The compress booms.

Weather cloudy overhead and damp under feet to-day.

Yesterday was Mardi Gras day—otherwise Shrove Tuesday.

The colored Knights of Labor will meet next Friday night at 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Duke, of Harrisonburg, mother of Mr. Lem C. Duke arrived in the city on the St. John yesterday.

It is to be regretted that the weather is so inclement to-day, as it will to some extent interfere with the success of the Grand Carnival Ball.

Mr. C. H. Trousdale, a genial young friend a thorough newspaper man, publishes to-day his valedictory and retires from the editorial chair of the Bulletin. We part with Charley with regret and wish him success in any future undertaking that he may engage in.

Timber is in demand at this city and raftsmen will find it to their interest to bring it to this market for sale. Our saw mill men will pay the very highest market price.

Cotton Seed Meal

We are agents for the Monroe Oil Mills. Price at store $1.00 per sack.
MITCHELL & McCORMICK
Monroe, La.

A large crowd from stations on the V. S. & P. Railroad are expected in the city to-night to attend the Masquerade Carnival. A special train will leave Shreveport to-day.

The river continues to rise steadily and though the banks of the river are high above the surface, yet precautions should be taken against a probable inundation below. The rain of to day will no doubt augment the rise.

Major J. Shaw Jones, a graduate of the State University, left on the 21st inst. for New Orleans to accept a position in the Custom House, tendered him by Hon. B. F. Jonas.

Major Jones is a Ouachita boy of whom we feel proud, a step son of our honored citizen Major Thos. McGuire, and although we regret to lose "Shaw," we congratulate Mr. Jonas upon such an eminently fitting and proper appointment.

Major Jones is thoroughly competent and will do credit to the position which he assumes.

May Josephine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Grady, died yesterday at the home of her parents on Island DeSiard, this parish, aged 16 years. Miss Grady, was a native of this city and was quite a charming young lady. The writer knew her from her childhood and can sympathize with the parents in their bereavement. The funeral took place this evening from the Catholic church to the Catholic Cemetery.

To Planters.

Messrs. Mitchell and McCormick will duplicate New Orleans prices, freight added, for Stern's Fertilizers. Send your orders to this firm, which has a large stock on hand.

MONROE RESTAURANT.

J. Rosenthal, New York; A. E. Husband, Frost; A. E. Stendelton, Monroe, Ga; L. Christopher, Vicksburg.

Mr. J. H. McCormick informed us this morning that he had received intimation from a number of farmers and business men living along the tributaries, that in future it was their purpose to trade in Monroe, they being convinced that this city can offer such inducements as will warrant them in transferring their trade here.

Now we have all along contended that this city could sell as cheap as any market in the State and we have urged our business men to make a concerted effort to establish this fact to the satisfaction of those people who reside along these streams.

Moody and Sankey opened in Galveston last night to audience of 2000 people.

WEST MONROE DOTS.

[FROM OUR REGULAR REPORTER]

The oil mills shipped four car loads oil by yesterdays train.

Business was on a boom in our town yesterday; all our merchants seeming to have all they could do.

Dr. J. H. McCormick, the popular feed store man was in the future city of West Monroe yesterday.

The Excelsior saw mills of which our friend F. Vollman is proprietor shipped several car loads lumber yesterday.

Senator E. T. Sellers, of Union parish was in our town yesterday and paid us a pleasant call.

We venture the assertion that the election in our town yesterday was conducted on honest and legitimate principals judging from the fact that the officers were selected from among our best citizens. The following is a list of their names: W. E. Hoggard, M. H. McGuire and J. R. Herron commissioners, W. L. Merris, clerk, J. E. Morris, Dy. Sheriff.

The young people of West Monroe are organizing a dramatic club with the following management: Mr. M. H. McGuire, president and business manager; W. L. Morris, vice president; W. R. Moore, secretary; T. C. McLain, treasurer. The intention of the club is to amuse and instruct the pleasure seeking people of our town and community.

Business at the ferry was unusually brisk yesterday.

The beautiful str. St. John was at our landing yesterday and after discharging a small freight and 2500 sacks seed for the oil mills left for Camden.

Up to the closing of our report yesterday there had been 42 votes cast and the indications pointed to an overwhelming Democratic majority.
