FUN! FUN!! FUN!!!

At Danal's Skating Rink. Pig catching on wheels. Friday night February, 5th. Come see the pig in his efforts to escape, pursued by men and boys on wheels.

A dispatch, received this morning, reports the safe arrival at Alexandria of Mr. John H. Rice, Capt. McCranie and R. H. Eadon, who took an overland trip looking at the section of country to be traversed by the North and South railroad.

A colored woman, by the name of Logan, attempted, at about half past eight o'clock this morning to cross the road track at the corner of DeSiard and Sixth streets, carrying on her back a large bundle of clothes, and was taking home to wash. A steam engine No. 309 came along the track and the tender struck her with wood, both of which were killed to see the locomotive backing her up. She passed by fearfully. The engineer gave her a lesson that, is, until you safely do for the

WEST MONROE DOT.

[FROM OUR REGULAR REPORTER]

West Monroe can boast of one or more aspirants for legislative honors, and they will probably "bob up serenely" at the proper time. They are worthy men too. May the best men win.

I wonder what Bro. McMeans thinks of this weather? I guess that prohibition will stand a poor show such days as this and yesterday were.

The popular and well known dentist Dr. Daniel Beatty is the guest of our esteemed friend Capt. Jno. E. Morris, who by the way, is proprietor of the West Monroe House. The Doctor looks hale and hearty and has changed but little since here last.

We had the pleasure of meeting yesterday at our place of business, Miss McCormick and Miss Minnie Faulkner of Monroe; also Miss Addie Collins and Miss Pearl Keller of Morehouse, who were accompanied by the Misses Ida and Emma Ethridge of this place.

Business is now improving daily and I guess we will be busy for some time now as the hill farmers believe in living well.

Our old Trenton friend Mr. Julius Ellinger, but now with the big house of S. Meyer was in town Saturday.

Our old friend Robert McClendon was in town last Saturday.

Mr. W. L. Morris will add needed improvements to his store and do a general furnishing business this year.

Maj. J. H. Flournoy has opened up in his new storehouse.

Mr. F. Eadon ex-Mayor of Monroe was in our town last Saturday.
