

The Daily Telegraph.

VOL. 1.

MONROE, LA., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1883.

NO. 28.

NOT Mrs. BRADY'S

— BUT —

LEON GERSON'S

PIANO FORTE

WILL BE RAFFIED OUT AT THE

MAMMOTH DRY GOODS ESTABLISHMENT!
34 GRAND STREET.

☞ Come one, come all and try your luck! It does not cost you one cent, for the chances are GIVEN AWAY.

All it needs is that you buy the best goods for the least money at LEON GERSON'S, 34 Grand Street, Monroe, La.

and for each dollar handed over the counter, you get a ticket which gives you a chance to win the splendid

Mathushck Square Piano,

Now on exhibition in LEON GERSON'S Store at 34 GRAND STREET.

All the ladies who have tried the Piano are unanimous in its praise, and wish in the bottom of their blessed hearts to hold the lucky number and carry off the prize.

Look at the Bargains :

Calicoes 5c per yard; 4-4 Brown Domestic 7c per yard; 4-4 Soft Finished Bleaching 8c per yard; Cotton Flannel 10c per yard; Jeans from 10c to 1.00 per yard; Corsets worth 1.00 for 50c; Ladies' Hose, white and colored 1.00 per doz; Ladies' bordered Handkerchiefs 1.25 per doz; Ladies' sewed Shoes, calf or cloth, 90c per pair; Ladies' Foxed Shoes 1.00 per pair; American Dress Goods 10c per yard; Flannel Suitings 25c per yard.

The immense and in variety unparalleled stock consists of Dress Goods, Silks, Cloaks, Flannels, Suitings, Cloakings, Eiderdown, Hoisery, Notions, Fancyware and Jewelry; Buttons and Trimmings, Laces, Towels, Napkins, Spreads, Table Cloths, Curtains, Lambrequins, Carpets and Rugs; Ladies' Misses' and Children Hats.

To enumerate all the styles, colors, shades and prices of these goods would fill volumes, but the ladies are respectfully invited to pay me a visit and convince themselves of the reality of my offer, that is:

To Sell the Best Goods for the Lowest Prices.

Ladies living out of town are respectfully solicited to send in their orders. I assure their prompt and careful execution.

GENTLEMEN'S DEPARTMENT.

In this my stock is equally as well assorted and varied as in all other branches, and consists of—

CLOTHING, HATS, BOOTS, SHOES,
UNDERWEAR, NECKWEAR, SHIRTS,
HOSIERY, UMBRELLAS, TRUNKS,
VALISES and SACHELS, ETC.

Old and young men as well as boys will find it to their advantage to call on me and examine my goods and prices before purchasing elsewhere.

I can and do compete successfully with any establishment in this section of the State in regard to both quality and prices of my goods.

GROCERIES AND SUPPLIES.

I offer in the purest goods and at lowest figures, such as—

BACON, FLOUR, SUGAR, COFFEE,

MOLASSES, TOBACCO, CIGARS,

BAGGING and TIES, SADDLERY of every

Description, WOOD, WILLOW and TIN WARE,

GLASS WARE, CROCKERY, Etc., Etc., Etc.

In conclusion I draw the particular attention of my many friends and customers to the newly and fully supplied assortment of

Handsome Boots and Shoes for Ladies, Gentlemen, Misses, Boys, Children and Infants, manufactured for my trade by the celebrated firm of

SALLER, LEWIN & Co., Philadelphia, and other renowned houses.

Come on to Gerson's Dry Goods Store, Where goods are cheaper than e'er before—
For every dollar cash you spend, You get a chance to win the grand Mathushck Piano, now in his store—And then you can play, "H. M. S. Pinafore."

Remember 34 Grand Street, Monroe, La.

LEON GERSON.