We had the pleasure of meeting Sunday, Capt. A. E. Giles, who was until very recently a resident of this city. From him we learn that he left the Susie B., (The Times-Democrat's boat), at Selma, Ala., where he will rejoin her Saturday. From Selma, the Susie goes to Mobile for inspection, after which she will ascend the Tombigbee, and thence go up the Warrior river territory. Mr. Giles holds the responsible position of chief engineer on the Susie, and we can say he is a good one.

Valuable city lots for sale. Apply to
 MULLSAPS & SHOLARS,

Commercial.

Business yesterday was dull as is usual, being the first commercial day of the week, but local sales engaged the attention of our merchants and they did not feel chagrined in the least. The total receipts of cotton up to date amounts to 4,054 bales. These receipts represent actual sales and do not figure with re-shipment cotton.

Wanted,

At the Boss Grocery House

A first class Clerk for his increasing trade. Apply immediately.
 ROBERT J. NELSON.

We had the pleasure of meeting Capt. L. P. Delahoussaye, of the Str. St. John, in town yesterday. The Captain is one of the most popular steamboatmen on the Ouachita, and his boat, the St. John, one of the best. He informed us that she had been a little bruised up in the Bayou Sara trade, but that she would be as good as new when she left the docks at New Orleans, where she is now being repaired. The Captain will return to the city in time to be on board her first trip up, which will probably be Saturday.

River News.

It is probable that the John H. Hanna will be the weekly boat leaving New Orleans to-morrow evening, and that the St. John will follow Saturday. So says the Picayune of that day.

The John Howard failed to cross Catahoula shoals and was compelled to reship her freight on the D. Stein, which boat arrived at our port Sunday night.

The river is coming up again at quite a rapid rate.

The Timmie Baker came in yesterday evening. She brought a quantity of cotton seed for the Monroe oil mill.

The Hanna Blanks, though due, had not arrived up to mid-night last night. Plenty water here.

OPERA HOUSE.

The celebrated comedian, Mr. Jno. F. Ward, supported by Miss Mary Davenport and an excellent company, appeared at the Opera House last night in the romantic Irish drama, entitled MORNA DOON.

The play is somewhat sensational, but exceedingly patriotic, full of dramatic situations and was very well received. Mr. Ward is a very clever comedian of the peculiar Milesian school, of which Joe Murphy, Harry Watkins and J. K. Emmett are the leading stars, and possesses a humor which has all the charms of originality and is refreshingly devoid of that coarseness which the average Irish comedian finds it so difficult to avoid.

As "Terry the Fox," Mr. Ward made quite a hit, and his several songs were duly encored.

Deserving of special mention, was the leading lady, Miss Mary Davenport, an excellent actress, and who gave a powerful rendition of the title role, Morna Doon. Miss Susie Devin, also appeared to advantage as Sybil. Langley and her songs were highly appreciated. We must not forget to mention little Lillie Ward who completely captured the audience. The other characters were also well sustained.

To-night will be the farewell performance of this excellent company, and Maeder's great comedy drama, "TOP 'O THE MORNING" will be presented. It is highly spoken of by the Press everywhere and we bespeak a rich treat for those who attend.
