Washburn Dry Goods Emporium.

The new Riviere brick building, recently occupied by H. Riviere & Co. on Canal street is decidedly the handsomest, largest and most ornately decorated structure in our city, and is saying a good deal, considering the fact of there being a number of other commodious business buildings in our town.

Through the courtesy of Mr. W. R. Worthington, the architect of the building was shown through the edifice Monday morning, and we were not only impressed with the artistic beauty of the work, but in the marked utility of the arrangement of every department by which every foot of space in the building is made available for some line of goods.

The building is 37 feet front by 70 feet in depth—practically three stories in occupied space—16 feet ceiling on first floor, and 13 feet ceiling on second story. Between first and second story proper, galleries extend entirely around the walls where completely finished shelving is provided for special lines of goods. All the interior work in stairways, counters and shelving is made of mahogany, natural color finished in oil and present a most unique appearance. Behind the stairway on the first floor is situated the cosy parlour of the proprietors, provided with every comfort for every season of the year. There is an elevator for customers to ascend to the departments of the upper stories. There are large plate glass windows in the front of the full height of the upper stories, which will allow a full display of all merchandise and special lines of goods.

Three chandeliers of incandescent lights will illuminate the interior of the building to the full brightness of day, and being supplemented by numerous other incandescent lights in the upper stories will show windows.

The front of the building is finished with granite, galvanized iron, slate and with outer iron doors and windows separate from all wood—which makes the building essentially fire-proof in every particular, and a large amount of space between brick walls and interior wooden work that protects the goods from dampness. There are twelve windows which admit ample light and ventilation, and several flues for the use of heating stoves during cold weather.

In a word, it is an ideal business building and will be filled with up-to-date styles of goods from base to top.

A first class Schillinger pavement completes the tout ensemble of this magnificent building.

Store Burned.

The LeBlanc of the firm of Lepine and LeBlanc was in town on Monday morning and informed a Sentinel representative that their store at Laurel Valley was entirely destroyed by fire on Saturday morning at 3:30 a. m. on last Saturday. The building was saved and origin of the fire is unknown. Loss in stock $7,000. Insurance on same $4,000.

Newspaper Law

The following newspaper law is for the protection of the publishers of Louisiana:

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to continue their subscriptions.

2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their periodicals, the publisher may continue to send them until all arrearages are paid.

3. If subscribers neglect refuse to take periodicals from the office to which they are directed, they are held responsible until they have settled the bills and ordered them discontinued.

4. If subscribers move to another place without informing the publishers and the papers are sent to the former direction, they are held responsible.

5. The courts have decided that "refusing to take the periodicals from the office or removing and leaving them uncalled for is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud."

6. Any person who receives a newspaper and makes use of it whether he has ordered it or not is held in law to be a subscriber.

7. If subscribers pay in advance they are bound to give notice to the publisher at the end of their time if they do not wish to continue taking it; otherwise the publisher is authorized to continue sending it and the subscriber will be responsible until an express notice, with payment of all arrears are sent to the publisher.

Literary and Philharmonic Association.

Thibodaux has a number of Clubs for pastime and amusement, which concern the enjoyment of mostly the younger generation of our population. This is all well and good, but there is another social organization which will admit the married and unmarried, youth and middle age to membership and prove a source of intellectual, musical and social enjoyment to all who participate in its benefits. With the culture, and musical and dramatic talent to be found in our city, we should have a Literary and Philharmonic Association. The object of this organization would be the promotion of a taste for literature, music and histrionics, and would without doubt be instrumental in causing more attention to be given these subjects.

A Sunday Retrospect.

What a multitude of deep and varied emotions are called forth from the soul by the utterance of these two words—"Old Friends." What thronging memories of other days crowd the brain when they are spoken. Ah, there is a magic in the sound and the spell which it creates is both sad and pleasing. As we sit by our fireside, while the winds are making wild melody without the walls of our cottage, and review the scenes of bygone years which sit before us in swift succession, dim and shadowy as the recollections of a dream—how those "old familiar faces" will rise up and haunt our vision with their well remembered features. But ah, where are they? those friends and loved ones of other days—those kindred spirits who shared our joy and sorrows when first we started in the pilgrimage of life. Companions of our early days they are endeared to us by many a tie, and we now look back through the vista of years upon the hours of our communion, as upon green oases in a sandy waste. Years have passed over us with their buds and flowers, their fruits and snows, their joys and sorrows: and where now are those "old familiar faces"? They are scattered, and over many of their last "narrow homes" the thistle waves its lonely head. Some are buffeting the billows of time's stormy sea in distant places; and though they are absent our thoughts are of ten with them.

"Four Leaf Clover Club."

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Lobell entertained the "Four Leaf Clover Club" at their pleasant home on Canal street on Friday night of last week. Progressive euchre, music and recitations were the amusements, and proved a source of great enjoyment to the guests. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. Waterbury, Misses Loulie and Virginia Philson, Abby Moore, Allie Lyons, Vivien Knobloch, Daisy Shepherd, Mesdames Lyons, C. Cutler, Loeb, Chas McVea; Drs. Smith and Brand, Messrs. K. Braun, F. Knobloch, F. Nichols and Fulton Rogers.

Ladies prize—first, won by Miss A. Moore; booby, by Miss L. Philson. Gents prize—first, by K. Braud; booby, by F. Knobloch.

Some excellent music was rendered by Misses Philson and Vivien Knobloch. Miss L. C. Waterbury and Mr. Frank Nichols delighted the guests with choice recitations. Nice refreshments were served before adjourning the pleasant hour.

The Thibodaux Sentinel has recently changed hands, Judge L. P. Cailhouet having sold his interest to H. R. Dupre, the former publisher, and being succeeded in the editorial chair by Capt. J. M. Taylor of Crowley. This insures the maintenance of the high standard of mechanical excellence and editorial ability attained by the Sentinel under the direction of Judge Cailhouet—a gentleman and a scholar par excellence—and his competent associates.—Donaldsonville Chief.

Houmas Vs. Websters.

The game of base ball that was played at Tetreau's Park, at 3 p. m. on Sunday was a disappointment to the large crowd of spectators who came with the expectation of witnessing a spirited contest. The Houmas did very well the first two innings, when the Websters came in for their third, and almost latted Bergeron out of the box, the score standing 19 to 1 in the sixth inning, causing the Houmas to give up the game.

Barker, Clerk of said Court, ex-officio Jury Commissioner, duly qualified and sworn to such, then and there, in the presence of Messrs. J. O. Knobloch and E. J. Legendre, two competent and disinterested witnesses of lawful age, competent to read and write the English language, residing in the parish of Lafourche, and summoned by the Clerk of said Court for the purpose; proceeded in accordance with Section 6 of the original venire list on file in the clerk's office, and having struck therefrom the names of such grand jurors and regular jurors as have so served, as well as the names of others who are known to have died, removed from the Parish, become incompetent to serve as jurors, since their names were entered thereon; and the names of those who have died, removed, become exempt or disqualified, were also taken from the general venire box, after which we supplemented the original list and the ballots in the box with the names of the same number of good and competent men from the qualified jurors of the Parish, as have been taken from the box and erased from the list; so as to keep the number of names in the general venire box and on the jury list as the original standard of three hundred contained therein; each of said names so placed in the general venire box having been written by the said Clerk on a separate slip of paper, numbered with the number of the ward, or place of residence, of such person.
