WAVERLY MAGAZINE.

EDITED by Moses A. Dow.—This paper is the largest weekly ever published in this country. Its contents are such as will be approved in the most fastidious circles—nothing immortal being admitted into its pages. It will furnish as much reading matter as almost any one can find time to peruse, consisting of tales, history, biography, together with music and poetry. The papers contain no ultra sentiments, and meddles neither with politics nor religion, but it is characterized by a high moral tone. It circulates all over the country, from Maine to California.

TERMS:

One dollar for six months, or $2 00 a year, always in advance. Clubs, by mail, six papers six months $5. Paper stopped when the last number paid for is sent. A new volume commences every July and January. But if a person commences at any number in any volume, and pays for six months, he will have a complete book, with a title-page, as every paper's complete in itself. Clubs must always be sent at one time to get the benefit of the low price. We cannot send them at the club price unless received all together as it is too much trouble to look over our books or keep an account with each one getting them up.

Any one sending us four dollars can have one copy of the Waverly Magazine, and either of the following works for one year by mail. Graham's Magazine, Harper's Magazine, Gode's Leslies Book, Ladies's Gazette of Fashion, Putnam's Magazine, Ballou's Pictorial.

All letters and communications concerning the paper should be addressed to the publisher.
Address, MOSES A. DOW,
Boston Massachusetts.

Cut out the above and put it in your pocket, and if you need anything in the way of printing. Give us a call.

SEVEN YEARS!

THE seven years of unrivalled success attesting the "Cosmopolitan Art Association," have made it a household word throughout every quarter of the country.

Under the auspices of this popular institution, over three hundred thousand homes have learned to appreciate—by beautiful works of art on their walls, and choice literature on their tables, the great benefits derived from becoming a subscriber.

Subscriptions are now being received in a ratio unparalleled with that of any other year.

Terms of Subscription.

Any person can become a member by subscribing THREE DOLLARS, for which they will receive

- 1st—the large and superb steel engraving, 30x38 inches, entitled, "Falstaff Mustering his Recruits."
- 2nd—One copy, one year, of that elegantly illustrated magazine, "The Cosmopolitan Art Journal."
- 3d—Four admissions, during the season, to "The Gallery of paintings, 548 Broadway, N. Y."

In addition to the above benefits, there will be given to subscribers, as gratuitous premiums, over Five hundred beautiful Works of Art! comprising valuable paintings, marbles, parians, outlines, etc., forming a truly national benefit.

The Superb Engraving, which every subscriber will receive, entitled "Falstaff Mustering his Recruits," is one of the most beautiful and popular engravings ever issued in this country. It is done on steel, in fine line and stipple and is printed on heavy plate paper, 30x48 inches making a most choice ornament, suitable for the walls of either the library, parlor, or office. Its subject is the celebrated scene of Sir John Falstaff receiving, in Justice Shallow's office, the recruits which have been gathered for his ragged regiment. It could not be furnished by the trade for less than five dollars.

The Art Journal is too well known to the whole country to need commendation. It is a magnificently illustrated magazine of Art, containing Essays, Stories, Poems, Gossip, &c., by the very best writers in America. The engraving is sent to any part of the country by mail, with safety, being packed in a cylinder postage prepaid.

Subscriptions will be received until the evening of the 31st January, 1861, at which time the books will close and the premiums be given to subscribers.

No person is restricted to a single subscription. Those remitting $15, are entitled to five memberships and to an extra engraving for their trouble. Subscription from California, the Canadas, and all Foreign countries, must be $3 50 instead of $3, in order to defray extra postage, &c.

For further particulars send for a copy of the elegantly illustrated Art Journal, pronounced the handsomest magazine in America. It contains a Catalogue of Premiums, and numerous superb engravings. Regular price 50 cents per number. Specimen copies, however, will be sent to those wishing to subscribe, on receipt of 18 cents, in stamps or coin. Address
C. L. DERBY, Actuary C.A.A.
546 Broadway, New York.

HARPER'S NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE

EVERY number of Harper's Magazine contains from twenty to fifty pages—and from one third to one half more reading matter than any other in the country.

At no period since the commencement of the Magazine, has its literary and artistic resources been more ample and varied; and the publishers refer to the contents of the Periodical for the past as the best guarantee for its future claims upon the patronage of the American public.

TERMS:

- One Copy for one year $3 00
- Two copies for one year 5 00
- Three or more copies one year (each) 2 00

And an extra copy gratis for every club of ten subscribers. Harper's Weekly and Harper's Magazine, together, one year, $4 00 The postage upon "Harper's Magazine," must be paid at the office where it is received. The postage is thirty-six cents a year.

HARPER & BROTHERS,
Publishers.
Jan. 1, 1860. Franklin Square.

To Advertisers.

On the first page of our paper will be found the contracting rates for advertisements, which we have put at very low figures, and consequently expect a large advertising patronage. In reading the rates, remember that advertisements are published daily, not once a week, for the prices mentioned, which makes a material difference. We shall be pleased to have our merchants and professional gentlemen to pay us a visit.

NEWSPAPER LAW.

Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary, are considered as wishing to continue the subscription.

If subscribers order the discontinuance of their papers, the publishers may continue to send them till all that is due be paid.

If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their papers from the office to which they are directed, they are held responsible until they have settled their bills and ordered their paper discontinued.

If subscribers remove to other places without informing the publisher, and the paper is sent to the former direction, they are held responsible.

The courts have decided that refusing to take a paper or periodical from the office, is prima facie evidence of fraud.
