The thermometer at noon to-day registered 67 degrees in the shade.

To day is a regular March day—the wind being rather high all the morning.

Just Received at Robt. J. Nelson's "The Boss Grocer" One Car Load of Alabama Lime @ $1.65 per barrel.

The string band from Vicksburg, which furnished the music for the Ball at the Opera House last night, has been reserved to play at the dance Monday night, which will be given immediately after the performance of the Shreveport Amateurs in honor of our visiting guests. This action on the part of our people is commendable and meets with popular favor.

TO THE LADIES.

I will leave Saturday for New Orleans, where I go to purchase a SELECT STOCK OF MILLINERY GOODS. I also desire to inform the Ladies that I will carry on Dress Making, Cutting and Fitting a Specialty. The patronage of the Ladies is solicited. Prices to suit the times. MISS M. V. STAPLES.

River News.

The Hanna is due in port this evening and will get another good trip of cotton as a starter from this city and our neighboring town.

The Picayune says that the Hanna left New Orleans Wednesday with a splendid trip.

The St. John is the packet leaving New Orleans this evening.

THE CALICO BALL.

The Calico Ball at the Opera House last night was well patronized, all wearing calico but there were only a few dressed to represent other personages and they were: Mr. M. Landauer as King and Miss Regina Weil as Queen of the ball; Mr. M. Sommers as "Uncle Sam" and Miss Jotta Weil as "Columbla" and Mr. Marcus Weil represented a high German officer of the Court. All the other ladies and gentlemen were dressed very appropriate, and the ball was a decided success throughout, and did not close until about half past 3 o'clock this morning.

As an evidence of the ability of Monroe to compete in prices with any of her neighboring cities we will cite the following facts gleaned from Mr. A. Benoit: This gentleman is building an iron warehouse for Messrs. Fudickar & Kalliski and needing a lot of iron bolts weighing in the aggregate 442 pounds, he applied to the Messrs. Duty Brothers for their prices which were given him, but deeming their prices too high he sent to Vicksburg for them. The Monroe price was 62% per cent lower than the Vicksburg price, not including the freight. This is not an exceptional case as it is thus in all lines of business, groceries, dry goods, provisions ad interim.

To The Ladies.

Mrs. M. J. McKenna desires to inform her numerous patrons that after the 1st of April, she will continue her MILLINERY and DRESSMAKING business at her residence on Washington street. She will receive a full and complete line of Millinery Goods direct from New York within the next few days, and all orders will be promptly and carefully filled and satisfaction guaranteed. The ladies are invited to call and examine her stock before purchasing elsewhere.

WEST MONROE DOTS.

[FROM OUR REGULAR REPORTER.]

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Crosley, left on yesterday's train. Mrs. Crosley will stop off at Terry, Miss., while friend Charley is bound for the Crescent City.

The Early Bird came down yesterday flying light.

Mr. Charlie Cellos of the Monroe Wharfbat was in town yesterday.

Mr. F. Vollman is up the D'Arbonne in search of timber for the Excelsior saw and planing mills.

We notice some eight or ten dead hogs lying around our town and some of them have been dead for a week or more. Our people should look after this matter and have them removed at once or prepare for considerable sickness this summer.

The Excelsior saw mills shipped three car loads lumber yesterday.

What has become of the bridge question here of late? We would be more than pleased to hear something encouraging on the subject.

There was a big raft of fine cypress timber tied up here yesterday for the Excelsior Saw Mills.

The fund for the benefit of Mrs. General Hancock, now amounts to $37,091, and will doubtless reach $20,000.

Senator Mitchell, of Oregon, made a strange avowal in his speech in the Senate in favor of his anti Chinese bill. He declared that the violence practiced against the Chinese was not the work of hoodlums, but of the honest and respectable citizens contending for their own protection. This may all be true, but it bears a very close resemblance to ruffianism and murder, and if it had occurred "in the South would certainly go by that name.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

A special to the New Orleans Picayune from Meridian, Miss., says Wm. T. Willey, formerly of Lauderdale Station, attempted suicide at the Ragsdale Hotel, at 12 o'clock Thursday night, by shooting himself in the breast with a 32 calibre Smith & Wesson pistol, the ball entering just above the left nipple.

The cause of the deed is shrouded in mystery. He was married a few days ago, and his attempted suicide was in the same room that his marriage ceremony was performed in.
