exterminates his existence, and draws the animal's defunct carcass to the light. And in like manner have I found Dr. M'Lane's American Vermifuge to operate upon worms, those dreadful and dangerous tormentors of children. This remedy, like the ferret, enters the aperture of the mouth, travels down the gullet, hunts around the stomach, lays hold of the worms, shakes the life out of the reptiles, sweeps clear their den, and carries their carcasses clear out of the system. This, at least, has been the effect of the Vermifuge upon my children."

A neighbor of Mr. Boulart, Mr. John Briggs adopts the simile of the revered certifier, thus both giving their most unequivocal approval of this great specific, after having witnessed its operation upon their own children. Let others try it, and be satisfied.

Purchasers will be careful to ask for DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS, manufactured by FLEMING BROS., of PITTSBURGH, PA. There are other Pills purporting to be Liver Pills, now before the public. Dr. M'Lane's genuine Liver Pills, also his celebrated Vermifuge, can now be had at all respectable drug stores. None genuine without the signature of FLEMING BROS.
