Tomorrow is Ash Wednesday and the beginning of Lent.

Rev. W. M. Alford, of Keachi, will preach in the Baptist Church to-night.

The St. John, bound for Camden arrived at 10 o'clock this morning with a good trip.

Another "cold wave" hit us at 2:30 o'clock this evening and the thermometer has, in consequence, a downward tendency.

The suit of E. B. Cryer vs. R. P. Glenn and A. C. Gibson, United States Marshal, was decided in the U. S. Court at Shreveport in favor of Capt. Cryer.

The Messrs. Duty Brothers have placed the new shaft on the steamer Marcus Collins and will complete the work within the next day or two--after which the Collins will leave for Trinity.

The stock subscription book to the Monroe Compress is now ready and all those who have not yet subscribed, but desire to do so, should apply to Capt. W. P. Renwick, who is the Secretary of the Company.

The Wyoming discharged here for this city, 40 sacks bran, 10 barrels potatoes, 75 sacks oats, 64 boxes bacon, 70 barrels flour, 85 barrels pork and 107 kegs nails. As above stated this freight was for this city and this does not include any freight discharged for reshipment.

We refer our readers to the card, elsewhere in the DAILY, of Messrs. N. P. Cook and Thomas L. James who have associated themselves together, and will conduct a general Brokerage business in this city, under the firm name and style of Cook & James. These two young men are indefatigable workers and are deserving of a liberal patronage from the merchantile Community.

Miss Katie Putnam, the charming, prima donna, "every body's favorite," will appear at the Opera House two nights only, Friday and Saturday, the 12th, and 13th. On Friday night Miss Putnam will appear in the beautiful Pastoral Drama; Little Barefoot, and on Saturday evening (by special request) "Lena The Madcap," appearing in the title role. Miss Putnam has visited Monroe before--consequently no stranger to our people and therefore needs no recommendation at our hands--she being a great favorite with our people.

Our Opportunity.

The railroad meeting at 2 p. m., to-day, (Tuesday,) at the Courthouse, supplementing that of last evening, was well attended, and among the audience were leading gentlemen from other parishes.

Col. Leavel spoke for Morehouse last night, and Messrs. Girod and Davis for Caldwell to-day, and neither of the influential gentlemen gave utterance to any uncertain sound. It was very, very significant that President Bush announced to-day--what he had not done before, that the Syndicate have determined to build a North and South railroad, and that it rested with the people along the proposed route whether such road should finally adopt the route contemplating, or select some other.

Our visitors, most favorably impressed with all they have seen and heard, leave to-night for Alexandria via Shreveport. They carry with them the best wishes of our people.

WEST MONROE DOTS.

Miss Josie Eadom is spending to-day in our young and growing town.

In our notice of Mrs. McLain of Waverly being in our town, we should have used the words mother-in-law, instead of mother.
