Proclamation by the President.

WHEREAS, The Congress of the Confederate States of America did, by an act approved on the 8th day of August, 1861, entitled "An act respecting alien enemies," make provision that proclamation should be issued by the President in relation to alien enemies, in conformity with the provisions of said act: Now, therefore, I, Jefferson Davis, President of the Confederate States of America, do issue this, my proclamation; and I do hereby warn and require every male citizen of the U. States, of the age of fourteen years and upwards, now within the Confederate States, and adhering to the Government of the United States, and acknowledging the authority of the same, and not being a citizen of the Confederate States, to depart from the Confederate States within forty days from the date of this proclamation. And I do warn all persons above described who shall remain within the Confederate States after the expiration of said period of forty days, that they will be treated as alien enemies.

Provided, however, That this proclamation shall not be considered as applicable during the existing war to citizens of the United States residing within the Confederate States with intent to become citizens thereof, and who shall make declaration of such intention in due form, acknowledging the authority of this Government; nor shall this proclamation be considered as extending to the citizens of the States of Delaware, Maryland, Kentucky, Missouri, the District of Columbia, the Territories of Arizona, and New Mexico, and the Indian Territory south of Kansas, who shall not be chargeable with actual hostility or other crime against the public safety, and who shall acknowledge the authority of the Government of the Confederate States.

And I further proclaim and make known, that I have established the rules and regulations hereto annexed in accordance with the provisions of said law.

Given under my hand and the seal of the Confederate States of America, at the city of Richmond, on the 14th day of August, 1861.

By the President:
JEFFERSON DAVIS.

R. M. T. HUNTER, Sec. of State.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING ALIEN ENEMIES.

The following regulations are hereby established respecting alien enemies, under the provisions of an act approved 8th August, 1861, entitled "An act respecting alien enemies:"

1. Immediately after the expiration of the term of forty days from the date of the foregoing proclamation, it shall be the duty of the several District Attorneys, Marshals, and other officers of the Confederate States, to make complaint against any aliens and alien enemies coming within the purview of the act aforesaid, to the end that the several Courts of the Confederate States, and of each State having jurisdiction, may order the removal of such aliens or alien enemies beyond the territory of the Confederate States, or their restraint and confinement, according to the terms of said law.

2. The Marshals of the Confederate States, are hereby directed to apprehend all aliens against whom complaints may be made under said law, and to hold them in strict custody until the final order of the Court, taking special care that such aliens obtain no information that could possibly be made useful to the enemy.

3. Whenever the removal of any alien beyond the limits of the Confederate States is ordered by any competent authority, under the provisions of the said law, the Marshal shall proceed to execute the order in person, or by deputy or other discreet person, in such manner as to prevent the alien so removed from obtaining any information that could be used to the prejudice of the Confederate States.

4. Any alien who shall return to these States during the war, after having been removed therefrom under the provisions of said law, shall be regarded and treated as an alien enemy, and, if made prisoner, shall be at once delivered over to the nearest military, to be dealt with as a spy or as a prisoner of war, as the case may require.

Irish Pikes for the War.—A New York paper says: "The 3d Irish Regiment is rapidly organizing. Each man is to be armed with a brace of navy revolvers, a small rifle, to be slung on the shoulders, and an Irish pike (the queen of weapons in such hands.)"

From the Confederate Capital.

Richmond, Aug. 21.—The President approved to-day an act empowering the President to appoint two other Commissioners to Europe. The act also empowers the President to determine to what nations the Commissioners now in Europe shall be accredited, and to prescribe their duties. The two additional Commissioners shall receive the same pay as those now in Europe.

The President approved an act to aid the State of Missouri in repelling invasion. The act also authorizes her admission into the Confederacy.

The following is the preamble and resolutions:

"Whereas, The State of Missouri having been prevented by unconstitutional interference of the Federal Government from expressing their will in regard to their Union with the Southern Confederacy, and that the Missourians now being engaged in repelling lawless invasion from their territory by armed forces, the Confederate Government considers it their right and duty to aid the Government and people of Missouri in resisting invasion, and in securing their opportunity to express their will upon all questions affecting their rights, therefore,

Resolved, That the President is authorized to co-operate, through the military power of this Government, with the authorities of Missouri in defending their State against lawless invasion by the United States, and maintaining their liberty and independence, with power to accept the services of troops sufficient to suit the purpose."

The act also provides for the admission of Missouri into the Confederacy, upon an equal footing with the other States, when the provisional constitution will be ratified by the Legislature and constituted authorities of Missouri, and an authentic copy communicated to the President.

The President is then directed by proclamation to announce the admission of Missouri into the Confederacy.

Gen. Ochildree, of Texas, introduced a resolution, which was unanimously adopted, complimenting the splendid victory gained by General McCulloch and his brave army at the battle of Springfield, Mo.

Bring in no more Reports.—The New York Express, in an article on the official report of the battle at Manssas, remarks:

The more we hear of the conduct of some of our officers and men at Bull Run, the more we are inclined to let the curtain drop on the whole affair, and cry out with the Thane of Cawdor, "Bring in no more reports."

With disclosures of this discreditable character crowding upon us, we think the reader will sympathize with the wish we have already expressed, that Bull Run should drop as soon as possible into oblivion. The country has heard enough of it. "Bring in no more reports."
