

Grand Jollification.

When it was ascertained beyond a doubt that the Hon. James E. Mouton, St. Martin's brilliant son, had carried the District, his party friends were nearly wild with joy...

Messenger, St. Martinsville.

The Democratic roster in this State is looking down from his perch with complacent satisfaction on the fallen enemy.

Capitolian-Advocate.

Mr. Gay's re-election to Congress by such a handsome majority in this District, which has a large colored vote, shows plainly that the colored element, as well as the white, have tired of the professional office-seeker...

Lake Charles Echo.

There is no room in Louisiana for scallawags and carpet baggers, though one may dare-all and the other be a Hero.

Lake Charles Commercial.

The Democratic citizens of our town had a grand torchlight procession last Thursday night in honor of the late victory achieved by them in electing our congressman. The procession was headed by the Abbeville Brass Band...

Abbeville Meridional.

Last Tuesday's election told the tale of Fontelenism and carpet-baggerism. Have seen their last days in Iberia parish, and with them strife and contention will disappear.

Iberia Enterprise.

Creole Female Tonic, the great regulator and invigorator, is sold by Roth & Fleetwood.

Romance in Real Life.

There is a curious story in connection with the marriage of Theodore Tilton's daughter to young Pelton, whom the dispatches of last week reported to be in an insane asylum in Europe. Her husband's parents were wealthy Louisiana sugar planters...

On the Cunarder, in which he took passage, was Tilton's younger daughter, and they made such progress during the voyage that on landing in New York they immediately went to a minister and were married, secured a return passage on the next outward-bound steamer...

arrival in New Orleans, and after seeing her was still more astonished at his brother's perfidy, as she was extremely pretty, rich and charming. Other interviews followed, and in less than six months he pleaded to fill the place his brother was to have held, and they were married.

Exchange.

Hundreds of lives have been saved by the timely use of Creole Female Tonic, which is the greatest remedy known for all womb troubles and female diseases.

A POOR HOSTESS.—A gentleman had accepted an invitation to dine with a certain lady, whose dinners were known to be arranged on a most economical scale. The dinner offered formed no exception to the general rule, and he left the table rather hungry.

"I hope you will do me the honor to dine again with me," said the lady to him as he was taking leave.

"This minute, if you like," replied he. London Exchange.
