MONROE ADVERTISEMENTS.

GRAND FAIR

For the benefit of the

METHODIST E. CHURCH SOUTH,

in Monroe, Louisiana,

December 21st, 22nd, 23rd and 24th.

EVERYTHING AT STORE PRICES.

The place to buy your Christmas Presents.

The place to buy your Christmas Candies.

The place to buy your Christmas Fruits.

The place to buy your Christmas Cakes.

The place to buy your Christmas Toys

The place to meet your Friends.

The place to get a fine Supper.

The place to enjoy Yourself.

The place to do Good.

The Ladies propose this method of supplementing their collections for the new and beautiful BARK CRUCER, now in process of erection, and promise the community a most elegant and agreeable entertainment. As the supper and many fancy articles have been contributed, and other things have been purchased in quantities at reduced rates, they can afford to retail them at prices prevailing in our own town.

They hope to obtain all the CHRISTMAS TRADE they are able to supply, and solicit that orders for special articles, or fruits, fancy goods, etc., in quantities, be handed in at the Parsonage, to Rev. C. F. EVANS.

They assure their friends there will be no disappointment in their prompt delivery. For the benefit of persons living at a distance and others debarred attendance at night, the Fair Room will be kept open during the day.

Everything that the country and city markets can afford will grace the Supper Tables, and, as the Restaurant plan will be observed, purchasers will pay for only what they receive.

Come one! come all! Enjoy yourself, and aid a noble cause.

ADMISSION 25c.

At the same place and for the same cause, on the night of the 24th of December, there will be

A GRAND CHRISTMAS TREE

A Present for Everybody.

Your money's worth guaranteed.

The children's jubilee.

At 6 o'clock, Christmas Eve, the curtain will be withdrawn from the tree, when every one in the room will receive a present.

Any person wishing to use the opportunity, will be allowed this means of presenting to his or her friends their material congratulations.

Admission to the Tree: ADULTS 50c; CHILDREN 25c.

Country papers favorable to the enterprise will please copy.

Butler's Amnesty Bill.

The whole scope and secret of Mr. Butler's famous amnesty bill are to be found in the eighth exception of the third section, that nothing in the act contained shall apply to or affect property and right of property acquired by any levy, judgment, or extent made and executed upon any lands or tenements, goods or chattels, or other valuable thing whatever, and any sale or forfeiture, by confiscation or taxation, whereby any rights or titles have become vested either in the United States or in third persons." Honest Ben is a lawyer, and has, no doubt, many clients who have purchased valuable properties for a mere song under those piratical tax-sale laws enacted in the fury of the war, and would like to have their titles receive a legislative quieting, whence Ben's touching appeal for amnesty to cover the noise of his clutching the crisp bank notes of the blissful foe.—N. Y. World.

Referring to Butler's bill, the Chicago Tribune (Rep.) says:

This act is not a very liberal enlargement of the Fourteenth Amendment. Why should there be any exceptions, when Congress has already, in numerous cases pardoned persons belonging to all these classes—except, perhaps, the President of the Southern Confederacy, and those accused of cruelty to Union prisoners and deserters? Since General Longstreet has been appointed to an important and lucrative office, there is not much room for a bill of exceptions.

TRENTON HIGH SCHOOL,

TRENTON, LA.

Rev. J. Lane Borden, Principal.

The Exercises of this School will Commence on the Third day of October next.

The Board of Directors take this method of informing the Public that a new and commodious School House is now being erected, and will be ready for the opening of the School.

They have secured the services of Rev. J. Lane Borden, as Principal, who has a well-earned reputation for proficiency, energy and enterprise as a teacher. The Principal has engaged Miss Mary Clisby, late of the Presbyterian Synodical Institute, Talladega, Ala., who will take charge of the Female Department. Possessing a thorough education, having had many years' experience as a Teacher in the best schools of the country, and bringing testimonials of the highest character, she is certainly well qualified for the position.

The Scholastic Year consists of three terms, of thirteen weeks each. Pupils charged from time of entry to end of term. No deductions made except in cases of protracted sickness.

Tuition payable one-half in advance, and one-half at the end of the term.

RATES OF TUITION:

For term of thirteen weeks: Primary class, $9; Intermediate class, $12; Academic class, $15; Music, $15; Incidental fee, 50 cts. Board can be secured in private families at $15 per month.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

A. F. Flournoy, President, E. B. Blocker, Secretary, B. D. Sheppard, John Drago, T. McGuire, Jethro Moore, S. O. Larche.
