It should be borne in mind that the Daily News contains the latest intelligence received at this point. The paper does not go to press until after the arrival of the mail. It is delivered by Carrier for $8 per year or $4 for six months.

The following is a specimen of boasting, published in the Indianapolis (Ind.) Journal, by means of which the abolition papers are endeavoring to keep up the courage of their partisans:

A gentleman in this city, who has kept as accurate an account as possible, estimates that of thirty-three battles and more important skirmishes since the war began, the Union men have been victorious in twenty-two and the rebels in five, while in the remaining six neither party can claim a victory. The number of prisoners taken by the Unionists is about 3200, and by the rebels not quite half so many. Of the killed, it is impossible to obtain any thing like accurate knowledge of the losses of the rebels. The Union loss is something over 1000, and the rebel loss is supposed to be more than twice that number.

Stealing Slaves in Missouri.—A Western paper says: We learn that the Fremonters, since the evacuation of Southeastern Missouri by our troops have gone regularly into the business of stealing negroes. Not less than 75 of these "contrabands" are said to have been captured by these disciples of Belzebub, within the vicinity of New Madrid alone.—How much thieving they are doing elsewhere no one knows.

It was whispered about the country some time ago that an English vessel had arrived at one of our ports with 50,000 Enfield muskets. The name of the vessel and her port of entry were kept a profound secret, nor is it our intention to divulge it now, although we know the vessel has arrived and brought that number of Enfield rifles. Thirty cases of this celebrated arm arrived in the city yesterday, and are now on their way to Columbus. They have not been unpacked since they left England.—Memphis Avalanche.

The Washington Butchery.—We have received information from a reliable source, in regard to the reported slaughter of Federal troops in Washington. It appears that four regiments were required to change their arms, whereupon they mutinied, and Gen. McClellan surrounded them with five regiments. A melee with stones and brickbats then commenced, and to quell the riot McClellan gave the order to fire. The slaughter is represented to have been fearful. Surely, the Lincolnites have commenced the work of blood and carnage among themselves.

A report is in circulation that McClellan has since been shot and mortally wounded, but this lacks confirmation.—Dispatch.

Traitors in Texas.—The Galveston Civilian says:

Judge Devine, of the the Confederate Court of San Antonio, recently issued a warrant for the arrest of nineteen citizens of Blanco and Comal counties, charged with having organized themselves into a company, armed for treasonable purposes. The Marshall succeed in arresting six—five Germans and one Frenchman—and brought them to San Antonio. The others fled.

The Coast Defense.—There are certain points on the coast of the Confederate States where the enemy would meet with a spirited resistance should he attempt any offensive operations. We know the fact that in one locality, two rifled 84 pounders have been received from Europe, and as they have a range of six to seven miles, it would be hazardous for a Federal ship to approach within anything like hailing distance. The people on the Atlantic coast are alive to the necessity of preparing to receive the Yankee naval expedition in a proper manner.—Dispatch.

Excitement in Alexandria, Rapides Parish.—Self-Constituted Patriots in Trouble.—The Alexandria Democrat, of the 22d ult., says:

For two days we have had quite an excitement in regard to several parties of self-conceited patriots spending their valuable time in making collections of money for volunteer companies, said to be raised in New Orleans. Our good people, not being willing to be interfered with in the charitable line, differed as regards their notion of this mode of collecting, and have caused said patriots to be placed in the Magee House until time can be spared to give them and their charitable intents a hearing. They hail from the Crescent City.

Arkansas Tooth-Picks.—It will appear by the following, from the Fort Smith, [Arkansas] Times, that General Siegel had a full appreciation of Arkansas tooth-picks:

Barlow Knives and Cannon.—Siegel and Lyon had a discussion the night before the battle, Lyon insisting that the Confederate forces would not fight fifteen minutes after the cannon commenced to open upon them. Siegel said in broken English: "General, I can go into their camp and get one thousand men who will charge all your batteries with Barlow knives."

Bowling Green, Ky., Oct. 5.—We received this morning a copy of the Louisville Journal, of the 4th, from which we glean the following items, telegraphed the Northern press:

Washington, Oct. 2.—Upon charges made by Col. Blair, Major Gen. Fremont has been ordered to report himself for trial by court martial.

Gen. Wool, of Fortress Monroe, has been ordered to supersede Gen. Fremont to the command of the West, and Gen. Nansfield left for Fortress Monroe this afternoon to supersede Wool. Gen. Wool has left the fortress and is on his way Westward.

Jefferson, Mo., Oct. 3.—Eighteen hundred rebels have departed from the main army for Georgetown.—The rebels intend to make demonstrations in vast numbers upon Georgetown, Jefferson City and St. Louis, and feel confident of the ability to take these places.

The report of the removal of Gen. Fremont created intense indignation among the Union men, but great rejoicing among the secessionists.

A gentleman who visited Benton Barracks, this afternoon, reports that the greatest excitement prevailed among the troops, amounting almost to mutiny.

Gen. McKinstry has been ordered to the Department of Cumberland, in Kentucky.
