Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

Amusements.

C. D. Marvin's farce "A Wise Member" held the boards at the Opera House last Saturday night. Quite a large audience turned out to see it and judging from the applause given it was popularly received. The play was no more than a repetition of "Capt. Racket," "My Uncle from New York," and others on those styles, with, however, some furiously funny situations at times. The company presenting it was composed of many clever artists, who, by their skill, held the attention of the audience. In all the performance was fair.

Hans Hanson will be at the Opera House tonight. "Hans Hanson" is an American comedy drama. The principle character represents a young Swede lately arrived in America—a big hearted, wholesome, honest fellow, always ready to assist the depressed. The fun lies in his endeavor to speak the English language and the various comical situations that arise during the action of the play. At times the audience is held spellbound by the tender pathos that pervades the piece, and the next moment convulsed with laughter. Jas. T. McAlpin, who has been seen as "Ole Olson" through this country, has found in "Hans Hanson" an ideal Swedish play, giving him all possible opportunities for the display of his peculiar talent, both as a comedian singer and warbler. His supporting company, 23 strong, is made up of the best talent in the dramatic and vaudeville lines, 16 piece solo band, 10 piece orchestra.

Romeo and Juliet.

The presentation of this play Tuesday evening at the Theatre with Mr. Edward D'Oize as Romeo and Miss Marie Lorraine as Juliet, was very fine. Mr. Charles C. Carver as Mercutio, gave a charming rendition of his part, his reading being especially pleasing. The other members of the company played their parts well. Miss Lorraine's Juliet was faultless. Mr. D'Oize was a pleasing Romeo. The play was elaborately staged and the audience more than satisfied.—Mur fressboro, Tenn., Journal, Jan. 23, 1903.

A Large Land Deal.

A dispatch from St. Joseph, Mo., to the Physician, dated the 3rd inst., reads:

The Hattig Moss Lumber Company to day bought 22,000 acres of cypress land from the Rives-Brogan Shingle Company, in St. James, Assumption and Lafourche Parishes, La., west of New Orleans, for $1,000,000. The Company will reduce the price of shingles in the North.

Little Work Done.

It has been many years since so little field work has been done hereabouts during the month of January.

On some plantations no plowing at all was done, owing to repeated rains. Cane planting will be materially delayed, and as a consequence all plantation work will be set back.

It is now hoped that good weather will set in, and that work will progress satisfactorily.

The scratch of a pin may cause the loss of a limb or even death when blood poisoning results from the injury. All danger of this may be avoided, however, by promptly applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It is an antiseptic and quick healing ointment for cuts, bruises and burns. For sale by Roth Drug Store.

Run-away Horse.

The horse attached to the delivery cart of Messrs. Naquin & Guillot, owners of the Guillot Dairy, created considerable excitement by running away last Thursday afternoon, and dashing at full speed from St. Charles Street up Market street to the corner of St. Philip and Main streets, where the cart violently collided with a stout telephone post, and was smashed to pieces, and the horse rudely jolted. The milk was spilt and the bottles shattered, so that many of the customers of Naquin & Guillot went without their milk for supper. Mr. Charles Guillot was in the cart at the start of the wild run but he was fortunate enough to escape without serious injury.

Grand Masquerade Ball.

A grand masquerade ball will be given at the Opera House on the 24th inst., under the auspices of the Thibodaux Cyching Club. As usual the crowning of the queen and the selection of the maids of honor will be interesting features of the evening's merry making. There will also be several tableaux.

Jury Venue.

THE STATE OF LOUISIANA,

20th JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT,

PARISH OF LAFOURCHE.

Be it known and remembered, That on this twenty-eighth day of the month of January, in the year of Our Lord, One thousand nine hundred and three,

Pursuant to written notices issued by the Clerk of Court, in and for the Parish of Lafourche, and addressed and given to each of the Jury Commissioners, in and for said Parish, as by the said Clerk's certificate hereto annexed more fully appears; we Henry W. Frost, Henry Riviere, Jos. M. Lefort, Thos. J. Knobloch and John S. Seely, Jury Commissioners, duly appointed as such for the parish of Lafourche under the provisions of Act No. 135 of the General Assembly, approved July 13th, 1893, and promulgated by publication in the State official Journal on July 29th, 1893, and all duly sworn and qualified as such Jury Commissioners in and for the parish of Lafourche, met at the Clerk's Office at the Court House in the town of Thibodaux, and in company with F. Wallace Lefort, Clerk of said Court, ex-officio Jury Commissioner, duly sworn and qualified as such. Then and there in the presence of Messrs. J. Otis Knobloch and Emile J. Legendre, two good and competent and disinterested witnesses of lawful age, competent to read and write the English language, residing in the parish of Lafourche, and summoned by the Clerk of said Court for the purpose, proceeded in accordance with Section 5 of said Act No. 135 of the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana of 1893, to examine the general venire list on file in the clerk's office, and having struck therefrom the names of such grand jurors and petit jurors as have so served, as well as the names of others who are known to have died, removed from the parish, become exempt or disqualified to serve as jurors since their names were entered thereon, and the names of those who have died, removed, become exempt or disqualified were also taken from the general venire box, after which we supplemented the original list and the ballots in the box, with the names of the same number of good and competent men from the qualified jurors of the parish, as have been taken from the box and erased from the list, so as to keep the number of names in the general venire box and on the jury list at the original standard of three hundred contained therein; each of said names so placed in the general venire box having been written by the said clerk on a separate slip of paper, together with the number of the ward or place of residence of such person.

And immediately after completing said venire list, we selected therefrom the names of the following twenty citizens, good and competent men, possessing the qualifications to serve as grand jurors prescribed by Section 1 of said Act; taken from the different parts of the parish, as far as practicable, to serve as grand jurors at the session of Court beginning on Monday, March 9th, 1903, and until discharged according to law, to-wit:
