JULIUS ENNEMOSER, P. M.
Monroe, La., Sept. 3, 1883.

Judge A. A. Gunby departed by train yesterday morning for Tallulah, where business matters claim his attention.

Just received at D. B. Gunby's:
1 Tierce Choice Hams,
20 bbls. Cement.

A picture of happiness: A Monroe clerk mounted upon a bale of cotton on its way to the cotton yard—Bulletin.

A picture of remorse: A Monroe clerk when there is no bale to sit on.

The steamer Saline, from Logtown, where she has rusticated for about three months, came up yesterday morning looking nothing the worse for the long "confinement."

We are again requested to state that the recent heavy rains have washed away several crossings in the upper portion of the city, and Capt. Mooney is urgently requested to give this matter his immediate attention.

The attention of visitors to the City is called to the fact that the New "Alhambra Restaurant, conducted by that clever gentlemen and well known caterer, Essminger, has been opened at No. 10 DeSiard street, where everything in season and the best the market affords can be procured.

District Court.

We are indebted to Austin Green, Esq., our efficient Clerk of court, for the following supplemental synopsis of cases disposed of since last report at the recent term of court:

To-day the Fall Opening of the Star Clothing House takes place. From a personal inspection of its counters and shelves yesterday evening we feel justified in saying that we never saw a handsomer display. The customers and friends of the establishment are requested to call and inspect for themselves to-day. Polite and attentive clerks will take pleasure in showing goods and the livered lacquey will deliver all purchases at your door.
